The newly married couple then resumed their return journey back to the Anitchkoff palace, where the dowager szarina had already preceded them. Later the ezar and czarina, accompanied by Grand Duchess Olga, youngest sister of the car, appeared at a window of the pal-ace overlooking the Newski Prospect. Here they stood for fifteen minutes, bow-ing repeatedly in response to the acclama-tions of the multitude gathered outside of the palace. Grand Duchess Olga, with girlish enthusiasm, repeatedly kissed her hand to the crowd. The czarins, leaning on the arm of her husband, smiled ra-diantly on the throng. There were sev-eral demonstrations, though of shorter duration, during the next hour.
