

AMUSEMENTS.

"CASPER THE YODLER"
Chas. T. Ellis, the gifted German comedian and sweet singer, will present his most popular success when he comes to Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening, November 13th.

"KIDNAP FOR LIFE"
The inferior attraction of the former week had a disastrous effect on the box office receipts of "Kidnap for Life," which in reality deserved the hearty support of the patrons of the house.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welsh ton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Telephone Company Must Pay.
In the case stated of the borough of Bethlehem vs. the Pennsylvania Telephone Company as to the right of boroughs to tax the poles of telephone, telegraph and electric light companies, Judge Albright, before whom the case was heard at Allentown, handed down an opinion in favor of the borough of Bethlehem and gives judgment against the telephone company for $289.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house.

Notice.
All persons entitled to school bills rendered to the Shenandoah School Board are requested to call for the same at the Secretary's office, in the West street school building, on Friday, Saturday, Monday or Tuesday, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Where Will It End?
Shenandoah decided by a heavy vote to grant permission to increase the bonded indebtedness of the borough $50,000 for the purpose of completing the new water works. This gives the Council $150,000 water debt. The original estimate of the projectors of the new scheme was $93,000 at the extreme. Where, oh, where will it end. Ten mills water tax and not sufficient water to supply the town unrestricted.—Mahanoy City Tribune.

ENGLISH STEAMER WRECKED

Struck on a Reef in two Fathoms of Water.
The Crew Escaped.
SANTA MONICA, Cal., Nov. 12.—The first steamer wrecked here in a century, of English build, landed here in a disaster. This morning the first vessel of the week of this steamer, which occurred at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

A Brave Engineer.
FRIDAY, O. T., Nov. 12.—The bravery of Dan Phillips, engineer on the northbound Santa Fe passenger train, evoked a terrible catastrophe. The bridge and trestle over Blackfoot river was enveloped in flames when the train came in sight. Though it seemed almost impossible to stop quickly, Phillips remained at his post. By his heroic efforts the train was stopped within a few feet of the bridge, and saved from plunging into the fifty foot gulch below.

Preparing to Fight France.
PORT LOUIS, Mauritius, Nov. 12.—Advices received here from Tamatave say that the Nova premier has announced that he will afford protection to the Methodist missionaries in Madagascar and all the French move in Tamatave, where M. Le Myre de Villers, the French commissioner, lives. The Nova are concentrating at Diego Suarez, at the northern extremity of the island. All diplomatic relations between France and Madagascar have now been broken off.

Ball Player Kelly's Funeral.
BOSTON, Nov. 12.—The funeral of the late Michael J. Kelly, the widely known baseball player, was held from St. James' church at 1 o'clock yesterday. Rev. Father Holly officiating. The services were brief, after which the body was interred with the burial services of the Elks at Mount Hope cemetery. Besides the Boston lodge officers of Haverhill and Worcester lodges of Elks and a cortege of thirty-five carriages followed the body to the grave.

Accident at a Baptism.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—While several hundred people were viewing a wholesale baptism at the Taylor street wharves yesterday a stairway on which they were standing gave way, and the crowd was precipitated twenty feet into the stony mud, the tide being out. Three loads of injured persons were carried to hospitals in the patrol wagons, there being several broken limbs.

Industries Resuming.
SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 12.—The South mills of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company started up today for an indefinite time to fill orders. The Lackawanna Knitting company, which has been running quarter time, is now running full time. The Scranton Glass company, which has been idle for a year, will start factory No. 3 this week, and factory No. 1 during the month.

Wholesale Massacre Reported.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 12.—Three thousand Armenians, including women and children, are reported to have been massacred in the Suseon region, near Mosul, Turkish Armenia, during a recent attack by Kurds. Twenty-five villages were destroyed. Turkish officials declare that the report is not true. The British ambassador is making inquiries into the matter.

To Strike All Winter.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Labor leaders have decided to continue the strike of the cloakmakers until February. It was announced that this decision was due to the refusal of the Cloak Manufacturers' association to submit the questions in dispute to arbitration by a committee of the New York council of mediation and conciliation, of which Seth Low is chairman.

Mysterious Murder in New York.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Thomas Miller, 55 years old, was found murdered in the office of John Cullen's stone yard, where he acted as night watchman. His head was a mass of bruises, and the brains protruded. The weapon used was evidently a heavy stove poker. The police are mystified, as the old man's savings, $28.30, were found on his person.

A Venerable Lady's Fatal Fall.
LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 12.—Miss Nettie Parker, aged 80, formerly housekeeper for the late President James Buchanan, slipped and fell yesterday while at work in her kitchen, breaking her thigh and sustaining other injuries, which it is feared will prove fatal. Miss Parker is noted for her many charitable deeds.

"General" Sanders Arrested.
PUEBLO, Colo., Nov. 12.—"General" J. S. Sanders, who commanded the Cripple Creek Cooey army, which left here last May, on a stolen train, and was captured in Kansas, has been arrested on a warrant charging him with the theft of a locomotive. He has $300 bail for his appearance on Wednesday.

The forest fires in Arkansas and north of Memphis have almost spent their fury. The flames have burned to the banks of the Mississippi river and stopped. The damage is small.

HERR MOST WAS THERE.

And Conservator Socialists Did Not Honor the Chicago Anarchists.
CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Herr Most was the principal speaker of the ceremonies at the dedication of the monument to the Haymarket anarchists. Among other things Herr Most said: "We must at the foot of this monument to hold high the banner to which shadowy things were first fought, and to which they remained true till death and in defending the red flag at this grave we feel bound to continue the work begun by them until it is crowned with success, until victory is obtained."

The execution were of the usual character. The presence of Herr Most had the effect of keeping away the more conservative of the socialist element. In fact most of the old timers were conspicuous by their absence, and only a few, among them Fielden and Grief, were seen there. Owing to an accident on the Wisconsin Central, which delayed the crowd, it was not until after 3 o'clock that speech-making began. It did not, as on previous occasions, take place at the monument over the graves of the anarchists, but in a vacant plot east of the monument.

The W. C. T. U. Convention.
BOSTON, Nov. 12.—The twenty-first annual convention of the United States National W. C. T. U., to be held at Cleveland beginning Nov. 10, will assume the nature of a historic anniversary. The origin, growth and entire history of the National W. C. T. U. will be reviewed and many of the most prominent workers of this and other countries will be present. The convention will last six days, including Sunday, Nov. 18, on which date the anniversary sermon will be preached by President W. J. Bashford, D. D., of Ohio Wesleyan university. An interesting feature of the convention will be a testimonial to General Neal Dow and an address by him.

A Judicial Case.
OMAHA, Nov. 12.—Judge Pat O. Hawes, one of the most prominent of Omaha's attorneys, was sent to jail for fifteen days by Judge Scott. Hawes has refused to practice before Scott. The court heard of it and sent for the attorney. A woman attending court remarked to her husband that the affair looked more like the exercise of power than justice. Her remarks were reported to the court, and she was at once fined.

Saved by Heroic Firemen.
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The rescue of John Floyd, his wife and two children—Mary, aged 5 years, and John aged 3 months—from the third floor of a blazing building at No. 157 Columbia street, Brooklyn, at 3:30 o'clock in the morning, was the heroic work of Policeman Kelly, Foreman Smith and Firemen Riley and Barnes. The members of the family, baby first, were carried down the ladder of Truck No. 1.

Another Italian Murder.
SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 12.—Bunker Hill, suburb of Scranton, thickly populated by Italians, was the scene of a murder last night. Joseph Buskone, alias Joseph Buskone, shot his comrade, Frank Cum-bert five times, killing him instantly. Both had been drinking all day. The murderer escaped, and a sheriff's posse is after him.

A Negro's Second White Wife.

Saving Fund!
SHARES FOR SALE.
The Safe Deposit Building and Saving Association of Reading, Pa., offers for sale a few hundred shares of stock. This is a good, reliable and prosperous association in which to take shares. Having ready sale for all money, the premium received is large, consequently the stock will mature much sooner than association located in towns where there is no great demand for money, and building operations are very limited. The value of each share is $20 at maturity. Application fee, 25 cents each share. Monthly dues, one dollar per share. Five per cent interest allowed on all payments made in advance for 6 months or longer. Members may withdraw one or all shares at any time by giving 30 days written notice, and are entitled to the full amount of dues paid, with 6 per cent interest after one year, thereby making it an 11 per cent investment. All shareholders are entitled to loans from fund on real estate security. No shares will be forced out. The fund is run on the same conservative principles as our local funds which have been tried for years and found safe. Any one wishing to invest in a Saving Fund will find it to their interest to call on the local agents and receive full particulars. Her. H. A. Keyser, D. D., of Mahanoy City, is one of the directors.
