When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she became a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a woman, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

AMUSEMENTS.

CARMENITA'S ONLY RIVAL. Miss Maude Madison, who has been specially engaged for the American tour of "Tasso's Living Pictures," is considered by the critics of New York and London to be the only rival of Carmenita. The poetry of grace and motion as exemplified by this bewitching artist will hold the most critical and exacting auditor and her succession of Spanish skirt, serpentine and stereoscopic dances reveals the marvelous skill and talents of this pretty danseuse's art. At Ferguson's theatre tomorrow evening.

"A CORK MAN." That clever playwright, Geo. Hoey, knew just exactly how much rollicking fun could be crowded into three hours, when he wrote "A Cork Man," which will be seen at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, November 1st. The play is a refined comedy, which lies on its intrinsic worth and funny situations as a pleasing mirth provoker. There is no doubt but what "A Cork Man" will be one of the most successful comedies on the road this season. Mr. Cawthorn, who is the star of the company, is the most original and unique Irish comedian in America. He is very ably supported by Miss Leola Belle, the comedienne, and others.

GUS WILLIAMS. Gus Williams has not been seen here for many years. Those who have not seen him have long known his name and fame and will turn out to give him a hearty welcome. Those who have seen him before will do so again. "April Fool" is said to be the funniest play he has ever appeared in and his supporting company the strongest that has ever traveled with him, and that is saying a great deal. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, November 2d.

Coming Events. Nov. 12.—Tea party in the Primitive Methodist school room, under the auspices of the ladies of the church and for the benefit of the church fund.

Nov. 20.—Turkey supper in the vestry of All Saints P. E. church.

Nov. 26 to 30.—Entertainment in Robt's opera house under the auspices of the vestry of All Saints P. E. church.

Relly and the Veterans. If there is one class of men more than another which should rally to the support of Hon. James B. Relly in his present battle, it is the men who went to the front in the dark days of '61. There is not an old soldier in Schuylkill county who can say that Mr. Relly has ever for an instant hesitated to lend his assistance in procuring for the veterans the pecuniary assistance which a grateful government has bestowed upon every deserving survivor of the Rebellion. Never has Mr. Relly been appealed to in vain. He has not simply given his promise to assist an old soldier in procuring a pension, and with the promise dismissed the appeal from his mind. Whenever he has been appealed to he has used every effort to secure the coveted bounty for his old soldier constituents and has not given up the fight in their behalf until every means has been exhausted. These are facts which cannot be denied. Mr. Relly has not published them broadcast, but there are many old soldiers and widows of soldiers scattered all over the country who will bear willing testimony to the fact that the Democratic Congressional candidate has befriended them in this way, and in numerous instances has taken up pension applications which had been long awaiting final disposition, or been previously denied, and successfully prosecuted the claims and secured what the veteran or his widow desired and what Mr. Relly deemed was justly due them. In James B. Relly the old soldier has a true friend, and now is the time for the veterans to show their gratitude to one who has never turned a deaf ear to them or has refused to assist them in procuring a pension—with success in every instance.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. CENTRALIA.

CENTRALIA, Oct. 28. John Burns and wife, of Girardville, spent yesterday among town friends. Miss Mary Joyce, one of Girardville's bright young ladies, is spending a few days with town friends. Invitations have been issued to all the foot ball teams in this vicinity to attend the ball here on Hollow E'en and a number of visiting teams are expected. The new hose house is now completed and is being furnished. It will be presented to the fire company in the near future and an excellent program has been arranged for the occasion.

Misses Kate McManiman, and sister, Kate Gallagher and Bridget Devers, accompanied by Walter McGinness, a representative of Shenandoah's popular young folks, were the guests of Miss Kate Lenahan, of town, yesterday.

The teachers of Centralia borough and Conyngham township arrived here Friday evening, after spending the week at institute in Bloomsburg. All report having had a good time and that the institute was the best held for many years, every teacher in the county being present.

What is the matter with Ashland High School and Juniors, and the Keystone of Mahanoy City, foot ball teams? Our boys have been seeking to arrange a game with one of them for the past month and none will even answer the challenges. Are you afraid, boys? If so, please advise, so as to save the trouble of writing. If not, write to Manager Charles McRearty and he will arrange a game with you.

Don't fail to attend the grand ball to be held on Hollow E'en, under the auspices of the foot ball team. All arrangements necessary to the success of the affair have been attended to and a good time is promised to all who attend. A game of foot ball will be played at 5 o'clock that evening, when our boys will face either the Mt. Carmel or Shamokin team. Come and assist the boys.

The Centralia foot ball team and a team known as the Key's Hill foot ball team played a game here on Saturday. The game was interesting throughout and many pretty plays were made on both sides, but the Key's Hill boys could not successfully compete with their opponents and at no time did they succeed in getting the ball across or near the coveted goal. The game consisted of two 25-minute halves and the score was 18 to 0.

Work on the electric road is being rapidly pushed forward and the general opinion here is that the cars will be running before Christmas. A large force of men are at work and the road bed is almost completed between here and Mt. Carmel. Very little now remains to be done, except to lay the rails and skills and this can be done in a comparatively short time with the number of men now employed. This good news causes much joy to our town's people.
