

Book Notes That Recall Relations of the Past.

A recent issue of McClure's Magazine contains an article on "The overthrow of the Molly Maguires" which purports to set forth a number of thrilling events during the memorable reign of terror in this region and gives an account of the parts the detective James McFarland, alias McKenna, took in the war that resulted in the extermination of the terrible clique. The story is very interesting, but men of this town who were on hand when the terrible clique was in existence say it contains many inaccuracies. There have been many publications based upon the Molly Maguire times, but the writer has yet to meet with one that can give as accurate and reliable account of the many atrocities as that given by the HERALD issues of the time, and when these issues are compared with the many publications one here is forced to lose confidence in the book reports of occurrences in distant lands.

Speaking of books reminds one that Dr. R. C. Flower, of Boston, Mass., has been arrested in Texas as a swindler. Dr. Flower is known to many people here through a book he issued a few years ago on "Youth, Health and Happiness." The charges against the doctor are that he, in conjunction with a man named Paschal B. Smith, sold to Nathaniel C. Foster, of Duluth, Minn., $100,000 worth of bonds of the Deming Land & Water Company, of North Mexico, for $67,000, asserting them to be first mortgage bonds. When Mr. Foster tried to realize on the paper, it is alleged, he found it was practically worthless. Those who may have read the book the doctor issued will no doubt hesitate to believe that he is guilty in the face of the many pleas of sage advice and consolation he has written a few years ago. A friend handed me one of the books yesterday and in turning over the leaves I came across this one of his "rules to govern life," namely: "Don't worry over what you can help, because, if you can help it you should help it, and then the trouble will not exist." But the most striking part of the book, in view of the present situation the doctor is in, is that containing an extract from a letter written by the doctor to a friend, in which he says: "Money has no value to me except for the pleasure it gives to others. According to the pleasure you get out of a dollar, is the dollar valuable; and a dollar which never makes a human being happy is a valueless, useless coin." Either the doctor's sentiments have experienced a sudden evaporation, or the man who bought his bonds is suffering under a delusion. Still a trial at court may have more weight than the doctor's book.

Mr. Ira P. Westmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required, and always with perfect success. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my outfit is not complete without a bottle of this Remedy at home or on a trip away from home. For sale by Grubler Bros."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

THREE SAILORS DROWNED. Their Slooping Run Down by a Steamer and Sunk. NEW LONDON, Dec. 6.—The British slooping sloop, from New York for Halifax, off Eastern Neck, came into and sunk the three masted schooner Clara C. Simpson Tuesday night. Three of the schooner's crew were drowned, and the survivors, the captain and two sailors, were brought here yesterday afternoon by the steamer, after which the steamer proceeded. Captain John C. Hoyt, of the slooping schooner, said the night was clear, and there was no steam for the collision. The dead are Mate Hans Houtvel, Cook William Williams and Steerman John Leonard. The Simpson was built in 1874. She was of 301 tons register, and was loaded with paving stones for New York.

Boy Keystone found. Be sure that the name LESSTO & BARR, Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack. Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Matford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and verified and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

THE HORRORS OF NAVASSA.

Brutal Treatment and Meager Wages for Men on That Island.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6.—A tale of suffering, disease and death on the Navassa Island was told last night by three colored men who arrived from Perth Amboy, N. J., and were immediately taken to the Maryland University hospital suffering from scurvy. They are Carlos Abrams, a native of Massachusetts, the only one of the three who had sufficient strength to relate his experience; a man named Hill, who is delirious through suffering, and John H. Dorian.

Abrams said that seventy of them shipped from Baltimore on Aug. 3 last. They were to receive thirty-three cents per day wages, and were charged fifty cents every day when sick. After the first two weeks on the island, he said, they were fed on salt meats, and in a short time the scurvy broke out among them. He said there were nearly 200 men on the island, and during his stay of two months and fourteen days he knew of nearly twenty deaths. Robert Johnson was the first one of the Baltimore party to die. The food and treatment was so bad, Abrams said, that the men refused to work and were jailed.

The sick were removed from the island in October, and on Nov. 8 sailed on the schooner Adah Thacker, Captain Augustus McDonald, which arrived at Perth Amboy on Tuesday. On Monday John Gray died on board and was buried off the Delaware Breakwater. Abrams said that only three men received their wages and the others were not admitted at Perth Amboy with only one-dollar each.

A Bogus Marriage in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 6.—C. W. Jacobs, under arrest here for his participation in a mock marriage, is not Pitcock, the St. Louis insurance swindler. Jacobs was unable to get a divorce from his legal wife in Kansas City, so wanted to marry Mrs. Bucke, of Chicago. He disappeared, leading his wife to believe that he had been killed. Mrs. Bucke refused to live with him until he had secured a divorce, so he got a copy of the Oklahoma Territory court papers and forged a judgment of divorce. Fearing discovery if he had a minister marry him he conceived the plan of a mock ceremony. The police have released Jacobs, Mrs. Bucke and Harvey, the bogus preacher.

Bill to Suppress Koli Passed.

MONTEGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 6.—The bill of Representative Knight to punish usurers of state officers was passed by a strict party vote. Representative Manning, the Democratic leader, said: "I warn the members on the other side that it is a long line that has no turn, and I warn them not to longer dash the regular flux of inroads added to injury in the face of a now outraged common people. We cannot provide punishment for usurers with consistency until we have a fair election law and an honest contest law by which we can determine who the usurers are." Koli's manifesto advising his followers not to pay their taxes hastened the passage of the Knight bill.

The Philadelphia Mint Controversy.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Dr. Townsend, superintendent of the mint, had an interview with the director of the mint, as the result of which the differences between him and the director in regard to the removal of certain employees of the mint in the coiners' department, and against which the latter protested, were satisfactorily adjusted. The coiners, Mr. Steel, protested against the removal of four men. Three of the four are to be reinstated, and the work performed by the fourth one is to be done hereafter by the assistant coiners.

The Appropriation Bills.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Two of the appropriation bills, the pension and the fortifications, have been completed by the sub-committees having them in charge. The pension bill carries $11,000,000 against $11,501,570 for the current year, and the fortifications $1,750,000, against $2,042,000 for the current year. The appropriations committee resolved from the treasury department estimates for the urgent deficiency bill aggregating $2,700,000, which includes the amount required to collect the income tax.

Commander Booth Criticized Ill.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Commander Ballington Booth, of the Salvation Army, is critically ill. The sick chamber is kept in total darkness and absolute quiet. All visitors are forbidden to see him. Telegrams, mails and all business matters are kept from him. Ten days and nights of pain and unrest have made their wasting work tell very noticeably on his delicate frame. Nothing positively encouraging can be said of his condition at present.

Senator Hill Out for Washington.

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 6.—Senator David B. Hill, after ten days in Florida, came into West Palm Beach Tuesday evening on his return journey to the north. He left for Washington at 7 o'clock this morning, and upon his arrival will enter at once into the business of the senate. The senator declined to talk politically, and intimated that he was reserving his opinions for a speech that he would make.

Destructive Fire at Cedarville, N. J.

BUDGETON, N. J., Dec. 6.—The village of Cedarville was visited by a destructive fire yesterday, and property valued at $40,000 was destroyed. The fire originated in Bateman's block, and quickly spread to Walter B. Jerral's large grocery, both of those buildings being a total loss. The postoffice was heated in the Bateman block, as well as several large stores.

India's Indian Invasions.

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 6.—Official anxiety was plainly manifest at the executive mansion today over the apparent inaction of the paper authorities to move in the matter of the Indian invasions from Colorado. The governor has decided to furnish arms and ammunition to the citizens, and if necessary for protection, as a last resort, the militia will be called out.

Evidence Encouraging Colonel Colt.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 6.—The Colt court of inquiry last night concluded the taking of testimony, and arguments began this morning. The evidence showed conclusively that Colonel Colt, who had been charged with drinking in a saloon at Washington C. H. on the day of the shooting and riot, had been mistaken for another officer.

Our New Minister to Chile.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The president has appointed E. H. Strobel, of New York, to our extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Ecuador, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Chile, vice James D. Porter, resigned.

Tramps Ricked a Slave Over.

NOLDSBORO, Pa., Dec. 6.—Four tramps tried to set fire to the railroad station building at Whitesburg, on the Plymouth railroad. They had taken possession of the building, and when the officers here by sight blocked the stove over, expecting the five would ignite the floor and that the officers would remain to fight the flames while the desperadoes escaped. One officer saved the building and the three others pursued the tramps, capturing three of them. They were lodged in jail here.

Anti-Tillmanite Elected for Judge.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 6.—The South Carolina general assembly elected O. W. Buchanan judge of the Third circuit, to succeed T. B. Fraser. Buchanan twice or three days ago was sworn in as attorney general, to which he had been elected by a popular vote. The vacancy will be filled next week by legislative election. Ex-Attorney General Joseph H. Beale was elected judge of the Eighth circuit. Beale was a candidate for governor in 1892, fighting Tillman on the stump all over the state.

An Election Contest.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 6.—D. B. Taylor, of Indiana county, arrived here last night and filed with Attorney General Hest a petition contesting the election of President Judge Harry White, of the Forthright judicial district, who was returned elected last month by 87 majority. The petition is signed by 184 electors, and alleges illegal voting, lavish use of money and various frauds, and claims the election of John H. Blatz, the Democratic candidate, by 349 majority.

To Relieve Overcrowded Institutions.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 6.—The state board of charities yesterday decided to take steps looking to the relief of the overcrowded state insane hospital. The board will recommend to the next legislature the appropriation of $500,000 for the erection of a hospital for chronic inmates; $200,000 for a hospital for epileptics, and $200,000 for an institution for the criminal insane. Steps will be taken to remedy the overcrowded condition of the penitentiaries and reformatories.
