NEW YORK Democrats seem to have lost their bearings. They will find them after November 6th.

Bursts should be sent to Congress. He is the workingmum's friend, and every; body seems to knew it.

Ir the workingmen know where their bread and butter is to come from, they will yote for Hon. Charles N. Hrumm.

Hill and Cleveland will know their the after the election. They will find themselves both undersized and over esti-

Ir Shenandoah Republicans will present themselves at the polls on election day they will show surprising strength for the whole tirket.

THE young men are to the front in polithis year and the great majority of them are with the Republican party. Plenty of free schools make good citizens and good Republicans,

THE loss of a State Senator and a Representative may result in the loss of a United States Senator to the Republicans, and that loss could not be regained within six years.

We have always considered Hon, James | 21 51 ktions an hour, B. Reilly a gentlemanty and fair-minded man, and are still of that opinion. Socially he is one of the best of good, fellows, Pollifically we feel that he has recently lacked good judgment. We feel that he had an opportunity during the last session of Congress to so benefit his constituents 1: in Schuylkill county and make himself affairs, both before and after the war so popular with them as to place his neat in Congress at his own disposal for life, but he failed to grasp it. Had he exercleed the same zeal in connection with the coal interests as affected by the tariff bill that he exhibited in connection with an industry with which he practically had nothing to do, it would have been folly acknowledging that he is leading a foriorn hope, has the courage to stand by his convictions and talks to the people on the tariff question as he views it, and not like other Democrats who are free traders at heart but are afraid to declare themselves. We regret that the Colonel is in had company. He does not expect to be elected Governor, but is having lots of fun on the fortune he is spending, and he is man enough not to feel sore after the circus is over. Colonel Singerly glories in the Wilson-Gorman free trade bill and thinks the tariff can stand a cut of ten per cent, additional in many places. But he has a right to an opinion as well as any other man. Whether or not he is right the people will decide on election day. Meanwhile let the Republicans of town show the Democrats that they are not hide bound, bigoted or self-suicidal, and that they are capable of treating with gentlemen, regardless of partisan feeling.

Tedious Suffering Finds Relief.

HAVERHILL, N. H .- Many physicians have pronounced as incurable, diseases of the skin and blood. Mrs. Hodsdon of this place abandoned the old school method and used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and was cured.

In October, 1890, and for a year after, Mrs. Hodsdon suffered from a diseased ankle bone. She has always been troubled with Salt Rheum which aggravated the diseased limb. Prescriptions and medicines of all sorts were used, but' with no benefit. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was tried, and it drove the poison out of her blood, healed the ulcerous sores, and restored Mrs. Hodsdon to health and strength. Favorite Remedy cleanses the blood, and strengthens the nerves. In cases of scrofula and salt rheum, it cures where all else fails.

VON CAPRIVI RESIGNS

The German Chanceller Retires to didate Private Life.

ZU EULENBERG ALSO RETIRES.

The Crisis Brought About Through Differ cuces on Socialist Repressive Measures Report That the Emperor Has Called Prince Hohenlohe to the Chancellorship

BEILIN, Oct. 27 .- A great stir was caused in well informed quarters here yesterday afternoon by the receipt of a telegram from Cologno giving the substance of an and Count Botho Zu Eulenberg, president of the Prussian council of ministers, had resigned. It is known that for some time past there has been considerable tension between the chancellor and Count Zu Eulenberg, owing to the former's views in ogard to the measures to be submitted to he releasting for the repression of socialism. The chancellor is in favor of pur-suing a moderate policy, while Count Zu Eulenberg believes in the adoption of radical measures to obtain the end sought.

Throughout the evening the streets were thronged with excited crowds inquiring for further news in regard to the ministerial crisis, intelligence of which had spread through the city with great rapidity. Only one newspaper published an ex-tra edition, which was largely bought. It has been definitely learned that the It has been definitely learned that the chancellor resigned before a meeting of representative statesmen of the federal states, which was held yesterday afternoon. This meeting showed the existence of great discord regarding the proposed anti-revolutionary bill. Count Zu Eulenberg thereupon resigned. Thus confronted by the double resignation Emperor William algorithms in prepared visit to Blank. by he double resignation imperor will-iam abandoned his proposed visit to Hank-enburg, for which place he was to have started yesterday afternoon. The fact that the emperor had given up his trip was an-nounced in the official Reich Zanzeiger, without explanation.

The emperor has accepted the resigna tion of both Chancellor Von Caprivi and Count Zu Eulenberg, Such a startling announcement has taken the political world in Berlin entirely by surprise. That for months past the chancellor's adver-saries had been straining every here to effect his downfull was well known, and though it may be less generally known there can be no doubt that about a fort-night ago they had reason to believe that their object would be attained. But when Count Von Caprivi returned from Kissingen he had once more access to the em-peror, from which he had been separated for a considerable time during the summer holidays, and the situation gradually Caprivi explained his views to the emeegency the dangers of extreme measures at Baltimore, on Nov. 6, the mayor will in the repression of the socialists, which measures might open up a fresh era of interest conflicts, that his arguments for the time at least, undoubtedly carried on-viction. His friends and opponents are agreed in stating that his opinious prevailed with the emperor, and that even Count Zu Eulenberg, the chief advacate of more vigorous measures, saw himself abundanced by his own immediate columnostic of Canadian Australian cable, are abandoned by his own immediate colearnes in the Prossian council.

As late as Tuesday last the emperor, during his visit to Count. Von. Caprivi, gave him the fullest assurance of his entire confidence and his approval of the policy which he, as chancellor, was about to sub-mit to the leading ministers of the foderal states specially summened to Berlin for tween Australia and Canada that purpose. It was only yesterday that the cable might be stretched the presidency of Count Von Caprivl. So unanimous was their approval of his program, so entirely were they unaware of any impending change that they disposed any impending change that they disposed draw before 1,000 people at the rooms of of the business in one stiting and most of the Buffalo Athletic club last night. Billy them left the capitol again, either last Madden managed the affair. Yank Sullinght or this morning. Therefore it will van, of Syracuse, referred the bout, and readily be understood that in political circles, whather friendly or unfriendly to in the first five rounds was fast and furificant Von Caprivi, there is absolutely no one. If anything Van Hoest had a shade explanation forthcoming of the reasons the better of it. Smith got first blood. Towhich led to this sudden com, and that it warms the end it was evident that the fighting the appropriate at pressure of the conis idle to speculate at present on the con-ers were afrisid of one another. The fight-sequences.

Since his visit to Count Von Caprivi the emperor has been the guest of Count Philip Zu Eulenberg, the German ambassader to Vienna. It might, therefore, he inferred that the emperor had yielded to the influences brought to bear upon him by the Zu Eulenberg family, with which he has al-ways entertained relations of intimate friendship, but the fact that his majesty friendship, but the fact that his majesty has now also accepted the resignation of Count Botho Zu Eulenberg, which it was understood was offered a low days ago and declined, hardly bears out such an inference. There is reason to believe that an unavailing attempt made by the emperor to compose the differences between the chancellor and Count Zu Eulenberg was one of the causes that determined his momentous decision. mentous decision:

The emperor gave an audience to Count Von Caprivi, and endeavored to induce him to withdraw his resignation, but the clamcollor was obdurate and refused to do so, The emperor remained at the castle until a late hour conferring with Count Zn Eulenberg, Dr. Miquei and others. Until something more definite is known of the precise causes of the crisis there can be no clew to its solution. One thing only can be said, and that is that the uncertainity and anxiety of the public mind which Germany has suffered so severely in recent years will hardly be allayed by such a starting manifestation of instability in the supreme conduct of the state.

It is stated that Emperor William has degraphed to Prince Von Hohenlohe-Schillingsfurst, stathalter of Alsaco-Lorraine, requesting him to resume the chan-cellorship. His majesty also invited Dr. Miquel to succeed Count Zn Eulenberg as president of the Prussian ministerial council.

It is believed here that both Count Von Caprici and Count Zu Eulenberg assigned as the reason for their resignations the hopelessness of any successful co-operation between them. Not even Prince Bis-marck's most loyal friends think he has any chance of returning to office.

Count Von Caprivi is said by his inti-mate friends to be glad to escape from the cares of the chancellorship. He often expressed a desire to retire to military life, and only remained in office from a sense of duty to his country. He will, in a few days, proceed to Geneva for his health.

The question of who will succeed Count Von Caprivi is the subject of general discussion everywhere. A rumor is in circu lation that Dr. Johannes Miquel, Prusslan minister of fluance, will be appointed, but this report is declared on good authority Light local showers; sust winds, shift to be unfounded. In addition to Dr. Mi. ing to north no change in temperature qual, both Count Zu Entemberg and Dr. Von Bonnigsen, leader of the National Liberal is by and governor of Hanover, are mentamed, but it is believed that the new chancellor will be a compromise can-

General Count Georg Leo Von Caprivi de Capera de Monte-Curcull succeeded Prince Bismarck as chancellor of the German empire shortly after the latter's re-tirement in March, 1880. He was born at Charlottenburg in 1831, being the son of a high legal functionary in the service of Prussia. He has served his country with distinction in both the army and navy, as well as in civil life.
