MUNYON SAVID HER.

How Mrs. Reese Became a Convert

Her Arm Was Useless, and Could Not be Moved Without Pain-How She Was Cured.

Mrs John Reese, South Potistown, Pa., says: "It is now about a year since I was cured of one of the worst attacks of rhemmatism I ever had. I had tried all kinds of remedles and had several doctors, but nothing did me any good; so I concluded to try Munyon's Remedles. I never had any faith in homopathy; I confess now I am a firm believer in it. After taking the Rheumatism remedy a few days I was able to raise my arm, which I had not moved for two weeks without the most intense torture. Within a short time I was completely cured, and it was permanent, for during the past year I have not had the slightest return of the disease."

JAPANESE VICTORIES.

The Mikado's Soldiers Still Marching Bravely Onward,

CHINESE PLEASED DEFORE THEM.

The Victors Capture Large Quantities of Arms, Accostrements and Food-The Bad Tactical Methods of Their Opponents Excites the Derision of the Conquerors.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. - The Japanese le pation received yesterday a dispatch which confirms the news published in dispatches from Shanghai of a second victory of the Jupanese army under Marshal Yamagata. The telegram is dated Hiroshima, and ends as follows: "Before dawn of Oct. 26 our army under Marshal Yamagata attacked Kin-Len-Cheng one of the important strongholds upon the Chinese frontier. The place was defended by 15,000 troops under Generals Lin and Song They fled after offering only a slight resistance, and the Japanese forces took possession of the fortifications and the city. They captured thirty large field guns, an immense quantity of rice food of other kinds, etc., and more than 300 tents. The Japanese loss was twenty killed and eighty-three wounded. The Chinese lost more than a billed. The exact number of their wounded is not known."

Last night the Japanese legation received the following cable from their gov-ernment: "The second army of Japan, under the command of Marshal Ocama feeted a landing near Ta-Len-Wan with

The legation has also received official telegrams from Tokio confirming the reports of the fighting at Kiulen. They state that the Japanese loss was twenty killed and eighty-three wounded. Field Marshal Count Yamagata is now at Coiju.

It is believed at the Japanese legation that the General Lin mentioned in the above dispatch is the noted Chinese commander who played such a prominent part during the Tonquin difficulty and to whom, it was recently reported. Viceroy Li had offered the chief command in the Chinese rmy.

The Japanese legation has received its first mall of Japanese newspapers since the battles of Yalu and Ping Yang, and they are filled with the details of the engage ments, lists of killed and wounded, ac-counts of heroism and other evidences of war.

The bad tactical methods of the Chinese soldiers excites the decision of the Japan-ese. The latter point out that the Chinese erect breastworks and then sit quietly within them without throwing out skirm ishers to harrass the enemy. The Chin-ese soldiers also raise a number of banners just us they fire a value so that the Lajust as they fire a volley, so that the Japstiese troops always know when a shower of lead is impending. The Chinese also exhaust the cartridges in their magazine guns as fast as they can fire them, making a hall of bullets and then a long calm. The rifles captured from the Chinese show rust of long standing and other eardess treatment.

The Japanese press go to extremes in their demands for indemnity from China.
One of them says China must pay Japan ten times the cost of the war, and must agree to lot Japanese troops be stationed throughout China hereafter.

A Tokio paper states that prior to a Chinese naval inspection by Li Hung Chang the men manufactured cannon halls out of elsy, painted them black and ussed inspection with this begus equip-

The Chinese occupy a very strong position at Hong-Wang, the castle being guarded by 20,000 men. Troops are being insset at Kin-Chow, with a view to the defense of Port Arthur. The Japanese have completely bleckaded Thilen Wan and Port Arthur and all the adjacent bays and ports. Fur-ther Japanese forces have landed at Sci-liots, without of Port. klofu, southeast of Port Arthur.
