

SHEEHAN VERY ANGRY.

The Commissioner Denounces Lawyer Goff as a Liar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Yesterday's proceedings before the senate police investigating committee were marked by a succession of exciting incidents. Police Commissioner Sheehan was on the witness stand all through the day, except for a brief time while his successor in the city comptroller's office was examined as to the condition in which he found the accounts of the city when they were turned over to him. Mr. Sheehan appeared in the court room with his bank book, but when Mr. Goff asked that he be authorized to examine it, the commissioner refused, even in the face of the threat from Chairman Levox that such refusal would result in a presentment to the grand jury. He said he would submit this book when a specific accusation was made against him, but not till then. His bank account, he claimed, was his own affair. Mr. Goff led off with an intimation that the commissioner had accepted a bribe of $5,000 for an appointment to a sergeantship of police, which was hotly denied by Mr. Sheehan—so hotly that Chairman Levox thought it necessary to admonish him that he was laying himself open to proceedings for contempt. Senator Cantor added to the interest of the moment by questioning the right of the chairman to insist upon a question until the committee had taken a vote on it. In the closing scene Mr. Goff worked up a climax by denouncing Mr. Sheehan as a bribe taker, grand larcenist and defaulter. "You're a liar!" was the response of the commissioner, and with that the curtain was rung down for the day.

The Georgia Senators.

ATLANTA, Nov. 1.—The nomination of United States senator by party caucus will be a new feature in Georgia politics. The presence of fifty Populists in the legislature makes this necessary. The seat vacant is that of the late Senator Colquitt, filled temporarily by Hon. Patrick Walsh. The candidates before the legislature are Hon. A. O. Bacon, Hon. H. G. Turner, Hon. F. L. Garrison and Hon. Patrick Walsh. Doubtless it is almost certain to come in caucus, in which event Speaker Crisp is likely to stampede it. The four announced candidates have been addressing the legislature nightly since Friday night.

Boxes at the Horse Show.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The sale of the boxes of the annual horse show was held yesterday afternoon at Madison Square Garden. Fully 600 representative New Yorkers attended. The bidding was somewhat slow. The first box was knocked down to George Gould for $500. The sale netted $68,870 and averaged $50 a box, an advance of $20,000 last year. Among the more prominent purchasers were William C. Whitney, Frederick Bronson, A. J. Cassatt, W. R. D. Stokes, W. L. Strong, John M. Bowers, Henry Sloan, C. Oliver Isom, W. Stewart Webb and F. G. DeHauville.

JAPAN'S VICTORY ASSURED.

The Opinion of a British Government Agent Returning from China.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—"I have just been over the road from Moukden to Shin Kwan, and it is as perfect as ever. Not only that, but the road affords every facility for the passing of troops in winter from Corea to the great wall near Peking. The victory of Japan is a foregone conclusion," said Rev. Maurice J. Walker to a reporter at the Windsor hotel. Mr. Walker has been stationed in north China by the English government for the last nine years, and passed through Chicago on his way to London to make his report. Rev. John R. Robinson, a missionary from Tientsin, accompanied him. They left Peking about a month ago. Speaking of the war, Mr. Walker said: "Japan was obliged to engage in foreign warfare to prevent a repetition of the revolution in 1871 in her own domain. For years she has been preparing herself, not only for that, but she has carefully laid out her campaign in China. For over a year draughtsmen and photographers have traversed every part of China, until the topography of the country is better known in Tokio than in Peking. The Japanese commanders know that the correspondents make a mistake when they say that winter will close the campaign. I have been over the road at Moukden at all seasons of the year."

AMUSEMENTS.

"A CORK MAN" is one of the comedy successes of the season, with a clever comedian like Mr. Cawthorn, as the bright particular star. A company especially selected for this comedy, in which there is not a dull line, would seem to assure for Mr. Cawthorn nothing but success, who has made fame and fortune in his old comedy, "The Little Nugget." Mr. Cawthorn and his clever company will be at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

GUS WILLIAMS. Gus Williams has not been seen here for many years. Those who have not seen him have long known his name and fame and will turn out to give him a hearty welcome. Those who have seen him before will do so again. "April Fool" is said to be the funniest play he has ever appeared in and his supporting company the strongest that has ever traveled with him, and that is saying a great deal. At Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of Chamberlain's Pain Expeller. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by Grubler Bros.

HON. T. J. HIGGINS FOR SHERIFF. A Workingman's Plain Straightforward Reasons Why He Should be Elected.

EDITOR HERALD, Dear Sir:—With your permission I desire to call the attention of the voters generally, and of the workingmen in particular, to a few facts of importance which should not be overlooked in the campaign upon which we are now entering. The workingmen are now interested in politics to some extent, though they sometimes have interests which they permit to pass unheeded. They ought to be, and doubtless are, interested in the campaign this year, and as the time has now arrived when they should be comparing the merits and records of the candidates a suggestion or two may not be out of place.

First let me suggest that in voting for candidates for executive offices it is not only the privilege, but the duty of the voter to support the candidate who is best qualified for the discharge of the duties of the office regardless of what party he may belong to or by whom he was nominated. The first consideration should always be a faithful and efficient performance of public duty. This being decided, it is the duty of the voter to make some investigation of the record of the candidates and to accord them credit for whatever they may have accomplished in the past.

In reviewing the list of candidates this year the voter will find no nominee better qualified for the faithful and efficient discharge of the duties of the office to which he aspires than is Hon. T. J. Higgins, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff. Nor will the workingmen find in the list of aspirants for office a man who is more deserving of their support than he. Mr. Higgins is in every sense of the word a self-made man. He is deservedly popular with all classes of people and enjoys the confidence of the community in which he lives to a degree that most of us might envy.

But what I desire especially to impress upon the minds of my fellow workingmen, Democratic and Republican, is the fact that Mr. Higgins has a record as a public official, of which any man might be proud. I want to remind my fellow workingmen of the fact that fourteen years ago he was elected to represent this district in the Legislature and that during the two sessions he was in that body he was one of the most active and useful members of the House. Having graduated from the mines, Mr. Higgins knew the wants of his constituents, and without ostentation or presumption he secured more in the way of favorable legislation for the anthracite coal miners than ever secured before or since by one man in the same length of time.

During the first session which he served he originated, drafted and introduced an act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of an institution for the education and maintenance of children of workmen who lost their lives while following their occupation in and around the mines. This institution was to have been known as the "Anthracite Miners' Orphan School." The bill encountered so much prejudice and opposition when it was first introduced that a less determined person than Mr. Higgins would have abandoned the hope of ever securing its passage. The opposition, however, only seemed to arouse him to action and he fought every inch of the ground from its introduction to the day of its passage, when with a $50,000 appropriation for the erection of the building, he had the pleasure of seeing it pass the House by a vote of 107 to 55. No better bill was ever introduced in the Legislature. That it did not pass the Senate and become a law was no fault of Mr. Higgins. He did his share of the work manfully and well, and if we had others like him in the Senate the state would now be supporting an institution for the care and education of the orphans of miners who lose their lives in the mines.

Mr. Higgins was also one of the strongest supporters of the bill passed in 1881 to provide for the safety of persons employed in and around coal mines, and generally known now as the Mine Timber bill. He was the last member of the House to speak on the bill before its final passage and is entitled to a large share of the credit for the benefits of that piece of legislation. Mr. Higgins' usefulness, tact and enterprise were shown again in 1882, when he secured an appropriation of $75,000 for the first two years' maintenance of the Miners' Hospital. This was the largest and most liberal appropriation ever secured for that institution. There are also a number of other things in Mr. Higgins' career as a legislator, which show that he had the interest of the workingmen of the county at heart when they elected him to office before. The workingmen of Schuylkill county are not ungrateful, but sometimes they are forgetful. I am convinced, however, that when they are reminded of the services rendered by Mr. Higgins in the past, they will give expression to their gratitude by supporting him at the polls in November.

BLESS PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruff Were Restored by it to Perfect Health.

"There is no doubt that the life of most women at the present day is a complex one," says the Ladies' Home Journal, "and in the large cities the demands made upon time and strength are legion. No wonder so many fall by the way."

Even women of the privileged classes know what fatigue means, and the weariness resulting from overtaxed nerves, that is more intense and more depressing than anything known to tired muscles.

When frequent headaches and neuralgia give warning that the nerve tissues are not being fully repaired after hard work or anxiety, further mischief will be avoided by feeding the brain and nerves with the wonderful nutriment, Paine's celery compound.

Nature is a gentle mother and soothes while she strengthens.

Paine's celery compound builds up the body according to nature's plan. The human machine must have fuel. This grand invigorator and strengthener is able to restore the delicate nerves to robust health by feeding them rapidly and abundantly with the peculiar elements they find it so difficult to extract for themselves from the ordinary hearty diet. A great nerve doctor, famous in two continents, says that any woman whose nervous strength is at all depleted must either take time to rest at any cost or replace the worn-out tissues with Paine's celery compound.

A woman should never be too tired to smile. Paine's celery compound is to-day busy in its mission to homes everywhere in the land, making sunshine, hopeful faces, and ready smiles where there was sadness and the weary looks of despair.

Mrs. Jennie A. Ruff, whose portrait is given above, writing from her home in Sebawa, Mich., says:

"My husband has had a stomach trouble for over a year, from which he suffered the tortures of a daily death. He could eat scarcely anything, and what he did eat soured on his stomach and caused him to bloat so terribly that life was only a burden. He tried physicians to no avail, and as I was taking Paine's celery compound, he thought he would try it. In a short time he was surprised to find that he could eat anything with no bad effects; the bloating is all gone and his stomach is in good condition."

"I had suffered for years with periodical spells of sick headache; pen cannot describe what I suffered at such times. For the last two years I noticed that my nervous system was getting all out of order; I had no appetite and was getting to be a mere shadow of my former self. I was nervous, weak, could not rest nights, and felt gloomy and low spirited. Before I had taken one bottle of Paine's celery compound I began to feel like a new person, and now, after taking six bottles, I am enjoying perfect health. I have not had a spell of sick headache in over a year. My nerves are all right, my sleep is like that of a healthy child, and I feel more like one than like a woman of thirty. I do all my own work and bless Paine's celery compound for what it has done for me and mine."

"We have used in our family 12 or 15 bottles of Paine's celery compound. Doctors' bills are now unknown in our family."

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by Grubler Bros. G.C.C.

Mr. Reilly's Bill.

The records of Congress give undeniable proof of Mr. Reilly's interest in the welfare of the old soldiers. In 1890 he introduced a bill in Congress "providing for a service pension for the soldiers of the war of the rebellion and their widows." Previous to this time it was impossible for an old soldier or a soldier's widow to procure a pension unless it was proven the disability or death was due to injury sustained while in service. Mr. Reilly's bill gave a pension of $8.00 per month to every old soldier who could prove an honorable discharge, or to the widow of an honorably discharged soldier. Under Mr. Reilly's bill it was not necessary to prove that disabilities were sustained while in service, or that death was due to injuries sustained while in service. An honorable discharge was the only necessary requirement. The bill provides that a pension of $8.00 per month shall be granted to the widow of any honorably discharged soldier who served three months in the army or navy, where the widow has no means of support other than her daily labor; or to the minor children of any such soldier, under the age of sixteen. Mr. Reilly secured the passage of the bill, and it is to-day upon the statute books, and thousands of old soldiers and soldiers' widows are receiving the relief James B. Reilly secured for them.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having in grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.
