NEW GERMAN CAPITOL

The Great Structure Formally Dedicated Today,
THOUGH NOT FULLY COMPLETED.

A Building Typical of the March of Germany in Science, Art and Architecture, the Total Cost of Which Will be About Sixty Million Marks.

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—The massive government building, the new Reichstag structure, was formally opened today. It is by no means complete, but it is the young Kaiser's earnest wish that the German parliament should hold its next session in the great hall designed for it, and thousands are therefore at work to see that his desire in the matter is at least made possible. There is fully another year's work within the building in the way of great decorations and the making and placing of the statuary designed to fill the thousand niches in the massive corridors of this monumental structure.

For twelve years the workmen have been busied on this building, which, with its graceful front, faces the famous green sward of the still more famous Tiergarten, and with its terraced rear looks down upon the hustle and turmoil of busy Berlin. It is an ideal location, selected as it was by the greatest of Germany's landscape artists. From its top, on which the Imperial crown rests like a gem set in the sky, the view of the great city is entrancing. It towers even above the great column of Victory, which commemorates the result of the Franco-German war.

The statue of Germania holds the place of honor on the facade, and the frieze underneath it is adorned with the German arms and mythical figures telling the story of early Teutonic times. Underneath this is the dedicatory inscription: "To the German People." In German letters form the words "Dem Deutschen Volke." The ornamental work and the statuary which already adorn the outside of the structure are the work of a host of Germany's masters, among whom towers the sculptor of the Germania statue, Reinhold Vegas.

It was in 1880 that the Reichstag first gave to the world the conception of this new structure. It seemed to be an impulse of the nation, and the German population showed in unmistakable ways that nothing would tend more to completely cement the German federation than a monumental structure which would belong to the nation and be typical not alone of its unity, but of its great advance in science, art and architecture. It was to be a crowning event in the history of the new Germany, and this indeed it has proven to be. When on June 9, 1894, the old emperor, William I, laid the cornerstone, his impressive words, "So as they were, breathed the noble spirit of patriotism, and were much in the nature of a prediction that the completion of the structure would find reunited Germany the strongest nation on the face of the earth.

Not until 1882 was the prize architectural competition decided. Hundreds of plans had been submitted by the greatest and the least, and it remained for a man practically unknown to even his own nation to win the great prize. It was Paul Wallot that the honor was accorded. He was born at Oppenheim on the Rhine, was educated at Darmstadt, in the technological institutes of Berlin and Hanover, and later perfected himself in his art in the studios of Gropius, Lucius and Hiltz. He is not alone a great architect, but a talented landscape artist and a remarkably clever civil engineer.

In the first conception of the building the architect had designed the main hall directly under the great cupola, but when it should be filled with light, he was almost a whim of the old emperor that occasioned a change in the design so far as this idea was concerned. At a gathering of all those interested in the old emperor remarked that it would be very hard on Mr. Wallot, the great clerical leader, to climb the stairs to a great hall directly under the cupola. And so the plan was changed to conform in many respects to that of the government building of the United States, where congress meets in the wings.

The cost of the building will, when completed, reach, perhaps, 60,000,000 marks. This is exactly double the amount at first voted to carry out the colossal project. Had to the original design for interior decoration and statuary been carried out, it is likely that the building would have cost over 100,000,000 marks.

Divorce the Poles From Politics.
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—At the meeting of the board of trade and transportation this resolution was passed: "Resolved, that the New York board of trade and transportation believe that the policy favoring of New York city should be divorced from all political control, and that it should be constituted on some such basis as is the policy of the United States or the militia of the state of New York, with a committee to include all grades of officers who shall rise from the ranks, with provisions for court martial and for appointment by the force by the strictest civil service rules."

Union Veterans in North Carolina.
NEWARK, N. C., Nov. 15.—A delegation of forty-five Union veterans from Connecticut arrived here to participate in the unveiling of the monument to the Union soldiers buried here. They were met at the depot by Confederate veterans and citizens, who gave them a cordial greeting. The address of welcome was delivered by ex-Confederate General, Calen Battle, and was responded to by Senator Platt, of Connecticut. A banquet was given the visitors last night at the Hotel Chastawha.

An Old Church Rededicated.
SMYTHVILLE, Va., Nov. 15.—The oldest Protestant church in America, Old St. Luke's church, five miles from here, which has undergone recent repairs, was rededicated yesterday. The church was erected in 1632, and was in constant use until 1776, and was not entirely abandoned until 1829. The work of restoration began five years ago.

Soon Followed His Father.
SUNSHINE, Pa., Nov. 15.—Albert F. Wright, son of the late Congressman M. B. Wright, died yesterday afternoon. He was 18 years old. Congressman Wright, who was representative from the Fifteenth district, died at Trenton, Canada, Monday night.

Expecters of the Case's Illness.
VIENNA, Nov. 15.—The papers here state that, including the 600,000 roubles divided among the doctors, the case's illness and journey to Livadia cost 10,000,000 roubles.

AN ASTONISHED MARSHAL

He Cannot Account for the Disappearance of His Prisoner.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—Deputy United States Marshal Henry Miller, of San Francisco, reached St. Louis last evening. He left San Francisco last Thursday with Henry Smythe, accused of being the mailer to defraud Chicago merchants. Monday, at Little Rock, Ark., Smythe disappeared from the train and mysteriously that Miller has not yet recovered from the shock.

When Smythe's wife learned that her husband was to be taken, she begged permission to go along, and friends got a pass for her and her daughter.

"When we reached Texarkana Monday morning," said Miller, "Mrs. Smythe made coffee in the berth and prepared the meal. An hour and a half afterward I had dreadful pain in my head, and I was almost overcome by a drowsy feeling. My head felt as if it was in a vice. None of the others were taken sick. The inference is obvious.

Early in the afternoon when the train pulled into Little Rock I noticed that while I had been on the platform watermen had unlocked the rear door to supply the drinking tank, and that Smythe had skipped."

Disgusted with Woman Suffrage.
DENVER, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Waite, wife of the governor, who was one of the foremost women in advocating equal suffrage before the legislature, said in an interview that she was disgusted with the result of the enfranchisement of the women. "The conduct of the women of Capitol Hill both before and after the election," she said, "has been perfectly scandalous. They have simply cut the throats of the party that gave them the right to vote, and have disgraced their womanhood. The governor opposes the enfranchisement of women as much as I do now. He thinks they should receive some education in citizenship before they get the full privilege of American citizenship."

A Convict's Awful Death.
WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 14.—A convict, William Thompson, met a violent death in the jail mill at the penitentiary. Thompson was among the shafting, and his clothing caught a rapidly revolving shaft. Before the machinery could be stopped he was whirled around several times. When taken out it was found almost every bone in his body was crushed. He lived about half an hour. Thompson was serving an eight years' sentence from Whitman county.

Whitecaps' Confession.
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 14.—Payne Duncan and Will Morrison have confessed to shooting and throwing Will Roper into a copper pit in the Coloma mountains last May. Roper was an informer on illicit distilleries. One night he was taken from his home by whitecaps, whipped and shot, and then thrown into a mine shaft. He fell seven feet. For five days he remained there, eating roots. When discovered he was nearly dead.

Must Stand Trial.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Judge Cole yesterday, in the United States district court of the district of Columbia, overruled the demurrer in the case of John W. Masarney, of Washington, and E. R. Chapman, of New York, brokers, who refused to answer certain questions before the senate sugar investigating committee, and holds the defendants for trial. The defendants' counsel will now take the case to the court of appeals.

Reunited with Non-Indians.
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—The United States Iron and Tin Plate company announced work in the Denham plant with fifty non-Indian men, under guard of deputy sheriffs. The locked-out men, offered no interior entrance. At East Liverpool, O., Wallace Bonbold & Co. started one of their tin mills with new hands. Trouble is feared should the company introduce any more outsiders to start the other mill.

Riotous Miners Convicted.
CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 14.—In the circuit court here the jury in the case against Robert Izell, Robert Wilson, Patrick Monahan, William Thomas, Henry Cook and Patrick Donahue, came in last night with a verdict of guilty. The parties are all coal miners, and were indicted by the present grand jury for unlawful assembly and rioting in the town of Rehkar during the late strike in this county.

Part of the "Swag" Recovered.
SALINA, Kan., Nov. 14.—The bank robber who was shot here on Monday by his pals after he had been wounded by the cashier of the bank robbed, had on his person $1,500 of the booty. A letter was also found addressed to Stephen McKee, 902 E. Broadway street, St. Joe, Mo. The gang was supposed to have been the same which robbed the First State bank in September.

Lake Miller Mine Fire Still Burning.
SHENANDOAH, Pa., Nov. 14.—A company of miners entered the water level tunnel of the burning Lake Miller mine and found it full of foul gases. No traces of the bodies of the four men, who were imprisoned there thirty-five days ago, were found. The lower workings are filled with water, and the fire is still burning in the upper chambers of the mine.
