Evening Herald

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1894.

The Democrats want to hitch up with the Populists to control the new Senate—the muley cow and the jackass driven tandem.

Now, if Gresham and Carlisle would only run for office, so that they could be buried, the happiness of the country would be complete.

The approaching Senatorial elections in various state Legislatures are of unusual importance. During the struggle over the German bill the honorable reputation of the United States Senate was compromised by the James auction methods and by the sale of tariff law to the Sugar Trust. The reputation of that dignified and conservative body was lowered by a course of legislative intrigue that was scandalous and unprincipled. The state Legislatures have a public duty to perform in critically examining the claims of candidates for election to the United States Senate.

The capture of Port Arthur by the Japanese forces is again reported, and certainly not prematurely this time. The storming of this stronghold will probably bring the war to an end. If not a final, it is a complete demonstration of the superiority of the Japanese arms in every branch of warfare. The Chinese troops have been outgeneralized and beaten in the open field in several battles. The Chinese fleet has been outmaneuvered and outfought in a general engagement, and driven into harbors where it is powerless for coast defence. Finally has followed the successful investment, bombardment and capture of the strongest naval arsenal in Northern China, defended by a formidable garrison and protected by Kiang guns, submarine mines and torpedo stations. So brilliant an achievement ought to satisfy Japanese ambition, and to predispose the government to grant peace to China on honorable terms, with ample financial indemnities and guarantees of Korean independence, but without territorial conquests. This Eastern war is one of the anapne events of the century, with a far reaching trend of consequences and tendencies stretching far into the future. It establishes Japan in relations of unchallenged supremacy in the Yellow Sea, and opens for it as a maritime and industrial power a progressive career rich in promise and fraught with influence.

It is a queer freak of financial opinion that treats borrowing of money as a reason for enthusiasm and rejoicing. Increase of the public debt is not properly evidence of prosperity. For about thirty years the nation has joyfully hailed every reduction of the national debt as another step toward financial emancipation, and for a long time it was considered a convincing proof of the capacity of those intrusted with the government that they steadily cut down the interest bearing indebtedness and the burdens of the people. A different era came with the return of the Democratic party to power. In its first year of unrestricted control it added $50,- 000,000 to the debt and $2,500,000 to the people's yearly burden, and in its second year it has already added like sums, with the possibility that the operation may yet have to be repeated, unless bids for more than $50,000,000 of the bonds are now accepted. At the least the change has already added $100,000,000 to the public debt, which the people had proudly made sacrifices for many years, to reduce, and $5,000,000 to the annual interest charge.
The country has come to this, that it is considered a matter for congratulation and enthusiastic hopefulness that the United States has been able to borrow so much money. The worst of it is that the rejoicing is not entirely foolish. There was reason to doubt, in view of the present character of the government, whether confidence in it had not been shaken. It is an open question whether the money offered to the government would have been offered on any acceptable terms if the latest elections had not restored to the law-making power the party which had for a generation faithfully defended the nation's credit.

SINGULAR SUIT FOR SUPPORT

A Titled Frenchman Demands That His Mother-in-Law Provide for Him.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Four years ago Miss Florence Audenriod, a beautiful heiress of this city, was married to Count Ducanque of France. The mother-in-law, Mrs. Audenried, has an income of $55,000 a year, while her titled son-in-law has only debts. The count has always labored under the impression that a good share of the mother-in-law's income belonged to him.
The efforts of the count and countess to compel Mrs. Audenried to support them have kept society amused.

Mrs. Audenried has been very generous in her treatment of the young couple, but the count is dissatisfied, and demands the settlement of a large sum on him for life.
He claims that Mrs. Audenried bought him for her daughter by agreeing to support him, and has engaged ex-Judge J. M.
Wilson and ex-Judge Shellbarger to bring suit to compel her to do so.

Mrs. Audenried has said to the count that she will give him $3,000 a year if he and his wife will leave the country and live in France under promise of never putting foot on American soil during her lifetime. If he refuses, his mother-in-law declares she will not give him one cent.
The offer is awaiting the count. He owns thousands upon thousands of francs in France, and if he took up his abode there his income would be swallowed up by creditors. He says he might manage by living in a style far beneath his rank and dignity, to exist on $5,000 a year in America.

Suit Against Senator Squire.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Before Judge Williams, in supreme court special term here, was begun the suit of Floyd C. Shepherd vs. Senator Squire, of Washington, for an accounting of property valued at $1,500,000, situated near Seattle, Washington. The plaintiffs are William C. King, of Minneapolis; Philo Osgood and John N. Goodwin, of Utica, N. Y. About twenty-five years ago Colonel B. King, Philo Remington, Osgood and Goodwin purchased the property, and in 1873 it was turned over in trust to Mr. Remington.
Subsequently Mr. Remington died, and Senator Squire, as his administrator, was intrusted with the care of the property. It is charged that he has never made an accounting.

Train Robbers Still Undiscovered.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 27.—Indian Agent Wisdom and ex-Indian Agent Bennett, both of Muskogee, came down on Sunday night's train from the bandit haunted parts of the territory. At Wagoner they were notified that the freight just ahead of them had been fired into at Bragg station. Seven mounted men armed to the teeth undertook to halt the train in broad daylight, but the engineer and fireman pulled the throttle wide open, lay down in the cab and ran ahead at full speed. A volley of bullets were fired at the cab, and as the caboose went by that was also fired into and riddled.

No Mileage for Absentees.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Over twenty-five members of congress, it is said, have written letters to the sergeant-at-arms of the house, asking that their mileage for this session be forwarded to them, as they do not wish to come to Washington this winter. Replies have been sent that no mileage can be paid to members except to those who actually attend the session of congress. In nearly every instance the request has been preferred by a defeated member, and it indicates a small attendant of that class at the short session this winter.

Bloody Riot in Rio Janeiro.

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 27.—Another riot occurred here yesterday. Several persons were killed. There has been great excitement since it became known that the rebels have decided to reject the government's offer of peace. The insurgents are increasing their forces in the Rio Janeiro and Rio Grande do Sul and Pernambuco.
There is a conspiracy here, it is reported, to destroy the city. Ex-President Peixoto, it is reported, will take the field at Presdent Maunder's request.

Big Steel Mill Resumes.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Nov. 27.—The largest steel mill of the Bethlehem Iron company resumed yesterday, after an enforced illness of one month, giving employment to over 1,000 hands. The employees of the Lehigh Zinc and Iron works, to the number of 400, have been notified of a reduction of 10 per cent. in wages after Dec. 1. Every employee receiving more than $1 per day is affected.

Fraudulent Bankers Convicted.

NEW BLOOMFIELD, Pa., Nov. 26.—The jury who had before them the case of W.
A. Sponsler and B. F. Junkin, owners of the Perry County bank, came into court with the verdict of guilty in manner and form as indicted. The usual motion for a new trial was made and they were allowed twenty days in which to file reasons.

New York's New Recorder.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—John W. Goff took the oath of office as recorder yesterday before Judge Barrett, in the supreme court.
Mr. Goff went to Albany last evening to argue the Gardner case before the court of appeals. Gardner was a Parkhurst agent who was convicted of extortion.

A Woman Candidate for Congress.

TOWANDA, Pa., Nov. 27.—Mrs. Sarah Ulrich Kelly, of Honesdale, announces her candidacy for the unexpired term of the late Myron B. Wright, member of congress from the Fifteenth district.

Police Stop a Football Game.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—The police stopped the football game between the teams of the Englewood and Hyde Park high schools, because the youngsters were slugging so viciously.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

The state grand commandery of Knight Templars of Maryland met in Baltimore today.

The examination of William Lake, the murderer of Emma Hunt, began today at Albion, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary Samuels, 75 years old, was burned to death in Baltimore last night.
She used oil to start a fire.

In a saloon row in Mulberry street, New York, Rosario Marcellino stabbed his brother Genaro, killing him.

Virginia's board of state canvassers issued election certificates as congressmen to nine Democrats and one Republican.

Francis Kosuth, son of the Hungarian patriot, yesterday took the oath of allegiance to Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria.

E. E. Hathaway and William Gries, Standard Oil company officials, are under arrest at Waco, Tex., on indictments for violation of anti-trust laws.

THE BANK LOOTERS.

Seely, the Fugitive Bookkeeper, Not Yet Located.

BAKER'S SHARE IN THE BIG STEAL.

Evidence Accumulating That the Dead Man Had Contemplated Suicide for Some Time, Believed to Have Robbed Estates of Which He Was Executor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The doors of the National Shoe and Leather bank were opened yesterday just as unconcernedly as though the institution had not been recently plundered of $354,000 by one of its trusted bookkeepers. "We are prepared for any emergency," said one of the bank directors. "We stand prepared to pay out every dollar of our indebtedness just as soon as it is called for." There was no run on the bank, although the officials were prepared for one. There was $80,000 paid out, an average of $50,000, while the receipts were largely in excess of that amount.

Despite the assertions of Frederick Baker's sons to the effect that their father was not the man implicated with Seely in the looting of the bank, and that he did not even have an account there, Paying Teller Gilbert Sayres, of the bank, the man who for eight years past has cashed checks for Baker personally at least three times a week, averaging about $500 each, has positively identified the boy.

If Seely is alive the bank officials will do all they can to bring him back, as his evidence is absolutely necessary in order to recover the losses from Baker's estate.
If the fugitive bookkeeper can be communicated with, it is thought, the bank officials will offer him inducements to return, which in effect will be a practical guarantee of immunity from prosecution.

The box of the late Frederick R. Baker in the vaults of the First National bank was opened yesterday afternoon in the presence of the vice president of the Park National bank and their attorney, Director Beach and the Shoe and Leather bank's attorney, and Frederick R. Baker, son of the late Mr. Baker, and his attorney. Sundry papers of no value, memoranda of possible value and an amount of currency less than $500, were found in the box. There were also several life insurance policies owned by the Equitable Life Insurance company.
In the box there was also a will executed by the deceased Mr. Baker in 1871.

The bank officials are going to pay considerable attention to the late Mr. Baker's life insurance policies. They say they are convinced that the Baker family will be made to see the justice of the bank's claim against his property, and they look for restitution as ample as the Bakers can make.

From certain facts adduced today there can be little doubt that Baker had planned to commit suicide some time ago. No later than Oct. 4 last Mr. Baker had taken out two insurance policies of $10,000 each with the Equitable Life Insurance company. It was found that these policies were incontestable, and that the premium of $100 each being paid to make them so.
The two policies were made payable to Baker's wife, and the officials of the insurance company have made practical admission that they are not rendered invalid because of Baker's suicide. It is also known that Baker tried to take out a policy for $10,000 with a Connecticut life insurance company, but declined to do so because the company would not strike out the suicide clause in its policy. It is thought Baker had at least $20,000 worth of incontestable insurance on his life, all of which was made in favor of his wife.

Attempts to trace the disposition of Baker made of the money of which he robbed the bank, and the friends and relatives of her late husband, with a view to bringing to light facts that indicate that he far back as fifteen years ago he began his speculations, and that his dealings will amount in the aggregate to an enormous sum, far above the amount taken from the bank.

Baker, who had a good reputation for honesty and business shrewdness, succeeded in getting control, during the latter years of his life, of a number of good estates. He was either executor or the trustee of funds for the heirs. Those persons who trusted him are now alleging that he appropriated large sums of money belonging to them to his own use. Just how far he did so only his own books, that are now locked up in his safe in charge of his son Frederick will show.

If those charges prove true they show Baker to have been not only one of the most remarkable defrauders of the age, but also explain to a large extent why it became necessary for him to enter into a scheme with Seely to rob the bank. Being unfortunate in his speculations, in most part, Baker, his accusers say, resorted to the bank thefts to get money to pay these accruing amounts. In this way he kept those for whom he was trustee absolutely in the dark as to the state of their property.

Another Thieving Bank Clerk.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The National Bank of the Republic has been victimized by one of its employees to the extent of $17,700. The discovery was made in August last, but was not made public until yesterday. Vice President E. H. Pullen said:
"Yes, the statement is true, and though the evidence was not such as to warrant criminal action the clerk was discharged." The name of the defaulter was David E.
Morgan, who was the discount clerk in the bank. The amount of his theft was made good by relatives.

Another French Duel Arranged.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—During the sitting of the chamber yesterday M. Poincarre, minister of finance, alluded to an insulting article that had been written by M. Gustave Bonamet, a Socialist member. M.
Bonamet took umbrage and indulged in a violently abusive tirade against the minister. After the session M. Poincarre sent his seconds to M. Bonamet to arrange for a duel.

Detroit Schools All Closed.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—The public schools and two parochial schools closed last week on account of the spread of diptheria. In view of the fact that they would be but three days of school this week, owing to the Thanksgiving holiday, it was decided to have all the schools remain closed for the week and to fumigate the buildings and contents as an extra precaution.

Fitzsimmons Willing to Fight Maher.

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Peter Maher's challenge to Bob Fitzsimmons has received a prompt answer from the Australian. He said today he will take on Maher, and fight all of the purse money if he does not defeat him in six rounds.

WILL NOT DISTURB KOLB.

The Populist May Call Himself Governor Without State Interference.

MONTEGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 27.—In view of the sensational utterances given to the press by the Populist congressmen-elect, Howard, of this state, and some correspondents as to what Kolb and his 30,000 followers would do here next Saturday The Advertiser asked Governor Jones to state his views as to the prospect of any disorder that day. In response Governor Jones said:
"There will not be the slightest disturbance on inauguration day, for two very good reasons. First, there is no cause for challenging the result of the election as declared by the official court. Many of the most intelligent Populist and Republican leaders admit that Colonel Oates selected.
"Second, it is known that the authorities are thoroughly prepared to stamp out any disorder. We are not in Mexico, where any petty chief can issue a proclamation and rally any respectable number of people to his standard of revolt. Armed bands, even if they could be gathered together, would not be permitted to come to the capitol. Hundreds of Populists would respond to the call of the civil authorities."
"Possibly the defeated candidates may take the oath of office somewhere before a justice of the peace on inauguration day, and even go the extent of issuing a proclamation as governor, but this would be as harmless and have as little effect as the doings of patients in insane hospitals.
Merely pretending to be governor is a very harmless offense, and does not amount to treason under our laws. As long as the defeated candidate avoids violation of the law he will be left alone in his glory."

Italy's Threat to Brazil.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Nothing is known officially here of the reported trouble between Italy and Brazil, which is said to have reached a phase so acute that it is stated that Italy has threatened to send a fleet of war vessels to Brazil to enforce her demands. But it is known from unofficial sources that the two governments have been at odds for nearly a year owing to a demand made by the Italian government for indemnity for the maltreatment of a number of Italian subjects and the destruction of their property in the course of riots in Rio de Janeiro.
No bonus, interest or any individual or firm in the course of accountability, and the question at issue is one of amount in indemnity rather than of principle.

Dingman Still in Prison.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27.—Harrison Dingman, president of the Fidelity Building and Loan association, is still in the Central station, notwithstanding the fact that George H. Walker and Harry Standiford, well known business men of Washington, came to the city with an indemnity bond for $25,000 with the expectation of securing his release. It is the intention to allow Dingman to remain in prison until the hearing tomorrow, when another effort will be made to secure his release on bail. Mr. Walker says Dingman is merely the figure head president of the Fidelity association, which is officered in Washington by some of the best known business men there.

An Overdue Steamship Arrives.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.—The American line steamship Indiana, Captain Townsend, from Liverpool, arrived here this morning. Her arrival caused a feeling of relief, as she has been long overdue and the friends and relatives of her passengers and her crew of sixty men were very much concerned about her safety. This anxiety was aggravated by the arrival on Sunday of the steamship Clarion, with the report that the Indiana had been sighted. The three gales lately prevailing are responsible for the Indiana's delay.

Butler's Fight Against Tillman.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 27.—Senator M.
C. Butler, through his attorney, General Youmans, moved before the supreme court for an injunction restraining the comptroller general and state treasurer from paying any of the salaries of superintendents of registration on the ground that the registration law is unconstitutional and the appropriation of money for that purpose is illegal. The court reserved its decision.
The supposition is that Butler intends to contest Tillman's seat in the senate, to which he will undoubtedly be elected by the legislature which meets today.

Indignant Armenians in Boston.

BOSTON, Nov. 27.—An audience which crowded "The Cradle of Liberty" to the doors, made up mostly of Armenians, but with a large number of Americans, gathered at Faneuil hall last night to hold an indignation meeting over the recent atrocious treatment of Armenians by representatives of the Turkish government.
Among the speakers were many represents of Massachusetts citizens, as well as leading clergymen of Boston. The principal speakers were Governor Greenhalge, Hon. William Lloyd Garrison and Rev.
Francis E. Clark.

Was Killed by Moonshiners.

FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 27.—The mystery surrounding the death of Pullman Conductor Brown has been solved and his murderers are under arrest. Brown was mistaken for a United States marshal by two moonshiners on the train, who in attempting to get away ran into Brown and shot him. The officials refuse to give the names of the murderers. The men told their wives about the murder, and this clew led to the arrest.

The Case of Ex-Cashier Marvin.

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—The counts in the indictment against ex-cashier Frederick Marvin, which related to his alteration of notes given him jointly by Marvin and Fred C. Whitney, the theatrical manager, were quashed by Judge Swan, in the federal court. The court reserves for decision a half dozen counts relating to certain other of Marvin's transactions, but over twenty of the thirty three counts will go to the jury.

Wrestler Lewis Defeats Comstock.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 27.—The wrestling match here last night between Evan Lewis and J. C. Comstock was witnessed by about 2,000 people. It was for $500 a side, two points down. Lewis won the first fall in ten minutes and the second in eighteen. In the third bout Comstock used the strangle hold, and won in four minutes. Lewis won the fourth fall and match in less than two minutes.

Our Ministers as Arbitrators.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Times publishes a dispatch from Yokohama saying that it is officially stated that Japan will allow the American minister at Tokyo and Peking to submit the proposals for peace that China may make.

COTTOLENE.

Lardepsia

would be a more appropriate name for that common cause of suffering—dyspepsia—because most cases of dyspepsia can be traced to food cooked with lard. Let COTTOLENE take the place of lard in your kitchen and good health will take the place of Dyspepsia.
Try it. Every pail of the genuine COTTOLENE bears this trade mark —steer's head in cotton-plant wreath.
Made only by
The N. K. Fairbank Company, CHICAGO, and 132 N. Delaware Ave., Philada.
