SATURDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1894.

THERE has been no report yet from the committee which is drawing up a bill for the settlement of labor troubles by arbitration. If the committee really can devise such a bill the country will not begrudge them all seasonable time, even to the end of the century.

CHICAGO is about to reorganize its police force on a Civil Service basis. According to the proposed plan all the present members will be required to submit to examinations, and will be treated in all respects like new applicants for appointments, except that they will not have to undergo the physical examination required of beginners.

THE financial situation is perplexing and vexatious, but President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle need not despair. A little research will convince them that things are not in half as bad condition as they were under the Democratic administration of James Buchanan, when the government was compelled in some instances to pay as high as 12 per cent. interest on money for running expenses.

GEORGE WALLACE DELAMATER, who was the Republican candidate for Govenor of this Commonwealth four years ago and is now located in the state of Washington, is getting on his feet again, financially. He is practicing law in Scattle and for a case in which he was recently successful will receive a fee of $200,000. His many friends in Shenaudoah will be pleased to hear that Dame Fortune has once more smiled upon him.

THE vote in the Senate on the question of closure was exactly what might have been expected, and what it should have been. It was known, and by the Demo-rats even openly proclaimed, that the sole object of a change of rules at the short session was to secure the passage of certain tariff bills, which were in flat deflance of the will of the people declared at the last elections. The one claim which has force, in favor of closure, is that it is necessary to enable the will of the people to take effect when it might be thwarted by a minority. In this case the will of manle was about to be betrayed. de feated and defied by the majority from whom the people has deliberately withdrawn their trust. There is no room to doubt about the heatile purpose of the people. No party has ever been overthrown by a more overwhelming majority than the Democratic party, on account of the very policy which Senators wish to carry into effect by suppressing the minority. In this case a vote against closure in the Senate was a vote to uphold the sovereignty of the people.

In 1880, the last year for which we have complete statistics, 200,559 persons were employed in coal mining. Not another of the mining industries employed 100,000. Iron ore production employed but 38,707, not onite one eigth as many; gold and silver production together but about one sixth; lead not one-tenth; and even the quarrying of all kinds of stone only about one third. Not a single manufacturing industry employed as many persons. The nearest approach was lumber mills, which employed 286,197. The second manufacturing industry in rank on the basis of employee is foundry and machine shops, the third clothing manufacturing and the fourth cotton goods. Coal mining employs 100,000 more persons than boot and shoe making, including factory and custom work and repairing, 200,000 more than furniture in dring, 150,000 more than from and steel to maces and rolling mills, 200,000 more than the manufacture of cigars and cigarettes, 80,000 more than the manufacture of calico goods, 175,000 more than woolen and worsted mills and 250,000 more than the manufacturing of silk and silk goods. By attacking the coal mining industry the greatest destruction can be done to labor at one blow. Hence the support of such a movement by the the Democratic press.

John J. Neill Relates How a Simple Remedy Restored Him to Health. Horrible Operation Avoided.

(Philadelphia, Penna., Item.) A healthier, heartier, happler man than John J. Neill, of 2437 North Eight street, Philadelphia, could not be found in a day's search. Among those who knew him formerly, the fact that he is still alive is a constant wonder.

In the fall of 1889 he began to suffer from stone in the bladder, and his mis eries were indescribable. Consulting an eminent physician in Philadelphia, he was told that he would have to submit to a surgical operation. So much did he dread the result, for if unsuccessful it meant death, that he put off the evil day as long as possible. While in this frame of mind he chanced to see a notice of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Although disheartened with his many futile attempts with medicine, he was induced to make one more trial.

On July 1, 1893, he bought the first bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and within a month had experienced beneficial results, and before he had finished the third bottle the gravel was completely dissolved and his suffer ings at an end. Mr. Neill feels that he owes a lasting debt of gratitude to Dr. Kennedr's Favorite Remedy. He never fails to recommend it for disorders of the bladder and urinary organs and says "4t will effect a cure if one be possible!"

The great value of Dr. David Ken nedy's Favorite Remedy lies in the fact that it dissolves the excess of uric acid in the blood. Many of the ailments people suffer from-for instance, rheumatiam, nervousness, dyspepsia, kidney liver and urinary troubles, and the sickness peculiar to women, all come from this one cause.

Favorite Remedy dissolves this acid and expels it from the system, thus curing the disease. In cases of scrofula diabetes, Bright's disease, and stone in the bladder, it never fails.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is for sale by all druggists, at $1 a bottle or six for $5, which brings a treatment within the reach of all.

CREEDOUS CONFESSION

He Paid $15,000 for His Appointment as Police Captain.

HE IS SUSPENDED FROM THE FORCE.

The Action of the Police Commissioners in Suspending Creedon Arouses the Ire of the Lexow Committee-Much Sympathy Expressed for the Disgraced Officer.

NEW YORK, Dog. 15 .- Police Captain T J. Creedon confessed before the Lexov committee yesterday that he had paid $15. 000 to secure his captaincy. A few hours later he was suspended from the force by the board of police commissioners, on th amendation of Superintendent of Po lice Byrnes, who was instructed to propare charges against him. The Lexow committee has agreed that Creedon should be granted immunity from punishment for his purchase of a captainey, and when theaction of the police commissioners be ame known they, as well as Superinten dent Byrnes, were subported to appear be fore the senate investigating body. Captain Creedon's confession was the biggest sensation yet brought forth by the Lexow committee. In itself the captain's statement was morely a confirmation of testimony elicited before the senators on Thursday, but the startling facts essentially interwoven with this sensational expose affix the taint of dishonor and corruption upon men who have held some o the most responsible offices in the gift of the community. But public censure is not heaped on Creedon's head. He had served in the local police department for thirty years with honor and distinction. He is a war scarred veteran, whose record shows that in twenty-three engagements of the civil war he risked his life for his country. The captain's fault is forgotten by the popular mind in sympathy for his present trying position and respect for his past record.

Captain Creedon had said on the witness stand on Thursday that he paid no money for his captaincy. But yesterday, after Captain Schmittberger, who is under in-dictment, refused, by advice of his coun-sel, to answer Mr. Goff's questions, Cree-don was allowed an opportunity to tell the truth, and he told it.

The witness spoke slowly, with down-cast eyes. He was moved by conflicting emotions, and the sympathies of his audi-tors went out to the white haired veteran. In a straightforward though shamefaced manner he told how he had risen from the position of a patrolman to a sergeantey; how at last a captaincy was offered him— for money. The expense of educating his eight children had been very heavy, and he wanted the position of captain, with its increased emoluments. But he had sub-mitted the matter to his friends. They raised the money. The amount necessary to secure the appointment was $15,000, be-cause Sergeant Wiegand had offered $12. His friends, Barney Rourke and John Reppenhagen, secured the money, osensibly on his notes. He had paid the money to ex-Assemblyman John J. Mar tin. It was his understanding that the

Then there was a burst of applause such as no man could stop. Captain Creedon arose. Tears filled his eyes, and his face twitched with emotion. Then each member of the committee and Counsels Goff. Jerome and Moss shook his hand warmly. There was another burst of applause, and Captain Creedon walked from the court room crying. Men trembling with pent up feelings grasped his hand in sympathetic pity.

Then John W. Reppenhagen testified that he was given the money, and in turn he at once turned over $10,000 of it to "Honest" John Martin for the benefit of Commissioner Voorbis. He kept the remaining $5,000 for himself. He was the go-between. Reppenhagen swore that Voorhis lied if he said he did not get the

Another feature of the day, which was generally discussed on the streets, wa Mr. Goff's invitation to Richard Croker to appear before the committee and deny the charges made against him. Mr. Goff said that, inasmuch as the testimony of Mr. Moran, the Brooklyn tug owner, impli-cated Mr. Croker in constructive extertion the latter was invited to take the witness stand and make any explanation that h might desire of Moran's allegations. Mr tore, No. 9-18-47 Croker did not respond. "I have nothing to eay to this," was the only reply Mr. Croker made to all queries.
