

The Wives and the Mothers That Are to Be.

Their Thin, Pale Cheeks and Lack of Spirit Leaves no Doubt.

The Nerves Are Poorly Fed and Blood Lacks in Red Corpuscles.

O, my boys are never nervous. One couldn't stand that. But with girls, you know doctor, it is different.

Too many mothers reason like that. They do not like to hear their girls called tomboys, and they hasten to make them "ladylike," to keep them from running and climbing and from vigorous games, while the boys are laying in a stock of health that will last them far into middle age.

The least sign of physical failure on the part of girls at the critical times in their lives should ring a grave alarm. Pale lips, nervous habits, retarded growth, a lack of high, youthful spirits and a poor condition of the skin, urgently demand a better and a more complete nutrition.

In all cases, whether it be a young child or an aged person, Paine's celery compound adds vigor and increased weight by strengthening the very foundation of health, by feeding blood and nerves richly and promptly. It is only when the nerve centers are healthy that the other bodily functions can be healthy.

If anxious mothers will only follow the advice of the most careful physicians, and make sure that their children are getting sufficient material to meet the big demands made by their growing nerves and tissues, there will be an end to the weakly condition, the continual headaches, the "blue days," and the general ill-health that so few young girls escape.

The best ally against nervousness and irritability is that remarkable nerve food, Paine's celery compound, first prescribed by Dartmouth's greatest educator. Day by day, when taken with the regularity and care that physicians say is indispensable for excellent results, comes invariably a steady gain in weight, which can mean but one thing—a gain in quantity and the quality of the blood. Trifles begin to worry them less, sleep comes naturally and refreshing, appetite increases, and their frames grow plump with solid flesh, because all the delicate parts of their nervous system, upon which the nutrition and well-being of the body directly depends, are beginning to be fully nourished and to work without friction.

A body thus fed by Paine's celery compound makes those joys and little innocent pleasures possible, without which childhood and girlhood is sad to look upon.

To the Public.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welsh ton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by Grubler Bros.

NORTH CAROLINA'S SENATORS

May Vote With the Republicans in the Organization. READING, N. C., Nov. 15.—Major Butler, the president of the National Association of Wholesalers, who is slated to succeed Benjamin Harrison in the United States senate in March 4 next, is reported as having stated that he would vote with the Republicans in the organization of the next senate.

It is further stated that if Butler's vote turns out to be necessary to the Republicans he will ask for the senate secretaryship for a North Carolina Republican in exchange for his support and vote. The present secretary of the senate, General W. R. Cox, is a North Carolinian.

Speculated with His Client's Money. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Walter D. Allen, a member of the bar of this city, pleaded guilty in the criminal court to the embezzlement of $12,000 from Rev. John J. Hoffmann, $6,800 from John Hamilton and $5,200 from Thomas Karley. Allen has been the trusted agent of the prosecutors for many years, and the $20,000 had been put in his hands for investment. He got into speculation on his own account, with the usual result. Rev. Mr. Hoffmann's loss aggregated $60,000, but the larger part was barred by the statute limitations. Allen was formerly a respected man and always an exemplary husband, and pleas for mercy were made on his behalf by his counsel and the prosecutors. The court deferred sentence.

Saved by the Supreme Court. TRENTON, Nov. 15.—Chief Justice Bessey, of the supreme court, gave a decision yesterday declaring illegal the indictment and conviction in the Hudson county court of William Schindel on a charge of lewdness. Schindel had married Miss Thomas, after obtaining a divorce from a former wife. At the trial the Illinois divorce was held invalid in New Jersey, and the living with the Thomas woman was, therefore, declared unlawful. The chief justice held that where a man and woman honestly believed themselves married they committed no crime by living together.

Tried to Murder a Family. LOUISVILLE, Nov. 15.—Last night Allen Prime, 39 years old, attempted to kill his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Lehman, at 2804 Portland avenue, but luckily his bullets went wide of the mark. The woman saved their lives by getting out of the way of the whisky-crazed man. Prime then shot his sister-in-law, Miss Jennie Lehman, inflicting a serious, though not dangerous wound. He then shot himself through the head. He will die. His wife left him two weeks ago, and went to live with her father on account of her husband's cruelty.

Arguing Against Sentence. TRENTON, Nov. 15.—Allan McDermott, counsel for John N. Crustin, John C. Carr, Dennis McLaughlin and Gottfried Walbaum, owners of the Guttenberg race track, who pleaded guilty in the Hudson county courts last April to keeping a disorderly house, made argument yesterday before the supreme court against any sentence being imposed by the latter court, to whom the matter had been certified by the lower court, which could not agree upon a sentence. The court reserved decision.

To Contest for a Judgeship. TENNESSEE, Pa., Nov. 15.—There is a probability that the election of president judge in the Forty-fourth judicial district, comprising Wyoming and Sullivan counties, will be contested. E. M. Dunham, of Lawport, was the Republican candidate and John Stitzer, of Tunkhannock, the Democratic nominee. The official returns gave Dunham a majority of twenty-nine. It is alleged that non-residents and boys not of age voted for Dunham, and an investigation is being made.

The American Consul Protested. LOSILOS, Nov. 15.—A dispatch from Cape Town says that the Portuguese authorities recently imprisoned Mr. W. Stanley Hollis, consul of the United States at Mozambique. He was charged with attempted homicide for shooting a Kaffir whom he caught robbing his house. The Kaffir recovered from his injuries and Mr. Hollis was acquitted. The American consul at Cape Town has protested to Portugal against the action of the authorities at Mozambique.

The Western Outlaws. GUTHRIE, O. T., Nov. 15.—A remnant of the noted Cook gang, which has been run out of the Indian Territory, held up a German emigrant named Beckley, who was traveling with his family from Wewoka to Tucumseh. The poor traveler was robbed of all his valuables, his oldest daughter assaulted and one of the horses unhitched from the wagon and taken off. There were four bandits in the party. Deputies are in pursuit.

After Alabama Lynchers. CULLMAN, Ala., Nov. 15.—John and Monroe Evans were lynched in this county in 1881, and the governor offered reward for the lynchers. Twelve men accused of complicity in the crime have just been arrested and are in jail here. Many others are yet to be arrested. One of the county commissioners is among the accused and is also in jail. The evidence is said to be strong against all of them.

A Boy's Fatal Carelessness. SING SING, N. Y., Nov. 15.—John Washburn, a 16-year-old boy, accidentally discharged a gun in the store of Captain A. Jones. The charge struck a keg of powder, causing an explosion which killed the boy and wounded several employees in the store quite seriously. The building was completely wrecked.

Nick Young Still Heads the League. NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The National League baseball convention conferred the reappointment of Nick Young as president, secretary and treasurer of the league. There was a general discussion of the proposed new association, and it was the general opinion that it would not materialize.

CAPT. JACK ON THE TRAIL.

The Post Scout Back From Europe and Touring America. Captain Jack Crawford, late chief of scouts, United States army, better known as the post scout, and well-known in Shenandoah on account of his one time residence in this place, has returned from Europe, where he created a most favorable impression on the lecture platform during the past summer. The English papers printed columns in describing and eulogizing his unique entertainments.

Capt. Jack has just issued another book entitled, "Private Brown," which is highly recommended by Generals Howard, Merritt and others. He has also closed negotiations with Putnam & Sons, New York, for the publication of a book for boys, and has arranged to write short stories for St. Nicholas and Harpers Young People. But even these engagements will not keep the Captain sufficiently busy and before the winter season closes the people of Shenandoah will have an opportunity to hear him lecture. He was at West Chester, Pa., last Tuesday evening and the Morning Republican said on the following day: "Capt. Jack Crawford is a gentleman who deserves all the praise that has been lavished upon him by press and public. His lecture at the Assembly Building last evening was intensely interesting and won for him golden opinions from the intelligent audience that had the pleasure of listening to him. The Captain is a fluent speaker, and he recounted numerous incidents of a humorous and pathetic nature which were well received. His poems were gems of jingling melody and his stories sparkled with the element of earnestness that pervaded their recital. The evening's entertainment was closed with a realistic representation of the lightning-like manner in which Wild Bill killed two sharpshooters who were trying to fleece him out of $400 which he had just received from the government. The exhibition was startling and was a fitting close to the evening's exercises. The entertainment was given for the benefit of Gen. George A. McCull Post, of this borough, and quite a number of the veterans were noticed in the audience."

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having his grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

The Safe Deposit Building and Saving Association of Reading, Pa., offers for sale a few hundred shares of stock. This is a good, reliable and prosperous association in which to take shares. The value of each share is $50 at maturity. Application fee, 25 cents each share. Monthly dues, one dollar per share. Five per cent. interest allowed on all payments made in advance for 6 months or longer. Members may withdraw one or all shares at any time by giving 30 days written notice, and are entitled to the full amount of dues paid, with a 6 per cent. interest after one year, thereby making it an 11 per cent. investment. All shareholders are entitled to loans from fund on real estate security. No shares will be forced out.

The fund is run on the same conservative principles as our local funds which have been tried for years and found safe. Any one wishing to invest in a saving fund will find it in their interest to call on the local agents and receive full particulars. Rev. H. A. Keyser, D.
