

OUR STREETS.

The Thoroughfares of the Town Could be Greatly Improved.

The streets of New York is the name of a once popular play that delighted many thousands of theatre-goers, and no doubt is yet on the stage.

The streets of Shenandoah is a play rehearsed daily by strangers coming to town. It is no unusual thing to hear them remark about the miserable condition of the streets, and draw comparisons between this, the largest town in the county, and much smaller ones.

Shenandoah has long outgrown its baby clothes, and for the money spent on the streets they ought to be paved in silver. It is to be hoped, for the credit of the town, that the entire length of Main street will be paved by next summer.

Filthy streets are great breeders of disease, and it is a wonder that the town is not visited more frequently by an epidemic. East Coal street at present is in a miserable condition and should receive the attention of the Supervisor. The residents of that thoroughfare have time and again complained, but there seems to be no redress.

There are other streets and alleys in the town that need attention from the authorities, and they should be attended to before the cold weather is upon us. In some localities the authorities could be prosecuted for maintaining a nuisance, because the condition of the streets are both dangerous to the health of the residents and the lives of pedestrians. All the streets and alleys need overhauling, and the sooner the better. The old cart mounds of hauling dirt on them to make mud, and then cart it away, is a useless expenditure.

W. A. McGuire, a well-known citizen of McKay, Ohio, is of the opinion that there is nothing so good for children troubled with colds or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he is himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

SECRETARY SMITH'S REPORT.

He Urges That the Indians be Permitted to Keep Their Lands.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The annual report of Secretary Hoke Smith of the Interior department, deals largely with Indian affairs and he presents some practical suggestions for the development and civilization of the race.

The secretary discusses the subject of education and allotments of land in severity, and urges that the education of the Indians should be for the purpose of fitting them to perform the particular responsibilities most likely to fall to their lot. He presents the possibilities of the reservations as land to be improved and developed, to which the Indians should be taught to apply those modes of agriculture recognized in civil life. Their education should fit them for this work, and they should be led on with the assurance that the government in dealing with this land will treat the Indians with perfect honesty, and make no further effort to trade them out of it for the benefit of those who wish to settle upon it. Let Indians keep their lands.

The report shows that the entire number of pensioners on the rolls June 30, 1894, was 323,441. The estimate for the fiscal year 1895 is $143,000,000. The number of pensioners added to the roll during the year was 39,055; number dropped, 32,101.

The greater part of the cases now pending in the bureau are old cases. Many of them have been pending for years and had been examined one or more times prior to the present administration. Upon examination it has been found in many instances that proof was not sufficient to sustain a pension. The attention of the applicants having been called to the defect, in some cases efforts had been made to supply the needed testimony.

One of Farmer Kahn's Murderers Hanged.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Nov. 25.—George Control, of East Carondelet, was hanged in the jail yard here today for the murder of Fred Kahn, a respectable farmer of East Carondelet, on the night of Aug. 7, 1891. Kahn was murdered on the highway by his wife, Anna Kahn, and George Control, a farmer and her paramour. Control first severed Kahn's throat with a revolver. Kahn started to run across a field, but was overtaken by Mrs. Kahn, who fired more bullets into him. Being still alive the murderers crushed in his skull with a hammer. The guilty pair confessed. Mrs. Kahn is still in jail, and will stand trial, having pleaded not guilty.

Shot While Testifying in Court.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky., Nov. 25.—While United States Commissioner Rogers was trying a case against Lee Shepard of Elliot county, charged with illegally selling whisky, Charles Watkins shot and probably fatally wounded Green Atkins. Watkins became enraged at some testimony Atkins had given, and drawing his pistol fired five shots at him, one of them striking him in the abdomen. The court adjourned immediately without ceremony, while United States Marshal Punch arrested Watkins and lodged him in jail.

An Affecting Scene in Court.

OLATHE, Kan., Nov. 25.—A. W. Little, who has been on trial for his life in the district court of this county since the 12th of this month for the killing of Lawyer B. E. Johnson in Kansas City, Kan., July 19, 1888, was found not guilty by the jury. Judge Berry at once said: "Mr. Little, you are discharged." The defendant was awaiting the verdict surrounded by his wife and three children, with his brother, Judge Little, of Kentucky, near by. Mr. Little threw his arms about her husband, and with her children cried for joy.

Too Hot for the Station Agent.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 25.—Word reaches here from Fort Smith to the effect that Illinois station, on the Coffeyville branch of the Missouri Pacific railway, in the Indian Territory, was looted by the Cook gang Wednesday night and everything movable carried off. They robbed the station agent, who at once telegraphed his resignation to headquarters and left on the next train for St. Louis. He took charge of the office two days ago, but said times were too warm in the territory for him.

Big Pottery Destroyed by Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—The extensive pottery of the Galloway Terra Cotta company, owned and operated by William Galloway, at 3214-28 Walnut street, was totally destroyed by fire last night. The building was of brick, six stories in height, and was valued at $75,000. It contained a stock worth $25,000, none of which was saved. The origin of the fire is not known, as there was not enough fire in any of the kilns to have started it.

College Closed by Students' Threats.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 25.—The Frankforter Zeitung says it learns that the Belgrade (Serbia) university has been closed owing to disorders among the students. Es-Minister Georgevich is now professor of jurisprudence at the university, and he is very unpopular. The professor feared that the students would put threats of shooting him into execution, and fled to save his life. The closing of the university followed.

No Fear of Trouble in Alabama.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Secretary Herbert has returned from Alabama. He says that there will be no trouble in Alabama as a result of the manifesto of Reuben Kolb, who asserts that he intends to be inaugurated as governor. There will not be a gun fired. Kolb may have himself inaugurated at some point near Montgomery, but he will not even attend a large crowd to see him through the theatrics.

There May be a Triple Execution.

HAWKINSVILLE, Ga., Nov. 25.—Wash Strong, colored, who killed another negro, and Frank Crawshaw, also colored, who shot his white employer, were yesterday sentenced to hang from the same scaffold on Jan. 11. Will Clements, who murdered his mistress, is also to be tried at the present term of court, and in case of his conviction, which is almost certain, there will be a triple execution.

Was on the "Blind Tigers."

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 25.—A sensation was caused here by the transfer of Chief State Constable Holley to the western section of the state, and his substitution by Chief Constable Fant, a more aggressive officer. The purpose is to make more vigorous war on the "blind tigers."

The Weather.

For eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, increasing cloudiness showers tonight; warmer; southeast winds. Increasing cloudiness, with rain or snow and rising temperature, is indicated for New England and eastern New York.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Thanksgiving Day Tragedy in a Hotel at Watkins Depot, N. Y.

WATKINS DEPOT, N. Y., Nov. 25.—Yesterday morning about 6:30 o'clock Miss Jennie Caldwell, an employe of the Hotel Kendall, went to the room occupied by Miss Kate Quirk, another employe, to call her. She did not receive any answer.

After Mrs. Kendall, the landlady, had been called, Miss Caldwell pushed the key from the keyhole inside, and unlocked the door with the key to her room. It was found that a murder and possible suicide had been committed. In the front side of the bed lay the dead body of Kate Quirk. A large carving knife, such as is used in restaurants, was on the bureau which stood at the foot of the bed. This knife had been stuck into the girl's throat in front and then turned and withdrawn. She was lying on her left side facing the wall, and was undressed and covered up partially with the bed clothes.

On the other side of the bed lay Charles N. Richards, of this village, a restaurant keeper, and former landlord of the Jefferson House. He lay in a pool of blood, as his throat was cut in a very ragged manner. He was unconscious from the loss of blood, but was breathing. The girl had evidently been dead some hours, as her body was cold. There was a large pool of blood on the floor, and it looked as if Richards had held the girl on the floor and cut her throat. There is a mark on her neck as if she was choked to prevent her making an outcry. The only blood on the bed is the pool in which Richards was found lying.

Richards was removed to an adjoining room, and Drs. Barnes and Scull dressed his wounds. He was found to be under the influence of morphia. He died at 10:40 o'clock without regaining consciousness. The intimacy between Richards and Miss Quirk had been a matter of town talk ever since he came to this village.

Another Thanksgiving Day Murder.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—Owen McDermott, an iron molder, aged 44, was fatally stabbed in a Bowery saloon yesterday. James and Richard Burns tried to rob him, when they knocked James down. As McDermott and James Burns were struggling on the floor Richard Burns plunged a knife into McDermott's left side. The wounded man was then thrown out of the saloon. The Burns brothers were arrested, and McDermott identified Richard as the one who stabbed him.

The New York Bank Thief Believed to be in Canada.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The search for Samuel C. Seeley, the fugitive bookkeeper of the Shoe and Leather bank, was continued today. Lawyer Frank Angel, to whom Seeley first confessed his crime, has made a practical admission that his client is in Canada, and with some show of satisfaction added that, according to the revised statutes of the United States, cannot be extradited from that country. It was said that he had received a letter from Seeley postmarked Canada, but the lawyer declined to confirm or deny the truth of the rumor. It has been arranged to have Seeley indicted by the state courts, so that he may be apprehended on a warrant wherever found.

Frederick R. Baker, his counsel, Herbert L. Ogden, and Lawyer J. L. Bishop, representing the Shoe and Leather bank, met at the Baker office yesterday afternoon. It was said that a further examination of Frederick Baker's effects had been made, but Lawyer Ogden said that nothing connecting Baker with the Shoe and Leather bank had been found. Lawyer Bishop and Mr. Baker refused to be interviewed. It is expected that some light will be thrown on the whole affair this afternoon, when Baker's second box, also in the Park National bank, will be opened. The widow of Seeley's alleged accomplice will be present.

The Bakers refuse to discuss the suits brought against them by the bank, but say that when the proper time comes they will make proper reply through counsel. The bank has asked that a receiver be appointed, and when such of the complaints is filed a lien pendens against each piece of property left by Baker.

Life Saving Statistics.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The report of the general superintendent of the life saving station shows that the number of disasters to documented vessels within the field of the operations of the service during the year was 389. There were on board these vessels 1,465 persons, of whom 3,963 were saved and 61 lost. The number of shipwrecked persons who received succor at the stations was 625, to whom 1,591 days' relief, in the aggregate, was afforded. The estimated value of the vessels involved in the disasters was $9,918,688, and that of their cargoes $2,976,975, making a total value of property imperiled $12,895,663. Of this amount $7,688,170 was saved and $2,922,480 lost. The number of vessels totally lost was 91. In addition there were during the year 211 casualties to small craft, such as sailboats, rowboats, etc., on which there were 467 persons, 490 of whom were saved and 7 lost.

Kolb Leaves for Alabama's Capital.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 25.—Captain Reuben F. Kolb left for Montgomery yesterday, where he expects to take oath of office as governor tomorrow. Kolb still persists that he and his followers will do nothing unlawful, but just what the outcome will be remains to be seen. It is understood that his followers, who will go to Montgomery, will be armed and prepared for trouble. The military will have guns loaded, but every effort will be made to avert a conflict, and Kolb will not be arrested unless he or his followers undertake to seize the state house or to usurp authority.

Terribly Beaten by Masked Men.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 25.—Eight masked men rode up to the house of Jose Chavez Rimeros, near Los Tunas, and calling Rimeros out threw a larriat around his neck, dragged him to a bridge, stripped him of his clothing and whipped him unmercifully. They then hung him to a beam until he was nearly dead and rode off after warning him to leave Los Tunas. No reason for their action is known.
