LORD DUNEAVEN INTERVIEWED.

The English Nobleman Declares His Wittingness to Enter the Contest Regardless of the America's Cup, but Must Bace Before the End of September.

LONDON, Dec. 12.-A representative of the Associated Press saw Lord Dunraven last night and showed him the cabled in-terview with Commodore Smith, of the New York Yacht club, Lord Dunraven

New York Yacht club. Lord Dunraven said:

"Commodors Smith is perfectly correct in what he says about the New York Yacht club being willing to advance the dates, and in view of his statement I regard that difficulty as quite settled. It could never have been a real difficulty, as, if I can build and fit out our gucht for trials here, then refit her for the Atlantic passage and again refit her for the cup races, surely the New York yacht people would not find difficulty in merely building and fitting out a defending yacht in time to race before October. This question of time alons has troubled me. I have the greatest objections to racing after the end of September. "Now that that trouble is over the only stumbling block seems to be the question of the receipt for the cup. This matter never cutored my mind when I decided to challenge, and Mr. Grant, secretary of the Royal Yacht squadron, wrote the challenge

Royal Yacht squadron, wrote the challenge in the same form as that sent in 1802, and posted it without a suspicion that it would not be accepted. If the New York Yacht club insists that this question of the re-ceipt shall be settled before the challenge is accepted, at least a month will tran-spire before a meeting of the Royal Yacht squadron can be held and time will thus be dallled away. Anyhow, the matter quite concerns the two clubs, and not me. I have sent Commodors Smith's remarks in regard to this matter to the Royal Yacht squadron, which will deal with them.

"I am only anxions that the New York Yacht club accept the challenge in order to enable me to commence the building of the new yacht, and that it let the receipt matter stand over for settlement between the two clubs."

Lord Dunraven concluded by saying "You can tell the people on the other side that all I want is to be allowed to race. If I win I do not care whether they give me

COMMODORE SMITH ALSO ANXIOUS.

His Committee May Make Concessions to Secure a Contest.

New York. Dec. 19.—Ex-Commodore

James D. Smith, chairman of the Amer-ica's cup committee, was shown the interview which a representative of the Asso-ciated Press had in London with Lord Dunraven Monday night. Mr. Smith read the Interview very carefully, and then said: "In the first place we did not hold Dunraven to the ten months' notice. We were willing, if possible, to advance the dates Lord Dunraven should have confidence enough in the committee to know that they would grant everything that would not jeopardize the club.

"In any event the receipt for the cup "In any event the receipt for the cup-would have to be signed whether won un-der the rules of the new deed of gift or ac-cording to Lord Dunraven's present chal-lenge, as legally it could not be delivered without a receipt. Besides, no club has the power to add to or take from any of the conditions of the deed of gift."

"Is the committee likely to reconsider its action?" asked the reporter.

"The actions of any committee is never east iron. But I do not think this committee is likely to change its decisions."

However, after a moment's thought, the ex-commodore added very emphatically: "This committee wants a race."
