FATAL RESULT OF A FALL.

Mrs. Millward Was Unable to Rally From Injuries Sustained by a Fall Down a Stairway.

Mrs. Mary Ann Millward died yesterday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Roberts, on south White street, from the effects of injuries sustained a week ago last Sunday by falling down a stairway.

At the time she sustained the injuries she was descending the stairway to the main hallway of her daughter's residence. When about half a dozen steps from the bottom she fell, striking the floor with such force as to dislocate one of her hips. Medical and surgical attendance was promptly summoned and the deceased received the most tender care, but her advanced age and the shock were too great odds to overcome.

Mrs. Millward was born in Staffordshire, England, and came to this country in 1870, locating in Ellengowan. She remained a resident of that place until she took up a residence with a daughter in town a few months ago. The deceased was the widow of the late Charles Millward and is survived by two sons and two daughters, Henry and Charles Millward, of Mahanoy City, Mrs. Elias Frost, of Ellengowan, and Mrs. R. F. Roberts, of South White street. The funeral will take place from the latter's residence on Thursday, at 10 a. m.

A Disagreeable Roast.

A woman residing on West Coal street allowed the fire in her kitchen stove to burn out on Sunday night and left the oven door open. On Monday morning, without taking the precaution to glance into the oven, she closed the door and did not open it again until about to prepare dinner. As she opened the door to slide a piece of cheese into the oven she was almost staggered by the stench from the roasted carcass of her pet cat.

Ready for Business.

Martin J. Lawlor, Justice of the Peace, has thrown out his shingle before a coosily furnished office on East Centre street, near the Lehigh Valley depot. Mr. Lawlor is engaging in the real estate and general insurance business and will give all commissions prompt and careful attention.

A Haul in Boots.

Alexander Lavenberg, of Wm. Penn, was sent down to the county jail by Justice Green yesterday to stand trial on a charge of robbery. Lavenberg got into the cellar of the Wm. Penn Supply Company's store and stole a case containing thirteen pairs of gum boots. He was arrested by Constable Joe Peters.

Arrested at Mt. Carmel.

Albert Abraham, a Jewish peddler, giving Shenandoah as his home, was arrested at Mt. Carmel for selling goods at Hickory Ridge without a license, and sent to jail in default of $100 bail. The Merchants' Protective Association is the prosecutor.

Manager Ash Married.

Edward W. Ash, manager of the Schuylkill Traction Company, and Miss Annetta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buckwalter, of Roanoke, Pa., were married at the latter place, and cards are out announcing that Mr. and Mrs. Ash will be at home, in Ashland, after December 3rd.

The Revival Meetings.

The second of the series of revival meetings in the Methodist Episcopal church was conducted last evening by Rev. Kane, of Girardville. The meeting to-night will be conducted by Rev. Cassavant, of Mahanoy Plane.

Squeezed Between Cars.

Anthony Sweptalawicz, a resident of this town, was dangerously injured at the St. Nicholas colliery breaker this morning. He slipped and fell between two box cars, the bumpers squeezing him badly about the hips. He was removed to his home in an ambulance.

Fingers Mashed.

John Cale, a young man residing on West Coal street, had two fingers mashed this morning at the West Shenandoah colliery. They were caught by the bumpers of cars while he was engaged in making a coupling. Dr. Hamilton dressed the members.

THE FAIR.

The Enterprise of All Saints' P. E. Church Opens Successfully.

The fair and series of entertainments under the auspices of All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church opened very successfully in Robbins' opera house last night, and the prospects for the church to net a good sum before the close of the season are very bright. The hall is elaborately decorated and several very neat and artistic booths are scattered about the floor for the sale of wares to such patrons who may be in search of novelties. The entertainments arranged in connection with the fair are of a superior order and are alone worth more than double the admission fee asked for both. They are given under the direction of William A. Davis. The program last night was as follows: Piano duet, Misses Helen Schmidt and Florence Harsley; piano solo, Miss Mame Welsh; violin solo, Miss Beatrice Haskins; music by the orchestra; song, Miss Mable Packer, of Delano; recitation, Miss Dottie Zerby, of Lost Creek; violin solo, Miss Eva Brewer; "Old Folks at Home," by six violinists, Miss Zerby soloist; trio, violin, cello and piano, Thomas A. Timmins and Mr. and Mrs. Bridgman; music by the orchestra. In connection with the above was introduced the famous Mrs. Jarley's wax-works. It was a very interesting and amusing feature. Mr. Harry Boughey portrayed the character of Mrs. Jarley in a very clever manner. "A Precious Pickle," a very amusing little comedy, solos by a celebrated violinist from Mauch Chunk and orchestral music, will be the program for this evening. A colonial tea is also held each evening.

TRAINS IN COLLISION.

Fortunately No One Was Injured by the Mishap.

IT WAS A REAR END AFFAIR.

Mahanoy Plane People Thrown Into a State of Excitement—An Engine and Several Cars Wrecked.

There was a railway collision on the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad at Mahanoy Plane yesterday that resulted in considerable loss to the company, and a number of people who were upon the scene had very narrow escapes from serious injury or death.

The cause of the accident has not been learned, but it apparently was due to carelessness on the part of some member of the two crews of the trains that collided.

Engine No. 580 was standing near the depot with a train of freight cars when another freight train approached and crashed into the rear end with great force. The collision caused considerable excitement for a length of time, and a report gained circulation that several men of the crews had been thrown beneath the cars by the shocks. Fortunately this report was wholly without foundation, as no one was injured. The engine and a number of cars of the train that was rammed were pretty badly damaged and it took some time to get the track clear.

Fresh oysters opened every day at the White House. Oysters in all styles prepared at short notice. 11-20-14

HARTMAN REMAINS STEWARD.

Poor Directors Day and Dietrich Agree on Appointments.

It is authoritatively stated that Directors of the Poor Jacob Day and Neri Dietrich have agreed upon the appointments of employees for the almshouse at Schuylkill Haven to take effect January 1st. These appointments are announced at present: Steward, Wellington Hartman, the present incumbent; Matron, Mrs. W. Hartman, wife of the Steward; Clerk, George P. Walker, ex-Deputy Controller; Solicitor, W. J. Whitehouse, Esq. It is believed Dr. George Moore, of Heckscher, will be the almshouse physician.

The Rank King.

One can hardly expect a dollar's worth of entertainment for 10 cents, but no matter what the price of admission may be the public has a right to expect a theatrical company to live up to at least a majority of the promises made through its advertisements. In this the Joseph D. Clifton company, which appeared at Ferguson's theatre last night, was entirely in default. "The Rank King" was the play announced. The title is a misnomer. "The Rank King" is more appropriate. The "King" was a very indifferent character and his company is no better. "Nero," advertised as the wonderful acting horse with almost human intelligence, displayed that intelligence by failing to appear. Two baritone solos by the manager of the company in the last act were good. To night the company will close its engagement with a production of "Myrtle Ferns."

Judge Pershing's Warning.

When George Thompson, an applicant for the transfer of the license of Michael Cleary, of West Mahanoy township, was put on the stand at the Pottsville court yesterday, Judge Pershing asked him if he owned a nickel-in-the-slot machine, a pool table, or any other gambling device, and also if it was his intention to maintain one in his saloon, if he secured the license. Mr. Thompson replied in the negative to all these questions, and then Judge Pershing said that he gave warning that he would not vote for a license for any applicant who kept a nickel-in-the-slot machine, a pool table, or any other gambling device.

P. O. S. OF A REUNION.

The Camps of the Order Will Meet in Town This Evening.

Much interest is being taken by the members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America in the reunion of all the camps of this district, which will take place this evening in the camp room of Camp 112, in Egan's new hall. The expectations are that a large gathering of the members will be present, and extra seating capacity has, therefore, been provided for. Although the reunion is confined to the camps of this district, members of other camps are cordially invited to attend.

The program to be rendered is one of much interest to the members, inasmuch as several of the questions to be discussed are of vital importance to the organization and the individual members. These addresses will be interspersed by vocal and instrumental music of a high order, and the recitations will also be of a pleasing character. The evening's exercises will close with a general debate participated in by members from the different camps. These reunions have proved very successful in the past, and the one this evening bids fair to surpass all previous gatherings.
