PULLMAN VS. GIBBONS.

The Corporation Applies for a Change of Venue

IN THE SUIT TO AUXUL CHARTER.

The Company Claims That Judge Gibbon Is Prejudiced Against the Corporation, and Quotes from a Literary Production of the Juriat to Prove It.

CRICAGO, Oct. 25.— The Pullman com-pany applied for a change of venue from Judge Gibbons on the quo warranto case brought by Attorney General Moloney. The ground alloged for a change was prejudies on the part of the court. The defordants state that Judge Gibbons has writter a book on the ownership of land by corporations, and that his views as set forth therein would make an immartial forth therein would make an importial hearing impossible. The application for a change was restated by Attorney General Moloney and a long argument from both sides followed. The court announced that he would re-serve his decision, and arguments are be-ing continued today.

Ing continued today. The book written by Judge Gibbo as which is the cause of all the argument, was published in 1888, before he was on the bench, and is entitled "Tenure and Toll." A number of references are made in it in regard to Pullman, and the following quo-tation is the one on which the Pullman company bases its application: "The idea of home-that idea, the incar-

"The idea of home-that idea, the incar-nation of which in man's life is essential to his true development and happiness-finds no association with the name of Pullman. The people dwell in houses not then own, and their tenure is subject to termi nation at ten days' notice, a condition em nation at ton days' notice, a condition em-bodied in this lease, the corporation reserv-ing the right to cancel that lease, even though the rent may have been paid in ad-vance for a longer period than the time of notice stipulated. Is not this in contra-vention of the law fixing and maintaining the relative rights of landlord and tenant⁴. The rent may be paid in the forenoon of the first day of the month; in the after-noon the decree is promulgated that no-tices be issued to the benants to vacate. In ten days,

Such an absolute extinction of individuality and such an utter absorption of that individuality by a capitalistic organization is without approach or parallel in the history of any other modern civilized com munity. In many respects the power of the Russian car pales into utter insignifi-cance in comparison with the power of the close corporation which rules Pullman. Can it be suid that that power is always rightfully exercised? Within the limit-of this ideal (?) social and industrial realm escape from the all-percading influence of escape from the all percenting influence of the corporation is impossible. "Many grievances exist, many acts of injustles occur, but no one dare utter a cry for help or redress. The laborers at Pullman believe that "spotters" — paid envestroppers of the company — mingle with them to catch and veport to their matters any size or wood correspond of masters any sign or word, expression of disapproval or criticism of the actions of the authorities. "Pullman is the only community of 10,

Training is the only community of 10. 000 people in the United States that has not a newspaper published within its limits. The freedom of the press here would be limited to the promulgation and approval of the decrees and dogmas of the powers that be, "What a spectacle. Ten thousand peo-ple in utter subjection to the avariation and limitless power of a dozen men or ganized and co-operating together as one man, who owns a psuedo city, exempt from numleipal burdens and responsibili-ties. Not a single man of all that ter thousand three express an opinion about the affairs of the community in which is dwells. These conditions of existence he get a dividity little less than shavish, a de-pendence that is moral weakness and mental degradation. "There is a lack of attention in the mengre provisions for religious instruc-tion. The scating capacity of the halls is insufficient for the accommodation of the people, and the rental demanded is so high that it is with great difficulty any religious denomination can pay it. The company, with an eye single to its own solfish pur-pose, provides shelter and meat for the besty, but maketh to provision for manna for the soul. The soul cannot forge a bolt or line a boller."

A LEAKY GAS MAIN. It Canses a Fatal Explosion and Rulus a Building in H. Louis.

Building in St. Lonis. ST. Louis, Oct. 34.—H. W. Damme's grocery store, at the northeast corner of Biddlo and Ninth streets, was blown to rains by an explosion and five persons were badly burn, the inducies of one being thought futal. The only persons in the store, which was a two story brick, of which the second story was need as a residence by Mr. Damme were Mr. and Mrs. Damme and Albert Kurtz, an employe. The explosion came like the barsting of a dynamite bomb. The walls of the building were blown outward, the floar lifted from the later and Mr. and Mrs. (joists and Mr. and Mrs. Damme were for-cibly hurled through the openings where the walls had once been and into the street. the waits had one been and into the street, Kurtz waits down into the cellar half buried beneath a heap of debris A baby on the second floor was blown out into the street, allabiling on a pile of bricks, and means doubt stenped without a scratch

Dwyer, Kelly and Beer, the Intter fatally bwyer, Kelly and neer, the inter many injured, were passers by and happened to be immediately alongside the store when the explosion occurred. It was at first thought a gasoline tank had exploded, but that was found all right. It is susported that a looking gas main was the cause.

Not in the New Association.

PITTSBUHG, Oct. 34 .- What may prove Fittancho, Oct. 24.—What may prove the death knell of the new national base-ball association was sprung yesterday when A. C. Buckenburger telegraphed F. H. Richter that the Pittsburg organization had decided to withdraw from the association. This was because Buckenburger had been unable to secure suitable grounds. As Plitsburg was supposed to be the stronghold of the association the with-drawal will, to say the least, have a vary depressing effect. It is understood that "Buck" will have no connection whatever with the association in the fature.
