IT WILL BE A HUMMER.

The Republicans Will Arouse the Town Monday Night.

A GRAND STREET PARADE.

Clubs and Bands From Several Neighboring Towns Will Take Part in the Demonstration.

The arrangements for the Republican parade and mass meeting to be held on Monday evening are now perfected. The demonstration will eclipse any seen here during this campaign and compare favorably with some of the big demonstrations of previous years. It will be the grand wind-up rally and people who have an idea that the Republicans are not taking a hand in this campaign will find ample evidence to the contrary.

The Hastings Campaign Club met again last evening to receive the reports of committees. The reports were of a very encouraging character. Business men have come to the front and volunteered assistance in many ways. Some will contribute the use of horses and carriages, others have given cash and many have informed the committees that they will make the pyrotechnical display a hummer. The use of over one hundred horses has been tendered and it is believed that a mounted squad of at least fifty will lead the triumphal march.

The line of parade will form at seven o'clock sharp. The route will be down Main street to Poplar, up Main to Line, counter-march and dismiss at Robbins' opera house. The line will move as follows:

FIRST DIVISION.
Wheelmen's Republican Club.
Chief Marshal and Aids.
Co. A., Pennsylvania Cavalry.
Reception Committee of Fifteen.
Mahanoy City Band.
Young Men's Republican Club, Mahanoy City.

SECOND DIVISION.
Mahanoy City Club.
Wm. Penn Cornet Band.
Wm. Penn Republican Club.
Lost Creek Silver Cornet Band.
Lost Creek Republican Club.

THIRD DIVISION.
Frackville Band.
Gen. Grant Club, Frackville.
St. George's Lithuanian Band.
Lincoln Club.
Liberty Drum Corps.
Shenandoah Marching Club.

FOURTH DIVISION.
Grant Band.
Shenandoah Republican League.
Hastings Club and citizens desiring to participate.
Carriages containing speakers and citizens.

The first division will form on West Centre street, resting on Main street. Second on West Centre street, resting below Pear alley. Third on South Jardin street, resting on Centre. Fourth on West Oak street, resting on Jardin.

United Traction Company.
A charter was issued yesterday by the State Department for the United Traction Company, of Pennsylvania, with a capital of $100,000. The incorporators are Charles H. Barritt, W. A. Barritt, Jr., F. H. Treat, John F. Finney and James Goodwin. The officers are: President, Charles H. Barritt; Secretary, John F. Finney; Treasurer, W. A. Barritt, Jr.

Jr. U. A. M. Meeting.
The members of Major Jennings Council, No. 267, Jr. U. A. M., are requested to meet in the council room to-morrow afternoon, at one o'clock, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our late brother, David Hiseox.

A. S. HAGENBUCH, Counselor.
Attest:—W. J. JACOBS, Secretary.

"April Fool."
Gus Williams and company very successfully entertained a fair-sized audience at Ferguson's theatre with the production of a farce-comedy entitled, "April Fool," which has a number of very amusing situations. The specialties introduced were very clever, especially those of the Cohan family. Miss Josie Cohan's dancing made a special hit.

At The White House.
Oysters and clams, in all styles, fish cakes, pigs' feet, lamb tongue, beefsteak, chops, sausage, liver, sardines and salmon, chicken in all styles, pies and cakes. Families supplied with the best oysters.

The "Y" Program.
The following program will be rendered at a meeting of the "Y" this evening: Singing; scripture reading, Miss M. Parish; reading, B. Mansell; "The war Between China and Japan," H. Ehrhart; instrumental music, Miss Millie Davis; critic's report; singing; closing.

Sunday Papers.
I am the only authorized agent for the Philadelphia (Sunday) Press, also agent for all other Philadelphia and New York Sunday papers. All orders left at the office of "Squire T. T. Williams" will have my prompt attention.

PERSONAL.

Misses Ellen and Anna Clauser are visiting friends at Pottsville to-day. Solomon Schoener, of Mt. Carmel, was a pleasant visitor at the HERALD sanctum yesterday.

Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon, was in town to-day, looking after electric railway matters.
J. H. Roxby, who has been for many years one of the most respected citizens of this town, left to-day for Livonia, N. Y., where he intends locating. Mr. Roxby's family will remain here for a while.

Gus Williams, the comedian, spent several hours in social intercourse with town acquaintances last night and remarked with interest the changes made in the town since his appearance as "The German Senator," in Shoemaker's hall, during the season of 1879.

Snapper lunch free at McElhenney's to-night.

ATTENTION, CITIZENS!

Extract from circular issued by the Shenandoah Water & Gas Co., June 14, 1892:
The gross earnings of the Shenandoah Water & Gas Company has never reached $30,000 a year.

Extract from old Water Company's circular now before the public, 1894:

We assert, conscientiously, that for the past five or six years the gross annual duplicates of the Shenandoah Water & Gas Company have been in the close neighborhood of $22,000.

An address issued by the Town Council in reply to that lately issued by the Shenandoah Water & Gas Company on the increase of debt will be distributed at your homes this evening and Monday, so that you can intelligently cast your vote upon the subject.

You are invited to a plate of snapper at McElhenney's this evening.

Successful Tea.

A bachelor's tea was held in Robbins' opera house last evening under the auspices of Miss Idaho P. Kolb's Sunday school class, for the benefit of the Trinity Reformed church, and was a very successful affair. Among the decorations of the hall was a banner making a prediction for 1906: "The gentlemen will occupy the kitchen and the ladies will take the reins of the government." The young men of the class were attired in white aprons and caps and waited upon the patrons of the tea, the ladies especially, with commendable delicacy and gallantry. Miss Kolb is very proud of her class. Three years ago she took charge of it when there were but very few members. To-day she has twenty-three young men under her tuition. They are Robert Lawson, Felix Klock, Charles Bleneman, T. T. Hyde, Harry Master, Edward Danks, Frank Starr, Charles Ramberger, Frank Portz, Sylvester and Charles Deagan, Clarence Hower, Harry Aregood, Charles Litzel, John Hinderleiter, William Bees, Gordon Brown, Charles Willman and John and William Baker.

To the Public.

The people of Shenandoah, especially the taxpayers, are respectfully invited to visit and inspect the work done on the reservoir at Fowler's Run whenever they can spare the time between now and election day. 11-3-1t

At the Theatre.

Managers Wesley and Kirkham, of the "Pulse of New York" Company, claim they have, without a doubt, got the best specialties for this season the play has ever had. They are introduced in the Dive scene, and include Edward Adams, in his unique specialty, "Carmenita up to Date." Russell and Pearl—Mr. Russell's cornet solos, and Mr. Pearl's harp solo, are unrivalled on the stage; Little Luella Shirley, the child wonder, who sings and dances, takes five and six encores at each performance. At Ferguson's theatre next Tuesday evening.

Begley & Schoener's oyster bay, 11 West Centre street. Families supplied with fresh clams and oysters at short notice. Thurs&Sat

Good Investment.

What appears to us to be an excellent opening for a good investment is the offer for sale of the Mt. Carmel House property at the corner of Oak street and the Avenue, in Mt. Carmel. The property is owned by Solomon Schoener, of that town. He offers it at a low figure and on easy terms.

Ice cream and hot drinks at the White House to-night. 121 North Main street.

"Is Marriage a Failure?"
Mrs. J. Davis, of Johnstown, Pa., will lecture in the Welsh Congregational church on South West street Tuesday evening, November 6th, on "Is Marriage a Failure?" The lecture will be in English. Mrs. Davis is spoken of as one of the lights of the platform. No admission fee will be charged.

Snapper Lunch To-night.

The public in general is invited to visit McElhenney's cafe this evening. He has prepared another one of his famous snapper lunches, which he will serve to you, free. Do not forget to call, as he will have enough for everybody and it may be your last opportunity to partake of snapper, as they are very scarce.

Mrs. Bridgeman, R. C. M., teaches violin (specialty) cello and piano. Corner of Jardin and Lloyd streets. 9-3-tf

A COUNTY SEAT LETTER.

Political Observations by a Special Correspondent.

THE REPUBLICANS HOPEFUL.

Both Sides Claim a County Victory, But the Republicans Show More Confidence Than the Opposing Party.

Special HERALD correspondence.
POTTSVILLE, Nov. 2.—The campaign is now on the eve of closing. Both parties are claiming victory, but the Republicans show their confidence by offering bets with more liberality and frequency than the Democrats do. There must be something behind the sanguine feelings of the Republicans. The interest manifested by people who have apparently been disinterested, the deep interest taken by the workmen in the campaign, their large attendances at mass meetings and the eagerness with which they absorb the addresses all betoken something unusual. It is a good sign when you see these wage earners so deeply interested.

Pottsville will do her duty this time. Complimentary votes will be few and none need be surprised to see the town roll up an old-fashioned majority for the whole ticket.

The Republicans may lose a member of the Legislature in this district through the independent Republican candidacy of Mr. Seerer, of the West End. The candidate likely to be defeated is Mr. F. Stuck, of the same section of the county. Mr. Seerer is not stuck on Mr. Stuck's Republicanism and charges the regular candidate with having fought Dr. Phillips when that gentleman was a candidate for Coroner, Mr. Seerer, when the latter was out for a county office, Senator Keefer and a number of others. If these charges are true I don't see how Mr. Stuck became a nominee. Should he be defeated the Democrat likely to be elected is ex-Postmaster Irish, of Orwigsburg, a radical Democrat, but most estimable man.

Candidate Singerly's visit to the county seat did not leave a lasting impression. Both parties turned out to give the distinguished gentleman a hearty welcome, not as a candidate, but as a leading Philadelphia man. I will be candid and say that if I were a Democrat I should prefer Singerly as Governor to any other man of that party in the state. I believe he is thoroughly conscientious in what he advocates and the manliness with which he advances his doctrines is certainly worthy of admiration. Pattison, Harris, et al. are not in his class. I think Singerly and the Governor made a mistake in giving Shenandoah the slip. I have positive assurances that Singerly is not near as strong in that town as he was before that mis-carried trip through the county.

Senator Quay's ringing prediction of success has given additional vigor and re-enforced the backbone of the Republican party in the state. The junior Senator rarely makes an off prediction and betting men generally take their cue from him.

Next in importance to the election in our Commonwealth comes the elections, state and municipal, in New York. A general breaking up of the Democratic party as led by Senator Hill and Tammany Hall is expected by the hard thinkers. Pottsville Republicans are watching these elections with almost the same interest that they watch their own.

The Democrats who expected to see the Republicans down this way fighting each other have concluded that they are to receive little comfort from that direction. With possibly the exception of one or two the Republican leaders are in line and speaking in different parts of the county nightly.

Arrangements have been made to receive the election returns Tuesday night at both the Republican and Democratic headquarters and at several private places.

The result of the Bender insurance case gives universal satisfaction here. A representative of the company has stated that there would have been no hesitation in making payment had it not been for the derogatory statements of two persons of this place. It is the same old story of busy-bodies upsetting the kettle.

Democratic County Chairman Stoffregen's reward will come after the election. He will succeed our present efficient postmaster, Mr. Cole. The appointment would have been made ere this, but a dissatisfaction that would have injured the ticket was feared. The appointment belonged to Mrs. John A. Nash, but she was appeased with an inferior berth in the Mint at Philadelphia. I know that the many friends of the deceased able lawyer do not take kindly to the manner in which his widow was sidetracked from the post office. Two reasons were given for the change—Mrs. Nash is not a voter, and the German element had to get some pop.
