HEART DISEASE

Fluttering, No Appetite, Could Not Sleep, Wind on Stomach.

"For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought that every minute would be my last. There was a feelling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and am happy to say it has cured me. I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. Its effect was truly

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. - Scoretary of State Gresham was shown the Associated Press cable from London, announcing the new turn affairs had taken in Nieuragus. The scretary said nothing had been re-ceived from Ambassador Bayard in London or Minister Haker in Nicaragua, and that the department had no information from clifler of these sources. Secretary Gresham said that the attempt to magnify every-thing in connection with the Bluefields incident was absurd, and he could not imagine who was responsible for many of the ridientous conclusions which had been drawn from trilling events.

It is understood from other sources that

It is understood from other sources that should these dispatches be officially confirmed our state department should feel very much gratified, for they indicate the settlement of the Bluefields question for all time, and the final abandonment of the British protectorate ever the Mosquito in diams. This desirable result, moreover, at the beautiful property on the state of the second tangent is strict our will have been accomplished in strict con-formity with the terms of the treaty of Managua between Great Britain and Nicaragua, and so the sufferment cannot be regarded as humillating to Great Britain, or as touching her honor in any vay.

If Mr. Barrios, the Nicaraguan agent in London, is correctly advised of the action of the Mosquito Indians all that remain for the British to do is to satisfy them selves that the act of incorporation was voluntarily on the part of the Indians, and that the assembly which adopted the reso-lutions was thoroughly representative in is character. In such case the Britisl protectorate would lapse by the terms of the treaty, the Mosquito reservation would no longer be known as an autonomous territory, and Nicaragua properly exercise full sovereignty over all lands within her boundaries.

It is true that owing to the mixture with other peoples the original Mosquite have become so handed and crossed that it may be very difficult to establish the fact that be very difficult to establish the fact that the majority have really consented to in-comporation with Nicaragua, and it is pos-sible that over such a dead as this the British minister at Managua has been act-
