THE election is over, now get down

WE hope the til-feeling engendered by the water fight will pass away and peace will reign once more.

THE wrecks of Tuesday will soon be cleared away and no one will notice that there had been an election.

NEXT year's election will not be as important as the one just closed. The next President can easily be picked from yesterday's results.

THE Nihilist story (ha) the Czar's death was due to poison slowly administered is pure imbeellity, of course, but there are plenty who will believe it, wishing it to

WE wish those of our neighbors who are obliged to make a trip up Salt River a pleasant journey. Both tickets could not be elected and the more gracefully defeat is taken the more credit is reflected upon the victim.

The death of ex Sheriff Leeds, of Philadelphis, leaves a regretful vacancy in the political circles of that city. Mr. Leeds was well known throughout the country and was a conspicuous figure in the Legislature for the past six years.

NEW YORK policemen rolling under the harrow of the Lexow committee must look with envy as they roll at the great good fortune of a brother in blue in Chicago. For $100 he bought the Virginia state building, which cost $17,000 as it stead on the grounds of the World's Columbian Exposition, moved it to Stony Island avenue, and made a residence of it. His purpose is to furnish it after the style of the Mount Vernon mansion. In the midst of the Old Colonial, abounding with suggestions of national glory, the happiness of Policeman McGuire will be complete. And all for $4001 Those New York policemen, who earned thousands by merely knowing looks or even by not looking at all, with all their wealth can enjoy only flats, or, at best, only plebelan brick houses, without a suggestion of fllustrious history. They would not get that, indeed, if they were to become the owners of a me of the brown-stone fronts. They might get history, but in many instances it would not improve that which | Heart Disease Relieved in 30 Minutes. the Lexow committee is making for them, But this Chicago policeman, this fortunate McGuire, with a comparative pittance earned by hard cracking of heads, dwells in the Exposition borne of the Old Dominion, a pattern of the home of the Father lan. of His Country, or, at least, his adopted country, where every nook and ankle an Cure guaranteed. Shakespeare says: "He josts at scars that never felt a wound,"

How often it happens that weak, ner ous, suffering women are the subjects of ridicale by friends, who, being well themelves, cannot understand such feelings in others. Yet there is no more terrible uffering than that resulting from ner consness, and it is the most prevalent of all complaints.

The most frightful tortures haunt the nind; the person is in constant dread of mpending cvil; sleep refuses to come and the merest trifles cause worry and anxiety. Thoughts of insanity develop, and the poor sufferer feels weak, three and unable to do anything. There are sometimes faintness and sinking at the comuch, loss of appetite, coated tongue, and lack of interest in society and daily affairs. Female weakness, with pains in the side, back, or abdomen, are often present. Miss Nettie Richards, of Livernore Falls, Maine, says:

"For two years I had hysterics, and was fearfully nervous. I would have them every day, and was in a terrible condition. My limbs were cold all the time. I could not sleep nights and had no appetite. My
