Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welton, Florida, says he cured a case of diphtheria of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Coming Events.

Nov. 13.—Ten party in the Primitive Methodist school room, under the auspices of the ladies of the church and for the benefit of the church fund.

Nov. 20.—Turkey supper in Robbins' opera house under the auspices of the vestry of All Saints P. E. church.

Nov. 26 to 30.—Entertainment in Robbins' opera house under the auspices of the vestry of All Saints P. E. church.

Dec. 2.—First annual grand ball of the Carpenters' Social Club in Robbins' opera house.

Vote for Reilly.

Every Democrat should do his duty at the polls to-morrow and by all means stand by the candidate of his party for Congress, Hon. James B. Reilly. This campaign which is closing has been a vigorous one on both sides, but not in one instance has the intelligence, ability or integrity of Mr. Reilly been attacked. He stands to-day as he has always stood in this county and throughout his career in Congress, a representative man of the people. At no time has an attempt been made to attack Mr. Reilly personally, although overtures towards questioning his judgment in setting upon certain measures have been unsuccessfully made. The record of the Democratic candidate is unassailable in every respect and is the best ever made by any other man Schuylkill county has ever sent to Congress. Mr. Reilly's uppermost thought in public life has always been directed to the welfare of his constituents and at no time has he ever wavered in carrying out that thought. It should be the aim of every voter, irrespective of politics, to retain in public office, especially where offices of a representative capacity are involved, to retain men who have served the people faithfully and honestly and have in no wise subjected themselves to public rebuke. Such a man is Mr. Reilly, and no voter in Schuylkill county can consistently vote against him at the election to-morrow. To have good government good men must be retained and placed in control of the country's affairs and not be subjected to whims of any particular faction. Vote for James B. Reilly for Congress and display your interest in the welfare of the government by urging your neighbors to do likewise.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

AN OUTRAGE.

A Dastardly Campaign Trick Deserving the Severest Censure.

We herewith publish a copy of a circular which some mean parties without guile or principle have circulated at the eleventh hour to injure one of the candidates now before the people for election to office.

Any sane man will agree that the scurrilous attack made through the circular is little short of fiendishness and no man with the slightest regard for public decency will give the arguments made against Mr. Coyle the slightest serious consideration.

The brain from which the composition took birth can be but little above the calibre of a brute and there is not the slightest doubt that were the author to present himself before the people he would be found a perfect likeness of a combined ass and knave.

This campaign has been a model up to the issuance of this scurrilous circular and honorable and sensible Democrats and Republicans will heartily concur in the sentiment that it is a pity that humanity should suffer the existence of such contemptible idiots as the author of the following circular must be!

Before the campaign closes we desire to call your attention to a feature which is of vital interest to every good American citizen. Ex-Senator King comes from the old Pennsylvania Dutch stock, those staid citizens who have done so much for this state. This is a free country, and it is the duty of every true American to vote for Mr. King, the Democratic candidate for State Senator. John J. Coyle is the Republican candidate. He is one of the most ardent Catholics, and has boasted that none but Catholics should hold office. Every friend of American institutions should cast his vote for C. F. King.

The Americanism of Mr. King has been thoroughly tested. He is for everything American as distinguished from Catholicism. J. J. Coyle, his opponent, is an ardent, rank and bigoted Catholic, and if elected to the State Senate, will do all in his power for parish schools. A portion of the money at present appropriated to our public schools will be directed to Catholic parish schools. Can the friends of our public school system afford to elect such a man as John J. Coyle to office?

We are all aware of the fact Romanism is spreading in this country. The Pope has appointed Monsignor Satolli as his deputy in America, and the Catholics are making a desperate effort to proselyte this country, and impress their ideas into our laws. It is claimed that C. F. King is a Catholic. We well know that he is liberal in his ideas while Mr. Coyle is enthusiastic in the tenets of the Catholic Church, and his bigotry would lead him to any excess in behalf of his church. J. J. Coyle is furthermore too Irish in his sympathies. He has the map of Ireland indelibly stamped on his face, and the fact that the Irish are going to vote for him should determine every American to vote against him.

Friends of America, you know that the A. P. A. is doing a noble work in this campaign. You cannot afford to do less. Vote for Charles F. King and elect him by such a majority that for many years to come no Irishman will dare aspire to so honorable and responsible a position as the State Senate.

"Pulse of New York."

There is much that is to be commended in the four-act comedy drama, "The Pulse of New York," presented to a very large audience last night at the Standard. Miss Grace Emmett heads the cast. She is a capable actress, fully equal to the demands made upon the versatility which she displays in six widely different characters. Harry C. Gibson made a very amusing office boy. Maude Miller as "Florence Dennison" and Cora Harvey as "Mother Skovotaki," were highly appreciated. The specialties were ably presented by Miss Emmett, little Luella Shirley and Harry Gibson. The scenic effects were excellent.—Phila., Press.

SERMON ON KISSING.

Rev. Lichtenwalner's Sermon Last Night Interested Young People.

In the introductory to his sermon in the Evangelical church on West Cherry street, last night, Rev. Lichtenwalner, the pastor, said that in searching for a text for a sermon, clergymen are frequently obliged to seek from Genesis to Revelations, finding it difficult to get a text to suit them at the time, and as the time draws nigh when they are obliged to decide upon something they sometimes take a subject that seems as dry as the flinty rock which Moses smote to bring water with which to supply the Israelites. Rev. Lichtenwalner said perhaps his text would appear just as dry to many, but he believed it would interest the young people, as it referred to kissing. This statement caused a broad smile to pass over the faces of the listeners and many of the young ladies blushed violently. The venerable pastor evidently observed this and joined in the smile.

The sermon proved a very interesting one and the lessons drawn from the text, "Kiss the Son," Psalms II; 12, were presented with great force. The pastor gave the token of kissing six classifications, friendship, subjection, salutation, gratitude, reverence and deep affection. The token of kissing is one of great weight, he said, one of great solemnity, and should be considered and practiced in the fear of God. The injunction of the text means that the sinner is to kneel at the feet of Jesus and become subjected to His grace. The American spirit is such that the people do not wish to kneel and kiss the feet of potentates, but there is one Sovereign to whom all must kneel in subjection. With no cross there is no crown, and people who wish to be saved must allow Him to establish a kingdom in their hearts.

Correspondence and Affidavit Concerning Messrs. Coyle and Gorman.

A letter from James F. Gorman, concerning the action of J. J. Coyle, candidate for State Senator in this district.

The following is a copy of a letter received by me from the Rochester Brewing Company, of New York:

"ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 30, 1894.

"Thomas F. Gorman, Mahanoy City, Pa. 'DEAR SIR:—We have a letter from Mr. Coyle, who is running for Senator in your district, complaining that you are interfering in his canvass. Of course we are entirely unopposed as to the circumstances. We cannot dictate to you in this matter. He states you are spending the Rochester Brewing Company's money in order to injure him and that he was of great service to you formerly, etc. 'For our information will you kindly state the circumstances to us and oblige, 'Yours truly,

"ROCHESTER BREWING COMPANY, 'JOHN BRADLEY, Manager."

It shows the desperate methods resorted to by Mr. Coyle in his candidacy for State Senator when he accuses me of being a thief because I differ with him in our political views; and he endeavors to ruin me with my employers by charging that I appropriated funds of the company to defeat him in his fight for Senator.

All I have to remark is that any man who is so contemptible as to resort to such methods in order to acquire political success is not deserving of the suffrage of any intelligent or decent citizen.

The affidavit following is the only reply I have to make to the above charges.

Schuykill County, ss:

Before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace, in and for the said county, personally came Thomas F. Gorman, of Mahanoy City, in said county, who being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say: I am agent for the Rochester Brewing Company of New York state. Whereas John J. Coyle has accused me of appropriating the Rochester Brewing Company's money to injure him in his campaign for State Senator. Furthermore that he has not spent one cent of the Rochester Brewing Company's or any other person's money for any political purpose in this or any other campaign, and that he has never received one cent from any person whatever to bespeak for political purposes.

Sworn and subscribed before me this 6th day of November, 1894.

The Hiscox Funeral.

The funeral of the late David Hiscox took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of the parents, on West Centre street. It was attended by the members of Major Jennings Council, No. 367, Jr. O. U. A. M., and the Jennings Guards. Rev. D. I. Evans, of the Welsh Baptist church, officiated at the ceremony. The remains were interred in the Old Fellows' cemetery. Messrs. Jonas Gillilan, A. H. VanHorn, Stephen Tregembo, Charles A. Willman, Ida E. Eisenhower and Milton Billman were the pall bearers. Mr. Evan J. Davies was the funeral director.

An Active Career Ends in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The Jones Watson reported in a Jalisco, Mexico, dispatch as having killed his Mexican wife and himself is believed by army officers here to be the James R. Watson formerly in the United States army. He was a volunteer soldier in the late war, and later entered West Point and graduated at the head of the class of which Fred Grant was a member. Resigning from the army he went to Japan and served as professor of engineering in the University of Tokio and also in the Japanese army. While in Japan Watson married the daughter of United States Minister Bingham, who died a few years later. Returning to the United States he was in December, 1871, appointed a major in the pay department of the army, and while stationed in Texas was short $29,000 of government funds. A court martial sentenced him to dismissal from the service and to a term in prison. He was paroled before the term expired and went to Mexico.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by Grubler Bros.

A Fire.

Some mining clothes caught fire in a kitchen of a house in Haverly's row on East Oak street this morning. An alarm was sounded and the hose companies responded. They put out the fire without much trouble before serious damage was done.

Did you ever see one of the famous water-proof Interlined Collars or Cuffs? It's very easy to tell, for they are all marked this way.

They are the only Interlined Collars and Cuffs, and are made of linen, covered with waterproof "CELLULOID." They'll stand right by you day in and day out, and they are all marked this way.

The first cost is the only cost, for they keep clean a long time, and when soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth—that is the kind marked this way.

These collars and cuffs will outlast six linen ones. The wearer escapes laundry trials and laundry bills—no chafed neck and no wringing down if you get a collar marked this way.

Ask your dealer first, and take nothing that has not above trade mark, if you desire perfect satisfaction. All others are imitations absolutely.

If you can't find collars or cuffs marked this way, we will send you a sample postpaid on receipt of price. Collars, 25 cts. each. Cuffs, 50 cts. pair. Give your size and say whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted. THE CELLULOID COMPANY, 427-29 Broadway, NEW YORK.
