THE LOCAL CAMPAIGN.

Preparations For the Democratic Demonstration To-night.

SINGERLY WILL NOT COME

The Democratic Candidate For Governor Gives the Miners of This Section the Mitten—Pattison and Hensel.

Politics will reign supreme to-night in town. The Democrats intend to take the place by storm and hope with the presence of distinguished visitors, brass bands and fireworks to convince the people that the Democratic party is the one that should win at the polls next Tuesday. The arrangements for the demonstration are certainly on a very elaborate scale, and if the weather is favorable it will undoubtedly be an event second to none the Democrats have held here for several years.

There is one part of the program, however, that will not be carried out. All the distinguished visitors which have been heralded by the big tri-colored posters will not be upon the scene, and among the most conspicuous absentees will be Col. Singerly, who will give Shenandoah the go-by and proceed to Reading from Ashland.

The only speakers the committee of arrangements could vouch for to-day were Governor Pattison and Attorney General Hensel, with a possibility of James M. Beck, of Philadelphia, being present.

Why the Democratic candidate for Governor will not come here to-night to address the mine workers on the issues of the day is not explained. Pattison, Beck and Hensel are brilliant men and make good speeches, but none of them is the one who aspires to the position of Governor of this Commonwealth or any other office now within sight and his failure to appear will be an ugly disappointment.

Col. Singerly, Governor Pattison and their party left Harrisburg at 7.55 o'clock this morning and reached Reading at 10 o'clock. Their stay there was limited to five minutes and the party proceeded to Pottsville, arriving there at 11 o'clock. At 1.30 this afternoon the party left the county seat by a special P. & R. train for Tanawana, and at 3 o'clock a start was made for Ashland, arriving there at four.

A message from Ashland received this afternoon announced that upon the close of the Ashland meeting the party will divide itself, Col. Singerly and a following shaking the dust of the coal region from his heels and proceeding on the regular P. & R. train at 6.15 p. m. to Reading, while Governor Pattison and another following, in all probability including Hensel and Beck, will leave Ashland at the same hour for Mahanoy City. Governor Pattison will remain here over night, leaving early to-morrow morning for Reading, where Singerly's special car will be joined for a trip to Allentown.

The local Democratic managers held a meeting in Egan's hall last night to make final arrangements for the demonstration to-night. Three bands have been engaged for the occasion—the Grant, Lithuanian and Annunciation. The meeting also selected M. M. Burke, Esq., to preside at the meeting to be held in Robbins' opera house to-night and appointed a committee to escort Governor Pattison and party from Mahanoy City to this town upon the conclusion of the meeting at the former place. The committee will leave here at 5.30 this evening for Mahanoy City and will return with the visitors via the Lakeside Electric Railway at about eight o'clock.

The escort will comprise the following residents of the five wards of town: First ward—Andrew Meluskey, J. J. Monaghan, Enoch Decker, James Shields, Michael Heffron, Frank Hanna, John T. Stanton, Thomas Tracey, Matt Giblin, William McGuire, William Walsh; Second ward—George Folmer, Fred J. Portz, Adam Taber, M. Mellet, B. J. McGinness, C. J. Quinn, Dr. S. C. Spalding, Michael Tierney, Samuel Weidman, H. W. Titman, F. J. Brennan, M. J. Scanlan, J. J. Bobbin, Charles Radzewicz, M. M. Burke; Third ward—J. J. Franey, M. C. Watson, James Kalbach, John A. Reilly, M. H. Master, William Kimmel, P. H. Monaghan, Dr. D. J. Langton, T. J. Higgins, James Burns; Fourth ward—Frank Wilcom, T. J. Mullahy, E. B. Foley, W. W. Rynkiewicz, John Higgins, Thomas Manley, Edward Burke, T. H. Miles, Edward Brennan, John Scanlan, M. J. O'Hearn; Fifth ward—H. J. Muldoon, Christ Schmidt, A. J. Gallagher, Daniel Brennan, M. H. Britt, Edward Gallagher, Patrick Hand, James Smith, Christ Beyrart, Edward Dowling and M. J. Whitaker.

BRUMM AT WM. PENN.

An Overflowing Meeting Greets the Republican Congressional Candidate.

An enthusiastic wave swept over Wm. Penn when Hon. Charles N. Brumm, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, and acknowledged leading Protectionists of Pennsylvania, visited that place last night to address the people on the issues of the campaign. Mr. Brumm met a cordial reception at the hands of Republicans and Democrats alike and they filled the hall to overflowing. There were so many people who could not gain admission to the hall that Mr. John A. Grant, of this town, secured an additional place and surprised his many friends by making a most intelligent and effective address on the necessity of sending Mr. Brumm as the next Congressman from this district. Three bands were in attendance—the Citizens' band, Our Band and the Wm. Penn band—and they played with an enthusiasm that was in keeping with that of the people who assembled to greet the next Congressman.

The chairman of the meeting in Bender's hall was Mr. William H. Lewis, who made an excellent opening address. When Mr. Brumm stepped forward to speak he was greeted with applause and cheers that lasted fully two minutes. It was a most enthusiastic reception. The candidate returned the compliment by making one of his most effective addresses and his remarks were frequently interrupted by applause and shouts of approbation.

The meeting closed at about half past nine, when Mr. Brumm and his Shenandoah escort returned here and spent the balance of the night. This morning Mr. Brumm went to Pottsville. His next visit here is fixed for next Monday night, when the final guns of the campaign will be fired.

REPUBLICANS PREPARING.

The Campaign to be Closed Here With a Demonstration.

The Hastings Club met in the post office building last night to make arrangements for the final demonstration of the campaign, to be held here next Monday night. Several members made reports of a most encouraging character on the outlook through the county. If the Republicans hold their duty the polls will close with a great victory for their party.

It has been decided that a parade shall precede the mass meeting to be held in Robbins' opera house, and Messrs. T. H. Edwards, William T. Trezise and P. W. Bierstein have been appointed a committee to arrange the details. County Chairman Payne has not decided as to who will be the speakers of the evening in addition to Hon. C. N. Brumm, but it is certain that the speakers will be among the most eminent in the state, as a galaxy of Republican talent will be turned into the county for the closing nights of the campaign.

TAKING MEN BACK.

The Lehigh Valley Company Raises the Ban Against Strikers.

The men who struck on the Mahanoy division of the Lehigh Valley railroad last January are being gradually restored to employment under the company. Yesterday several ex-engineers and firemen were taken back at Delano and given places as brakemen. Those still out will be taken back as the requirements for labor present themselves, and it is said that within a short time all the men who took part in the strike will be under the employ of the company again.

Offices Opened.

Cooper & Co., local correspondents of The Hodge Commission Company, Philadelphia, stock and grain brokers, opened comfortable and well-equipped offices in the Egan building, corner of Main and Centre streets, yesterday. The firm has direct wires to New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, besides telephone connection with all parts of the country, and furnishes the latest and most reliable quotations on all stock and grain markets.

The League Ready.

The Shenandoah Republican League will throw open its rooms in the Rofowich building, on South Main street, Thursday night, and the rooms will be placed at the disposal of the visiting speakers next Monday night. The applications for membership have been so numerous the roll now bears over a hundred names.

License Transfers.

The saloon license of Lewis Ambrose, in the First ward, has been transferred to Felix Apolaky.

The license held by James Smith, in the Fifth ward, is to be transferred to a Polish purchaser named Yurkes.

PERSONAL.

William Neiswender spent yesterday at Pottsville.

Mrs. T. J. Miners went to Mt. Carmel this morning to visit friends.

George J. Wadlinger, Esq., of Pottsville, was a visitor to town last night.

Mrs. Thomas Sanger, of Mt. Carmel, spent last evening in town the guest of friends.

Bargains for Printers.

As the HERALD intends putting on a new "dress" and procuring larger and more improved machinery in the near future, it offers a number of bargains to printers in another part of to-day's paper.

Some Cold Weather Bargains.

Special values offered this week in ladies' and children's coats, shawls, blankets, underwear, flannels and woolen dress goods. Our prices are always lower than you expect to pay and our assortments in the various departments were never so complete as now.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT

Mike Sedock Beaten and Left Insensible on the Street.

ATTACKED BY SEVEN MEN.

He Remained Unobserved Upon the Pavement in an Unconscious Condition—The Case Settled.

Justice Toomey has settled a case which when first brought to his attention appeared to border on murder. The prosecutor was Mike Sedock, and it is remarkable that he is alive to-day. His head and body show the fendishness with which the classes of people that the victim and his assailants belong attack themselves when in their devilish humor. The case was similar in many respects to the one of the poor Hun who was inveigled to a dirt bank near the east end of Centre street by a party of men and covered with rocks after the assailants thought they had beaten him to death.

Sedock was left as a supposed corpse, but his assailants did not take the trouble to entice him to a secluded spot. They left him insensible on the pavement near the corner of Centre and Bridge streets and he laid there until he recovered his senses. It was at an early morning hour and no one seems to have noticed the prostrate man while he lay on the pavement. When Sedock regained consciousness he struggled to his feet, took his bearings, and staggered to Justice Toomey's office, where he told his story.

All the men concerned in the affair had attended a beer drinking convention in Franey's row, at the east end of Centre street, and Sedock was the first to leave the place to go to his home on Bridge street. The seven accused men followed and attacked Sedock when he was near his destination. One blow from some unknown instrument knocked the victim bleeding and unconscious to the pavement. What was done with him after Sedock does not know, but that his prostrate body was kicked and beaten was beyond question. The marks were sufficient evidence.

Constable Giblin succeeded in gathering in the seven assailants and, as usual, all pleaded not guilty, but when they gave their evidence individually there were so many discrepancies that no doubt was left as to their guilt. Finally the men practically confessed and while admitting the beating, not one could give an excuse or cause for the attack. They had beaten the man, but why they did not know. The case was settled by each of the accused paying $4.80 fine and costs, the victim consenting to a settlement on that basis in preference to the trouble and expense of attending court.

PENCIL POINTS.

Local News Gleanings Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

Painters and builders are kept very busy these days.

Bands and fireworks will be in great demand from now until election day.

The Borough Council will hold a regular monthly meeting next Thursday evening. Everything in the town seems to have given way to politics. Nothing else seems to be stirring.

Timothy O'Brien is building a two-story addition to the Bowers street side of his Centre street property.

It is remarked that every time a house in town is vacated the rent goes up. The interest lies in speculating on when the top notch will be reached.

Councilman Kane predicts that Singerly will carry Shenandoah by from 500 to 600 majority. Mr. Kane does not keep in touch with public sentiment.

It is reported that this town is about to lose another of its oldest families in that of Jeremiah H. Roxby's. It is said Mr. Roxby intends moving to New York.

Some speculation has been caused in the local political circles by a report that ex-Senator B. J. Monaghan will return from the West in time to put in about twenty-four hours' work before election day.

If one or both the electric light companies could furnish motive power for light machinery the stockholders would find the source of dividends swelled considerably. Companies in other towns do it and it pays.

There is a cry of boodie in town. It is said one politician has $600 in his clothes to put out in the interest of a candidate. This story is doubted, however. It is not likely that any of the present candidates would put that much money in the hand of one man.

Inspector J. J. Monaghan and Interpreter Charles Radzewicz are now known as the Siamese twins. They are working the Democratic ghost in town day and night and seem inseparable in the work. It is said the inspector is not as jovial as he used to be.

Some amusement was occasioned at the Lehigh depot this morning. The Tiso living picture company and about twenty Polish and Hungarian immigrants alighted from the same train and the members of the Depot Club were kept busy speculating on which were the pictures.

MORE ENCOURAGING.

Noon Reports of the Stock Market for To-day.

The stock market reports to noon to-day, through Cooper & Co., of East Centre street, show that the market opened this morning with more encouragement to holders of long stock, particularly to those interested in the coals, of which there was quite an advance.

Reading was firm, due to reports of that road being in a favorable condition to withstand the present differences existing between its competitors. The cause of Reading stock in the midst of the ruin of coal share values indicates clearly the strong position of a company which has no dividends to pay, it being able to carry its load of debt with much greater ease than its rich and prosperous rivals. It is to be understood that the Reading companies are in the business of mining and transporting coal and they propose to continue it at the old stand.

The graugers all advanced slightly to-day and remained very firm. The Chicago market also presented a strong tone with wheat advancing slightly and giving some advantage to scalpers. The car loads of wheat received to-day at Chicago were 179; corn, 228; oats, 194; and hogs numbered 27,000.
