CHANGE OF LOCATION.

Inspector in Town Seeking New Post Office Quarters.

A CHANGE WILL BE MADE.

It is Believed That the Office Will be Moved Back to the Old Place on West Centre Street.

It is more than likely that in the near future the location of the local postoffice will be changed. Postoffice Inspector Owings, of Washington, was in town yesterday and spent most of the day looking at available places. It is not known what recommendation he will make to the department, or what place he will recommend, but it is quite certain that he will recommend a change of location.

It seems that the owner of the premises now occupied is not satisfied with the rent he has been receiving and recently intimated to Postmaster Mellet that the steam heat would be cut off if additional rent could not be secured. An increased rent can hardly be paid, as the government only allows a fixed sum for rent, heat and light—$375 per year—and should an increase be made it would come out of the postmaster's pocket.

The rumor that the postoffice is to be removed to Postmaster Mellet's building, on East Centre street, is without foundation. In the first place Mr. Mellet's property as arranged at present is not large enough and, secondly, there is a saloon in the basement and the government will not allow any of its postal branches to be located in the same building with a saloon. The Francy building, corner of Main and Oak streets, has been suggested as a site and inspected, but as there is also a saloon in the cellar of this building it will not be considered.

Among the places Inspector Owings visited yesterday were the Higgins property on South Main street, near the First National Bank, the Ferguson's theatre building, and the store rooms in the Ferguson Hotel building, on the Centre street side. The postoffice was located at the latter place before it was established at its present quarters, and it is generally believed that it will be moved back there. Inspector Owings left for Minersville last evening.

Congressman Reilly.

Hon. James B. Reilly, the Democratic candidate for Congress, is making a most vigorous, though exceedingly quiet campaign. He is not depending upon promises, but on his record of the past and when election day arrives his constituents will attest their confidence in intelligence, ability and integrity by giving him a rousing majority in all the districts that stood by him before and many new ones. Good Democrats and Republicans with sound judgment will give Mr. Reilly their votes this fall and again return him to Congress.

AMUSEMENTS.

"LIVING PICTURES."

A novelty will be introduced by Signor Tisso at Ferguson's theatre on Tuesday evening, October 30th, in the way of Musical Living Pictures as in the pictures of "Sally in our Alley," "The Village Blacksmith," "Comin' thro' the Rye," "The Lost Chord," etc. The appropriate melodies will be sung by invisible soloists and quartettes. The introduction has proved the latest sensation in London the past month and Signor Tisso is the first director in America to introduce the innovation.

"A CORK MAN"

is one of the comedy successes of the season, with a clever comedian like Mr. Cawthorn, as the bright particular star. A company especially selected for this comedy, in which there is not a dull line, would seem to assure for Mr. Cawthorn nothing but success, who has made fame and fortune in his old comedy, "The Little Nugget." Mr. Cawthorn and his clever company will be at Ferguson's theatre, Thursday evening, November 1st.

McElhenney will surprise everybody with a delicious lunch to-morrow evening.

Foot Ball To-morrow.

The strong Mt. Carmel eleven will line up against our boys at the Trotting park to-morrow for the first time this season. This club is certainly a strong one, not having been defeated yet. Our boys are confident of success and are in good condition. The showing they made last Saturday against Ashland was certainly a good one and should they continue their work will capture the county championship. The boys should be given every kind of encouragement as they are playing good ball. The Pottsville team, which was to have played here to-morrow, postponed their date until November 3rd. The home team will line up as follows in to-morrow's game: Left end, Shortall; left tackle, A. Rose; left guard, McHale or Ogden; center, Trezise; right guard, Frost; right tackle, Mallick; right end, Malley; quarterback, Jones; left half-back, Wertz; right half-back, R. Rose; full back, Burkhardt.

A New Branch.

The Standard Oil Company is making arrangements to extend its distributing stations in this region and in the near future the Shenandoah and Mahanoy City territory will be separated. The customers at the latter place are now supplied from the Shenandoah station. When the change goes into effect Mahanoy City will have a station of its own and it will be placed in charge of William Willman, Howard E. Deisher remaining here. Mr. Willman is getting ready to move to Mahanoy City.

Y. P. S. C. E. Convention.

The annual convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Schuylkill county convened at Mahanoy City this afternoon, in the Presbyterian church of that city. The convention will be continued to-morrow. This evening it will be addressed by Rev. Dr. Buchanan, of Nauch Chunk. Miss Kate Glover and Rev. T. Maxwell Morrison are representing the society connected with the Presbyterian church of town at the convention.

A Lunch Supper.

To-night, at McElhenney's cafe, there will be served a lunch free to everybody. It will consist of oyster pot-pie. Do not be backward in calling on him. He will greet you with a smile and serve you with a generous hand. For Saturday evening he has in preparation a lunch that will astonish the most fastidious.

Box Social.

Many members of the Evangelical church and their friends enjoyed a box social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Sponser, on West Coal street, last evening. The social was held in aid of the new Evangelical church fund and was an excellent success.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

What the News Gatherers Hear on Their Rounds.

EVANGELICAL DEAD LOCK.

Rev. Newhart Makes Another Demand For the Church Keys Without Success—Action by the Court.

Among the commercial travelers who were guests at the Ferguson House last evening was one who seemed a tower of flesh. He attracted much attention and it seemed to annoy him considerably. Whenever he observed any one eyeing him he would shoot back a dagger glance which generally caused the looker to turn his head. Ex-Tax Receiver John A. Titman is considered one of the heavy weights of the town, but when he took a seat beside the stranger he found that he was comparatively a light-weight. Almost everybody in and about the hotel devised a scheme to learn the weight of the stranger, but all failed. Titman got the nearest to the mark, but got no satisfaction. He and the stranger sat beside each other for an hour or more indulging in a most friendly and evidently a mutually beneficial conversation, but whenever Titman showed an inclination to talk about weights the stranger would open a recital of some interesting experience during his trips through various parts of the world. He had been a great traveler. "You must pull the scales down pretty well," Titman would remark. "I guess I do," the stranger would answer, and he would then branch off and the anxious public was obliged to let it go at that. The estimates ran from 350 to 475 pounds and the majority of the guesses were near the latter figure.

There was another stir among the members of the local Evangelical church congregation yesterday. It was caused by another visit from Rev. Newhart, of Pottsville, the Escherte clergyman who is trying to get possession of the church under the decision of the Supreme Court in the Reading case. Rev. Newhart secured the keys of the churches at Ashland and Locust Dale on Wednesday and came here yesterday to get the keys of the local church. He called upon the trustees and showed them a letter from his counsel, Ex-Judge Ryan, in which a formal demand was made for the keys, but the trustees refused to surrender on the ground that the congregation had decided to hold possession until ordered to vacate by the courts of Schuylkill county. They claim that, while under the general effect of the Supreme Court decision the church must ultimately be surrendered, the status of the congregation here and that of the church involved in the case under the decision are not the same, in that in the Reading case the congregation was divided and here the congregation is united against the Escherte-Bowmanite faction; that the latter haven't a member and not one of the faction contributed a cent towards building the church. Under these facts and others the local congregation is still hopeful that the court may take a different view of the matter when the proper time comes.

When Max Rees, the auctioneer, opened his place of business yesterday morning he found the floor strewn with empty shoe boxes and the miscellaneous stock on the counters and shelves scattered about the place in a manner that showed a hasty inspection had been made during the night. An investigation showed that the front door of the store had been opened during the night and a quantity of stock had been stolen. By forcing a piece of tin fastened over an opening in one of the doors the robbers had little difficulty in reaching the latch inside. Mr. Rees kept the matter quiet yesterday in the hope that some clue to the robbers or stolen goods could be secured, and stated last night that he was confident a discovery or recovery would be made very soon. He estimates that over one hundred dollars worth of goods, principally shoes that had been sent him for sale on commission, were stolen.

WHAT ABOUT IT?

Why the Delay in Selecting a Second Ward Polling Place?

Several weeks ago the HERALD called attention to the determination of J. K. P. Scheiffly not to allow his place to be used as the Second ward polling place any longer. Considerable prominence was given to the announcement and it was urged that a change of place be arranged at once. For some unknown reason no attention was given to the matter. The election is now near at hand and the Second ward has no polling place. Mr. Scheiffly has again stated positively to a HERALD reporter that he will not allow the polling place to be located at his house this fall. The change should be made at once and the new place selected generously advertised. If this is not done many votes may be lost. People not aware of the change will go to the old stand and may not have time to go to the new place.

Oysters in all styles at the White House to-night. Our man will sell fresh Morris River oyster oysters around town every day this week. G. M. Schoener, 121 N. Main street.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

An Old Miner Found Dead by His Wife in Bed.

Patrick Haley, an aged man and former miner, who resided at Brownsville with his equally aged wife as his only companion, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning. The discovery was made by his wife and she was prostrated by the shock. Haley was about 72 years old and his wife is about the same age.

The widow says her husband retired early Wednesday evening in apparently good health and seemed to be enjoying an easy slumber in the morning, but when she went to arouse him at about ten o'clock yesterday morning she found him dead. Undertaker O'Neill took charge of the body. It is supposed death was due to heart disease.

The bride was attired in a beautiful white silk dress and the groom in black. The parlor in which the ceremony took place was handsomely decorated for the occasion. There was a supper after the ceremony and the couple left on the midnight train for Philadelphia. They received many beautiful presents.

A Fast Run.

A train on the Lehigh Valley railroad made a very fast run from Black Creek to Delano this morning. Passenger train No. 15, in charge of Benj. Waters, engineer; Zach. Goulder, fireman, and James Ford, conductor, left Black Creek seven minutes late, but got to Delano on time, having made the run of 22 miles in 23 minutes, including three stops. The run was made by engine No. 384 and is considered an exceptionally good one, as the run was up a very heavy grade from Quakake to Delano.
