

The Peddlers—Something Should be Done to Protect the Merchants.

Comparatively few people realize the proportion to which the peddling business has extended in this country. The peddlers have become so numerous that they are now finding in every class of goods...

There is another nuisance that is no less troublesome and no less injurious to the regular dealer and it is the installment man. At first glance the purchaser is dazzled and thinks he or she, as the case may be, has secured a rare bargain...

Another opportunity is offered the people of town to secure a new industry and if any of them wish to take advantage of it Postmaster Miller will cheerfully put them in communication with the party making the offer...

Mr. Ira P. Westmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years as occasion required...

ANOTHER INSURANCE SWINDLER

This Man Charged with Swindling to Secure the Money.

Tuesday, Dec. 7.—Among the Huchers mountains, at selection Army camp, about forty miles from here, officers arrested John W. Hillman, a man who has been wanted for several years. The man arrested, however, denies that he is Hillman. In 1885 Hillman and two companions, one of them resembling him very closely, went to the Buffalo mountains of Texas to hunt. Hillman and one companion returned, but the man who looks like the striking resemblance to him had appeared. Hillman carried an insurance on his life of $20,000, and while in the mountains conceived a scheme to get the insurance and kill his companion. He took the name of the man whom he had murdered, and said that Hillman had been accidentally shot dead and buried in the mountains.

Mrs. Hillman made claim to the life insurance companies in which her husband had been insured. The companies became suspicious the remains of the man whom Hillman had murdered were exhumed, and it was then discovered that they were not those of the insured man. Mrs. Hillman instituted legal proceedings in Topeka, Kan., to recover the insurance, and the case was carried from one court to another until she secured judgment for the principal interest and attorney's fees in the supreme court of the United States. According to the order of the court the judgment must be satisfied by the end of this year.

During all this time the insurance companies have kept detectives on the trail of Hillman. He was followed to Australia and other foreign countries, and a reward of $15,000 was offered for his apprehension, dead or alive.

FRANKS, Ky., Dec. 7.—Urgent telegrams from I. B. Herndon, of this place, show that he is the man arrested in Arizona for the Hillman crimes. Dr. D. D. Neely, a relation of his, left for Tombstone to identify Herndon and help him out of his trouble. His relatives here, from what they know of the case, do not believe him guilty.

Swindled the Farmers.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 7.—A fine looking man of about 30 years, styling himself Frank Johnson, having from Chicago, came to this city six or eight weeks ago and opened a commission house on Liberty street under the firm name of Kirkpatrick & Johnson. Today he is among the missing, and many creditors mourn. Johnson flooded western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and West Virginia with circulars offering farmers and agents commissions and salaries considerably better than other houses could afford for poultry and produce of all kinds. The house was once doing an immense business, but Johnson, on one pretext or another, succeeded in staying off creditors. Some of the commission men on the street estimate the swindle as high as $25,000.

Congressman-elect Campbell Dead.

New York, Dec. 7.—Congressman-elect Andrew J. Campbell, the Republican opponent of General Daniel E. Sickles, Tennessee candidate at the last election in the Fourth district, died yesterday afternoon of Bright's disease, after an illness of two days. He was a native of Newark, N. J., and 56 years old. It is probable the General's sickness will again be a candidate at the special election to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Campbell's death.

For rheumatism I have found nothing equal to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It relieves the pain as applied. J. W. Young, West Liberty, W. Va. The prompt relief it affords is alone worth many times the cost, 50 cents. Its continued use will effect a permanent cure. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Saving Fund!

SHARES FOR SALE.

The Safe Deposit Building and Saving Association of Reading, Pa., offers for sale a few hundred shares of stock. This is a good, reliable and prosperous association in which to take shares. Having ready sale for all money, the premium received is large, consequently the stock will mature much sooner than associations located in towns where there is no great demand for money, and building operations are very limited. The value of each share is $20 at maturity. Application fee, 25 cents each share. Monthly dues, one dollar per share. Five per cent. interest allowed on all payments made in advance for 6 months or longer. Members may withdraw one of all shares at any time by giving 30 days written notice, and are entitled to the full amount of dues paid, with 6 per cent. interest after one year. Thereby making it an 11 per cent. investment. All shareholders are entitled to loans from fund on real estate security. No shares will be forced out.

The fund is run on the same conservative principles as our local funds which have been tried for years and found safe. Any one wishing to invest in a Saving Fund will find it to their interest to call on the local agents and receive full particulars. Rev. H. A. Keyser, D. D., of Mahanoy City, is one of the directors.
