He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripple he himself is troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

PRIMITIVE MOQUI INDIANS.

They Wage Vigorous Warfare Against the Advancements of Civilization. DENVER, Nov. 29.—Captain Constant Williams, of the Seventh Infantry, has forwarded to the headquarters of the department of Colorado the particulars of the trouble about Moqui Indians. The Moqui Indians are few in number and dwell in the mountains of Arizona about 150 miles from Fort Wingate, the nearest military post. They are a peaceful and industrious tribe, but ignorant of all matters outside of their own little villages. It is even said they believe that they are the only people in the world, with the exception of four companies of United States cavalry that appeared on the occasion of their last outbreak.

Governor Solomai obtained some progressive ideas from a visit to Washington with two other Moquis about ten years ago. On his return he described the immense numbers of people, the railroads and gigantic buildings he had seen. The Indians, thinking he was crazy, placed him in confinement for some time. Solomai has never abandoned his desire for reform, and has quietly gathered about him followers that comprise about one-third of the Moquis.

A meeting of the two factions was held in the square of the village, and the chiefs of the contending factions stated their case to Captain Williams. Governor Solomai said he wanted his children to go to school and be brought up as white children. When he and others had done this the hostilities had ceased, and he threatened to expel them from the village. So Solomai had asked for the cavalry to be sent. After Solomai had finished Chief Lomahungyoma substantially admitted the truth of Solomai's statements, saying that he and his followers did not want to be civilized or to have their children go to school or to wear white men's clothing, or to eat white men's food. Therefore, Captain Williams said he had deemed it necessary to ask for two troops of the United States cavalry to be sent there. It is believed the trouble will be over in a few days. Army officers say that they are the most religious people in the world, and honorable and upright in all their dealings. They speak a language of their own, but each separate village has a separate dialect which they all understand.

Respite by the President. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—United States Marshal Baldwin received notice from Washington that President Cleveland had granted still another respite to Thomas St. Clair, one of the murderer sailors of the bark Heeper, who was to hang in San Jose on Friday for the murder of Fitzgerald. The president now grants a respite until Dec. 21. The supposition is that the execution will be deferred pending the action of the United States supreme court of appeals on St. Clair's application, Spaff and Hanson, and that in the event of its decision sustaining the verdict and sentence of the lower court the three murderers will be executed together.

The Murderers of the Good Children. PAULDING, O., Nov. 29.—Sheriff Staley, after a long silence, has at last given out information that will throw a great deal of light on the mystery that has surrounded the murder of the Good children. In an interview Sheriff Staley said: "I am satisfied now that I now have the murderers, and that they will be convicted. I had occasion to rebuke the prisoner Hart, when Hart protested his innocence, and said it was Cain and Brindle who had killed the children, and that now they were trying to throw the blame on his (Hart's) shoulders."

Reilly and daughter, Jane, attended the funeral of Mr. Ginley, at Girardville, on Monday. Misses Sadie Monaghan and Mary Flaherty, two of Girardville's fair damsels, were in town on Sunday. Our High school football team would like to arrange a game with the High school team of Shenandoah, or Ashland. The boys average in weight 130 pounds. Forward all communications to J. J. Rooney. The Centralia foot ball team will play the strong team of Mahanoy City at the latter place on Thanksgiving Day. The game promises to be a close and interesting one and our boys feel confident that on the 26th another victory will be added to their already large list.

The night school opened last evening and was attended by a large number of working boys. The school promises to be more successful than ever before. The teachers are Mrs. James Maley and John J. Reilly. They are employed by the School Board at a salary of $25 per month. We are pleased to hear of the interest which the working boys take in these schools. It will surely be a great help to them in after life. The ball held in the Byrnesville school house on Saturday was a grand success and was largely attended by the young folks of this and surrounding towns. The managers of the affair certainly deserve much credit for the manner in which the ball was conducted. The music furnished by Prof. O'Donnell was excellent. The waiting contest was won by Mr. Garrity and Miss Carey, both of Buck's patch, the prize being a handsome silver ring. C. D. Eriks has received a new lot of rugs. All kinds. Resolutions of Condolence. At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Shenandoah School District, held in their room, November 19th, 1894, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: WHEREAS, It has pleased the Lord, in his wisdom, to summon from our midst our friend and ardent co-worker, Anthony J. Gallagher, whose earnest and conscientious devotion to the best interests of our schools, especially during the six years in which he was a member of this body, has earned the lasting gratitude of the community, as well as our friendship and esteem; and

WHEREAS, We regard the career of our deceased friend as a School Director especially worthy of emulation, characterized as it has been by untiring zeal, intelligent devotion, honesty and self sacrifice; and this, with his warm, gentlemanly and unassuming personal traits, has endeared him to us and to all who knew him; therefore,

Resolved, That we deeply regret the sudden and unexpected departure of our co-laborer in the early years of his manhood and usefulness, and we realize that we have sustained a heavy loss, the loss of a good citizen earnestly devoted to duty and the cause of education. Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathy to his grief-stricken wife, mother and relatives, and recommend them to seek consolation from Him who is the comforter of the afflicted and whose merciful ways are always for the best. Resolved, That as a mark of respect to the deceased, we attend the funeral in a body; that the schools be closed during the forenoon; that the teachers, the members of the High school, and those of the second grade grammar schools shall attend the funeral; that we make an appropriate floral offering; that these resolutions be published in the town papers, and that an expressed copy be presented to the widow of the deceased. H. J. MULLOON, W. T. TRUBBICK, J. J. DEWITT, Committee.

At a meeting of the Shenandoah Citizens' Water and Gas Company, held November, 1894, the following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, In view of the loss we have sustained by the death of our late director and superintendent, Mr. S. D. Hess, and the still greater loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard as a man and as an official. Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased in the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and whose chastisements are meant in mercy. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the company and that a copy be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That the resolutions be published in the Shenandoah Herald. F. C. REED, P. R. REED, C. E. TITMAN, Committee.
