Seven Miners Who Wholly Destroyed a Tunnel and Other Property. RICHMOND, Pa., Nov. 22.—The seven miners charged with conspiracy to burn and destroy the tunnel at the Palm mine, last June during the strike were found guilty by the jury yesterday. The charges were that they conspired to blow up the tunnel by placing explosives under a building, which was all that was charged against them. The other five—Frank Myers, Ludwig Rosenbleck, Joseph Kettle, William Geitner and Wassel Switzer—were found guilty of all charges of the indictment, which accused them of burning and consenting to the crime. Frank Myers was the man who agreed or offered to do the act when it was proposed.

Murdered by Australian. LONDON, Nov. 22.—Australian mail reports are to the effect that the Kanakas of all the islands near New Guinea are in revolt. Scores of European settlers have been murdered. The steamer Three Cheroes, of Sydney, called at the Admiralty Islands and found that the trading posts and a trading schooner had been burned. A single white man was visible. The natives fled to the hotel on the approach of the steamer. The captain landed and found the remains of a recent cannibal feast. All the whites undoubtedly met with a horrible death. At New Ireland and other islands similar massacres are reported.

He took his bride to his father's home in Frederick county. Six months later she told him that she was the mother of a boy nearly 7 years of age, and the young husband deserted her and came to Baltimore. Later, hearing that she was dead, he married Miss Hattie Gibbs. Three days after the ceremony the young husband learned that his first wife was alive. He immediately informed his second wife and they separated. Yesterday the marriage was declared void.

A Whisky Bottle Told the Story. MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Nov. 22.—Thomas Riley, of Burlington, was found drowned on the flats below here. An empty whisky bottle in his boat, around a few feet away, told the whole story. Riley was about 40 years of age. Several years ago, in a drunken quarrel, he killed Pitman Brown at Burlington, for which he was sentenced to two years in the state prison. On his release he refused to return to his home in Burlington, and has been living a licentious life in an old cabin along the creek.

Implications of Many Murders. MEXICO CITY, Nov. 22.—A horrible discovery has just been made near Churintzio, state of Michoacan. The Bogus Checks. The report that George W. Beddall, the hardware merchant, was victimized to the extent of $50 by a forged check is confirmed. Mr. Beddall says that on the 16th inst., a man known as J. T. W. Atkins, from whom he had been buying oils and paints for the past eight years, called at his store and presented a $50 check drawn on a Pittsburg bank. The relations which Mr. Beddall off his guard and he cashed the check. On Tuesday the check came back from Pittsburg stamped a forgery. Last Wednesday a check reached here from Chambersburg. It was drawn for $50 on the Merchants' National Bank of Shenandoah, on one of the bank's forms, and signed "C. M. Beddall & Bro." This check was renounced. It had been drawn by the same party that victimized Mr. Beddall. A letter received from Chambersburg to-day states that the man at that place who was caught by the C. M. Beddall check had struck a cue and intended to force the forge into jail even if it required the expense and trouble of a chase throughout the United States. If the forger is caught Mr. Beddall will also become a prosecutor.

Quinn, 24 East Centre street, Shenandoah, Pa., can tell you all about the Singer.

AMUSEMENTS.

"CELL 22." Madame, and her son Augustin, Neville, will be the attraction at Ferguson's theatre this evening, presenting for the first time in this city their new play entitled, "Cell 22," from the pen of the talented actress and author, Mrs. Neville, and written for her son Augustin, giving him an opportunity to show his peculiar style than in any of his other plays. The story is one of intense interest and well worked out, holding the interest and attention of the audience to the end. Mrs. Neville has a part entirely dissimilar to the emotional line of work to which she has been accustomed, and Augustin Neville has a part which suits him exactly. The critics from our neighboring cities are loud in their praise of the play and the company presenting it. Mrs. Neville and Augustin have many friends and admirers in Shenandoah, they all remembering their appearance here in "The Boy Tramp" for the past three seasons; but this year with a new play and the best company he has ever had, will be doubly welcomed.

"MCKENNA'S FLIRTATIONS." Another big house laugh and shouted at the many funny things they saw in "McKenna's Flirtations" at the Auditorium last evening. Dan Williams has made a splendid impression as a substitute for Billy Barry and his close resemblance to the latter both in appearance and actions would deceive a careless observer. This afternoon and to-night will be your last opportunity to see this amusing comedy.—Bridgeport Union. At Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening.
