VOTE for the Republican ticket to-morrow and be right.

Go and hear the truth about Free Trade and Protection at Robbins' opera house to-night. Brannan will tell some tariff truths.

The cry of all the Democratic candidates this fall is, "sacrifice everything for me." It is going to be a wholesale sacrifice with nobody of importance spared.

Match them if you can—Brannan, Coy's, Wyatt, Scott, Dietrick and Richards. Each is a good and true man, and should receive the hearty support of the Republican party.

COUNCILMEN who allow themselves to be so controlled by stubbornness as to unreasonably pile cost and interests on claims are poor men to be placed in charge of the expenditure of thousands of dollars.

EVERY Democratic state convention that has met since Congress adjourned has incorporated into its platform an apology of some sort for the Bill of Sale, but not one of these efforts has been accepted by the people as a satisfactory atonement for the betrayal of their interests. The case is one that requires clubbing rather than forgiveness.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is harshly criticized by Democratic politicians for refusing to allow the Administration to be dragged into the canvass in this and other states. He is acting with shrewdness and practical wisdom, and his rancorous critics will bear testimony before many days to his lucidity of judgment. When their party has been defeated in the state and nation to-morrow they will be grateful to him for isolating the Administration from a disastrous party canvass. The President could not consistently take part in the Congressional canvass, in which the Gorman tariff is practically the only issue. He had condemned that tariff in the Wilson and Catchings letters; he had deliberately withheld his signature from the bill, and he would only have brought ridicule upon himself and reproach upon his high office if he had appeared at the last moment as the champion of the policy of "party perfidy and party dishonor."

The point is often made that no Protection should be given to the sugar industry by the payment of a bounty, because no bounty is given to the farmer who grows corn or wheat. It is forgotten that corn, wheat and cotton rank on the same footing as the sugar cane and not with the sugar product, which is quite as much a manufactured product as cotton or woolen goods which are protected under the Republican policy, which, moreover, aims to protect the wheat, corn or sugar cane of the farmer just as much as it does the manufactured product of the manufacturer. It has protected the rice of the South and the barley of the North, but the Gorman Tariff bill while continuing Protection to the rice of the South has diminished the Protection to the barley of the North, so much so that imports of Russian barley are shortly expected at New York. The next Southern industry that will probably need Protection will be that of raw cotton, in view of the larger quantity of that commodity that has been grown in other parts of the world, more of which is each year finding its way into our markets. When the South finds its cotton growing industry needs Protection it will also find that the Republican party will be glad and willing to vote for its Protection.

THE LAST CARD.

Every Republican voter should do his duty to-morrow, and every man who has any regard for his bread and butter should vote the whole Republican ticket. Vote it straight by marking an X inside the circle at the top of the Republican column. Having made the mark fold the ticket into the shape in which you received it, hand it back to the Judge of Election, and then go out and induce any indifferent neighbor you may find to do likewise. Having followed these instructions you will have performed your duty and be able to shout "victory" with the rest of the good citizens who can exercise good judgment.

Bomb Explosion in London.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A bomb exploded last night outside a house in Tilney street, Park Lane, two doors from the residence of Hon. Sir Henry Hawkins, one of the justices of the Queen's bench division of her majesty's high court of justice. The front of the house was much damaged and the windows of houses on the opposite side of the street were smashed. The house was occupied, but nobody was hurt. The force of the explosion must have been great, as the door of the house was blown in and the stove shattered. A search revealed the remains of the bomb. Suspicion rests on a man who alighted in the vicinity of the house from a cab which had conveyed him from the Savoy hotel. He has not yet been arrested.

Killed by His Friend.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 3.—A tragedy was brought to light at Tadmire, a village ten miles north of Dayton. Conrad Angel, a prominent farmer, has been bothered by tripping and on Wednesday night an attempt was made to burn his barn. Saturday night, hearing a noise, he opened a window and fired both barrels of a shotgun in that direction. In the morning he was horrified to find the body of his neighbor, John Fisher, lying dead under the doorstop. Fisher had called to pay him a visit. Angel is warmly craved with grief, as the men were warm friends.

Services in Memory of the czar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Impressive services in memory of the late Alexander III, emperor of Russia, were held yesterday in both churches of the Greek orthodox faith in this city. Special prayers were offered up for the repose of the soul of the late czar. Mr. Olafrosky, the Russian consul in New York, and other members of that consulate were in attendance. At the dawn town church the services were held in both the Russian and Greek languages.

A Little Boy's Fatal Fall.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Ellen Dennis, who lives on the fourth floor of 737 Second avenue, opened a rear window to obtain fresh air. Her 5-year-old boy, George, climbed up on a chair, and while his mother's attention was distracted leaned out on the sill. The boy lost his balance and fell. He struck on the stone pavement in the yard, where he was picked up lifeless. His head had been crushed.

To Inter the Ashes of Annie Pixley.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Robert Fulford, husband of the late Annie Pixley, the actress, has arrived in this city with the ashes of his wife, whose body was cremated in England shortly after her death there about a year ago. Fulford's purpose is to inter the ashes beside the remains of his wife's only child, a son, who died in infancy.

Gresham Will Probably Not Vote.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Secretary of State Gresham continues to improve, although he still suffers from a disagreeable cold. His physician has advised him against going to Chicago to vote tomorrow, saying the trip would be dangerous. It is not likely that the secretary will make the trip.

Against the A. F. A.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—There was a bill filed in the superior court against the American Protective Association of Illinois. The complaint in the case is Walter Sims. Particulars were withheld regarding the nature of the proceedings, as the bill was suppressed for service.

Morton's Coachman Will Stay.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Secretary Carlisle has decided that ex-Vice President Morton's under coachman, John James Howard, comes within the first proviso of section 5 of the contract labor law, as a "domestic servant," and, therefore, ought not to be deported.

Saved by a Heroic Mother.

PINK GROVE, Pa., Nov. 3.—The little son of John Snyder was saved from death by his heroic mother. The lad fell into a mill race. His companions ran away in alarm, but Mrs. Snyder plunged into the water and rescued her son when life was almost extinct.

England Holds Japan Responsible.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The foreign office has notified the Japanese government that it must assume the responsibility for the sinking of the British steamer Kow Shing.

The Weather.

Fair; cooler; winds shifting to north-west.

OH! FOR MORE STRENGTH!

A Cry Which is Going Up Everywhere.
Just Read This, Weak People.

Oh, those nerves of ours, how they do bother us! Weak, tired and nervous is the complaint everywhere. We overwork, dissipate, weaken our bodies, ruin our health, and finally break down. Sleeplessness and indigestion are early symptoms, for the nerves are too exhausted and irritable to permit rest, and the stomach too weak to digest food.

Beware of such symptoms! A well-known druggist, Charles W. Eggleston, Esq., 329 Park avenue, Worcester, Mass., suffered from nervous prostration and all its terrible symptoms. He writes the following letter telling what he knows is the best way to get well:

"Some time ago I was taken with nervous prostration. I suffered terribly with my nerves and could get no sleep at all. I became fearfully exhausted, my stomach was in a terrible condition from dyspepsia, and I could eat hardly anything. I used several medicines but without benefit. Being in the drug business myself, and having had many customers speak in the highest terms of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I determined to try it. After taking only one-half bottle I began to feel much better. I slept soundly all night, and my appetite was splendid. After taking three bottles, I ate three square meals a day, and had not the slightest distress. My nerves were perfectly strong and I felt like a new man, being completely cured of all my troubles."

"Out of the respect I bear the manufacturers of Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I determined to have the sick and suffering made well and strong. I unhesitatingly say that this medicine is the best and most wonderful remedy known to-day."

"It does just what is said of it. It cures disease. Don't hesitate to use it, sufferers, for you will never regret it. You will be made well and strong."

As this letter is from a dealer in medicine, his word is authority on such matters. Everybody knows that Dr. Green's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the great leading medicine of the age. Take it and you will be made strong, healthy and vigorous.

With the aid of this wonderful remedy, you can endure any amount of work or pleasure and will look bright to you. It is purely vegetable and harmless. Doctors recommend it because it is the prescription of a physician, and because they know it cures.

Dr. Green, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, discovered it. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter, at his office, 35 West 14th street, New York city.

SIGHTSEERS FATALLY INJURED.

An Awning Collapses with Several Hundred People Viewing a Parade.

TERRELL, Tex., Nov. 3.—The most disastrous accident in the history of this town occurred as the result of the collapse of an awning crowded with people to witness a circus parade. Five persons were fatally crushed and 100 others more or less seriously injured, many having legs and arms broken. Those whose recovery is considered doubtful are: Mrs. John Barry, back broken; Miss Florence Burton, arm and leg broken; Joseph Burton, injured outside and head; Mrs. Roberts, injured internally; Mrs. Jeff Scott's baby, fatally crushed.

People from miles around had gathered to attend Seils Bros.' circus and witness the parade. The parade entered Moore's avenue, the principal business street of the town. That thoroughfare was crowded by people, and the awnings and windows of the several stores of the business houses were filled with spectators.

On the awnings of the Mississippi store, and in front of the dry goods house of Morris Brin, an unusually large number of people had congregated to get a good view of the parade. Five hundred or more were on the awning, and the sidewalk beneath was jammed.

The front of the circus parade had gone up Moore avenue until it had reached a point directly in front of the Mississippi store, when the awnings in front of the building and that of Morris Brin collapsed and tumbled to the sidewalk on the people beneath, who numbered 800 or 700. The awning gave way over the building with an awful crash, the iron columns falling inward and smashing the large plate glass fronts of both buildings. The picture presented an awful spectacle as the moving avalanche of human beings were being dashed to a horrible fate.

The people beneath the awning were injured worse than those above, and had it not been for the first falling back of the iron pillars, which prevented the platform falling to the ground, many on the pavement would have been instantly killed and the number of injured increased two fold.

Victimized the Farmers.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—In April last M. M. Browning and a young man whose name is not known opened a store for the sale of butter at 137 Margaretta street, in this city. Browning watched the business here and sent the young man to the west to negotiate with the farmers for the sale of the product. He returned with a number of names on his list, and consignments of butter thereafter arrived from the west. Three weeks ago Browning suddenly left town and last Tuesday the young man followed, after closing the shop. Since that appearance information has been received from farmers in northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin to the effect that Browning had failed to pay for consignments aggregating over $25,000 in value.

Victims of the Discretionary Pool.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 3.—The failure of George M. Irwin & Co., the extensive discretionary pool operators, has spread consternation among the depositors. It is thought that the estimate of $2,000,000 as the amount on deposit with Irwin & Co., is a great exaggeration, but a conservative estimate would place it at $500,000. Many of the striking glass workers of the United States Glass company had a few hundred dollars which they invested with Irwin. The dividends barely supported them, and the smash leaves them in very bad shape financially.

Cook's Gang Murders a Postmaster.

PERRY, O. T., Nov. 3.—News comes here by courier from Stillwater that J. S. Dunlap, postmaster at Red Fork, O. T., fifty miles east of here, was shot to pieces by the Cook gang on Saturday. Dunlap owned the store, and the gang ordered him to unlock the postoffice safe, which he refused to do, and they shot him full of holes. They rifled the store and postoffice. Officers are in pursuit.

TOMORROW'S ELECTIONS

Thirty States Will Choose State Government.

ALL EYES ON THE EMPIRE STATE.

Republicans Claim the State by a Majority of 55,045. While Democrats Claim a Majority of 21,325—Prohibitionists and Populists Well Represented by Candidates.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The election this year is exciting outside of New York state only where the contest is with the Populists instead of between the old parties. It is a noticeable fact that there is less fusion than usual this year and the number of third and fourth party candidates is unusually large. The election of the representatives in congress will be held in all the states of the Union except Maine, Oregon and Vermont, which have already chosen their congressmen. The territories of New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Utah will each elect one delegate to congress. The election of state officers, etc., will occur in thirty states. Legislatures will be elected in two others, and a constitutional amendment will be voted upon in one—Virginia.

In Colorado many of the city Populists have repudiated Governor Waite, but the party in the agricultural and mining districts seem more enthusiastic for him than two years ago. The fact that women will vote this year makes the outcome uncertain. In Tennessee the Republicans and Democrats have the field all to themselves, as the People's party in that state have endorsed the candidates on both tickets. In most of the western states where there was fusion last year each party is going it alone. In Nevada the silver men have nominated a straight ticket.

In every western state, and most of the middle and southern states, the People's party have nominated tickets. In some instances in the south the Republicans have endorsed the People's party candidates, and in South Carolina they have made no nominations at all. The Prohibitionists have placed tickets in every state except Nevada and Tennessee.

The last Sunday of the political campaign was an exceedingly dull day at the headquarters in this city of the various organizations. John Boyd Thacher was in charge of the Democratic state headquarters at the Park Avenue hotel, but he started for his home in Albany last night. Of the other managers who have been prominent here Major Hinckley will vote at Poughkeepsie, Mr. Huston in Pott City and Lieutenant Governor Sheehan in Buffalo.

Chairman Hackett will probably remain at the Republican headquarters at the Fifth Avenue hotel until after election day, having paired his vote with some one at his home in Utica. Most of his lieutenants, including Mr. Konyon, have already gone to their home districts.

The headquarters of the seventy's candidate for mayor, Colonel Strong, were closed yesterday. At the headquarters of Hugh J. Grant, in the Union Square hotel, there were a number of visitors, and the usual reports of resignations from the state Democracy were given out. It was announced that J. Rockwell Fay and a number of others had left the state Democratic organization in the Twenty-third assembly district, and would support Grant.

Importance seemed to be attached to the assertion that Colonel Strong had written a letter to a police captain, asking him to have his men examine the registers of the lodging houses in his precinct, so that intending voters claiming residence there, whose names are not on the registers on election day, may be arrested.

At the State Democracy headquarters in East Twenty-third street denial was made of the statement which has been generally made that the Tammany candidates for alderman and assemblyman in the Ninth assembly district have been endorsed by the State Democracy.

The World today says that during the past week it has been in communication with the chairman of the Democratic and Republican county committees throughout the state. It prints a table giving a resume of the claims made by both parties as to each of the pluralities for Hill or Morton, which indicates that according to the views taken by the chairman of the various Democratic county committees, David B. Hill will win by 21,825 plurality, while the chairman of the Republican committees having charge of their party's canvass in the sixty counties comprising the state claim that Levi P. Morton is to be next governor. They figure that he will be 55,025 plurality.

According to the Democratic estimates Morton, it is conceded, will carry the state outside of New York county by about 157,175. The Republicans claim that Morton's plurality above the Harlem bridge will be about 100,000. In other words, if Hill is to be the next governor he will have to carry New York county by about 47,000, according to the Democratic estimates, or by upward of 100,000 if the Republican figures as to the probable result for the rest of the state are correct.

Murdered by Poison.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—For the purpose of gaining possession of the $1,000 which Michele Santusano, an Italian restaurateur at Seventh and Fitzwater streets, is believed to have had in his pockets, two men poured poison into his beer and killed him. His body was found lying partly under the table near which he sat when last seen in an animated conversation with his drinking companions. The murdered man was 45 years old, and married. Nothing is known as to the identity of the murderers beyond the fact that they were Italians.

War on Madagascar.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—The government has received a dispatch from M. le Myre de Vilers, the French special commissioner to Madagascar, announcing the fact that he left Antananarivo, the capital of Madagascar, on Oct. 26, without receiving the reply of the Hova government to the French ultimatum. A cabinet council was held at the Palace of the Elysee, at which it was decided to submit to the chamber of deputies resolutions declaring war against Madagascar, and demanding credits to carry it on.

Youthful Owners Fatally Shot.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 3.—The young son of the late Joseph Willinger, in East Coventry, was horribly wounded while hunting rabbits. His gun exploded, blowing out his left eye, tearing away part of his jaw and mangleing one hand. His condition is extremely critical. Warren Glies, aged 12, of South Potts, who accidentally shot himself while preparing for Halloween, died of his injuries Saturday night.

Dyspepsia Causes Much Suffering.

Pains and Distress After Eating Relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."
"I must praise Hood's Sarsaparilla for the good it has done me. I was troubled with dyspepsia. I had severe pains in my heart, and the swelling of my stomach and distress after eating caused me much suffering. I tried different remedies without getting relief. Finally I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial, being the first one in town to take it. After taking five bottles, I felt perfectly well and have enjoyed good health ever since. Many of the townspeople have asked me about the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I have cheerfully recommended it feeling indeed grateful for the good it has done me. Friends and relatives have also taken Hood's Sarsaparilla with good results."
