Hood's Is the Grandest

Raised from a Weak and Low Condition

To Perfect Health and Strength After Four Years Suffering.

"Gentlemen—I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the grandest discovery yet made, and it fulfills even more than you claim for it. My wife has been sick for the past four years. For three years she was so bad that she was unable to do any of her housework. We had good physicians, but she did not recover her health. She was suffering from Bright's disease and

Lameness in the Back. Her tongue was covered with blisters; had no appetite, and was very weak and low with general debility. I insisted on her taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and she has been improving ever since. She has taken six bottles, and is so well

CHINA'S GREAT LOSS.

Destruction of the Chen Yuen Officially Confirmed.

THE GREATEST CHINESE WARSHIP

Destroyed by a Torpedo Placed by Chinese Men Themselves—An Agent of the Chinese Government Goes to Japan to Sue for Peace.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The Chinese have lost the finest and most powerful vessel of their navy—the great battleship Chen Yuen, which stood the brunt of the fighting at Yalu. The official news comes to the navy department yesterday in a cablegram. It states that the Chen Yuen in leaving Wei-Hai-Wo harbor on the 18th inst. accidentally struck a torpedo. She was beached, but was rendered useless for lack of docking facilities. In despair at the catastrophe the commander, Commodore Lin, committed suicide.

The Chen Yuen was a magnificent fighting machine, very much like our own battleship Maine.

It would appear from the brief statement of facts in the cablegram that the ship fell a victim to one of the torpedoes planted by the Chinese themselves to guard the entrance to Wei-Hai-Wo, which was the last of the great naval strongholds of the empire save Port Arthur, now tottering to its fall.

It was as well that Commodore Lin committed suicide, for he would doubtless have been decapitated as the result of his error.

It is believed here that this loss has deprived the Chinese navy of its offensive power. There remains the Ting Yuen, another powerful battleship, and a few lesser ironclads, but without the aid of the Chen Yuen they would hardly dare to make an offensive campaign, and probably will remain in port to assist in the defense.

The departure of the Chinese customs chief for Japan is regarded by officials here as the result of Japan's demand for a direct offer from China. The De Ting mentioned in the cable is said to be Dietrich, a German, who occupies the position of commissioner of customs. That he should be sent as the peace envoy is accounted for by officials on the ground that an indemnity would probably be secured on the customs receipts of China. It is said that the Chinese envoy will probably be the guest of United States Minister Dun at Tokio. Japanese officials say he will be accorded every courtesy.

CHINA SUEING FOR PEACE.

Has Sent an Agent to Japan with That Object in View.

TIENTSIN, Nov. 23.—The chief of the imperial customhouse, De Ting, who was recently summoned to Peking in order to confer with the government as to ways and means for raising money for the war, has left for Japan in order to arrange terms of peace.

It is said that China has intimated her willingness to pay an indemnity of 100,000,000 taels and, in addition, pay all the war expenses incurred by Japan. As the war expenses reach 150,000,000 taels, the total offer of China would be 250,000,000 taels. The tael is a Chinese silver coin worth about seventy-five cents at the present exchange, so that the whole payment would be approximately $187,500,000. It is believed arrangements between the two nations could be effected on terms providing for a smaller war indemnity.

A Shanghai dispatch says that the efforts of foreigners to reach the Chinese wounded meet with small success. The wounded Chinese mostly remain at Simonsing, between New Chang and Moukden, the state of the country preventing the Chinese medical staff and the foreign volunteers from proceeding there. Some wounded stragglers have reached Moukden and New Chang, and some of them have even reached Tientsin, where they have been attended to. But no success has reached the main body of the Chinese wounded.

All the foreigners have left Moukden. A portion of the road between Tientsin and Peking is occupied by Houthanese troops and this locality is becoming unpleasant for travelers.

The Catholic fathers remain at their stations in Manchuria, but the Protestants have returned. The latter report that the Chinese soldiers fought most stubbornly under General Sung, and they add that if the Chinese had good leaders they would certainly repel the Japanese.

Reliable information received here from Port Arthur shows that there has been a sharp battle at that place. The first attack of the Japanese against the Chinese outposts. Three other attacks were subsequently made, but in each instance the Japanese were repulsed. Heavy and incessant firing has been going on since noon Tuesday. The Japanese are landing additional troops. They warned a British vessel to clear, as their fleets intended to bombard the forts.

Arrested for Burglary.

PHILADELPHIA, N. J., Nov. 23.—James McGuire, one of a gang of burglars who robbed the general store of G. W. Bachman, at Freeburgsburg Tuesday night, of several hundred dollars worth of goods, and also broke into the Lehigh Valley station at that place was arrested at Hampton, N. J., and held to await requisition. Some of the stolen goods were found in McGuire's possession.

Death of Baltimore Capitalist.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 23.—William T. Walters, the well known art collector and capitalist, died yesterday. The immediate cause of his death was peritonitis of the stomach and Bright's disease. He was financially interested in nearly every important enterprise in Baltimore. He was in his 78th year, and a widower.

Mount Tacoma in Eruption.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 23.—Ruxey sound has prevailed throughout the Puget sound country today, and Mount Tacoma has been obscured. It has been impossible to learn as to the actual condition of the mountain, and it is believed by many to be in a state of eruption.

A VICTORY FOR PASKOLA.

It Receives the Official Endorsement of Eminent Experts and a Jury of Representative Citizens.

The suit brought by Ohio's Food Commissioner against a Cincinnati druggist for selling Paskola on the ground that it was nothing but glucose, resulted in a great victory for Paskola and a verdict against the State.

During the course of the trial, Prof. Shaller of the University of Cincinnati, testified that Paskola was not glucose, and even if it was, it would be harmless. He also bore witness to its activity as a digestive agent.

Prof. Wm. Dickers of the Miami College, testified to the same facts. So did Prof. Schmidt, the chemist of the Board of Health, Prof. Wm. Hoffman and others.

A practical test was made in court, showing the digestive action of Paskola on eggs and meats of various kinds, whereas glucose had no effect whatsoever. This test but confirmed the experts' statements and proved Paskola to be of great value in indigestion and wasting diseases.

The verdict disposes of the malicious attack that has been made against Paskola by interested rivals, and suits have now been brought against the proprietors of a well known emulsion of cod liver oil for having given wide circulation to a false formula and other misrepresentations regarding it.

The animus of this attack will be better understood when it is stated that Paskola is being largely used in the place of cod liver oil.
