FIGHTING TO PAY TAXES.

Bayannah Citizens Employed Armies of Toughs to stand the Crush.

SAVARNAH, Doc. 17.-The most unique shows disorderly and generally accepted as the most disgraceful period of politics in the history of this city has come to a breathing pause. Two factional Demo-cratic candidates are in the field for the mayoralty, the election taking place in January. Under the first use of the Australian ballot system here no one can vote whe has not paid all taxes, including those of this year, and registered. This provision led to a wild scramble at first.

and then pitched battles dally between large forces for choice positions in time to the tax collector's office.

The exilector could issue only about 200 receipts a day, and as the registration closed on Saturday it was inevitable that many citizens would be shutout. The two factions hived two manys of touchs and factions hired two gangs of toughs, each numbering about a hundred, and including the most desperate whites and negroes of the city. These men were paid from $5 to $10 a day. To each was given a list of to $10 a day. To each was given a list o tor would accept taxes for from one par-son, and the money to pay their taxes with. Each morning for ten days post the durged once other in frost of and ansid the court bugs, hundreds of elitzensgath ering from all parts of the city daily is intrusting their names and money to the shod hoders. At times meanly the entire solice force of the city had to be called out

The armost of beclers were ful at the rival headquarters, where many of them re-reshed all night, going our early each morning to resume the battle, and at the court house, where beer, whisky, coffee and sandwiches were given them. Two or three times a day a number of the workers skipped with their lists and money, disfranchising many citizens. It is calculated that the cost of keeping up the two armies was over $10,000. They were distanted yesterday. The next legislature will be appealed to to amend the law so as to prevent any repetition of these scenes.

Kansas Farmers Swindled.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., Dec. 17,—The residents of Bronson and vicinity, a few miles west of this city, are wrought up over the fact that a number of their citizens have been swindled out of cash, stock and property to the extent of at least $25,000 by hree sharpers who profess to be the in ventors of a washing compound for which they claimed wonders, and for which they were selling state and territorial rights Many of those who bought territory refuse to believe that they have been swindled and think that they have a fortune in sight, but the more conservative of the sight, but he made conservative of the victims now see that they have been played by professional swindlers, and that the torritory they have purchased has already been sold several times before.

A Brief Honeymoun.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 17.—Some weeks ago the Baron Graenbaum, of Austria, and Mrs. Franklin, widow of the well known turfman, were married by a justice of the peace in this city, and repaired at once to Kennesaw, the Franklin stock farm, h Summer county, to pass the honeymoo Ten days ago Graenbaum left Kennesa and took up quarters at a liotel in Gali tin, telling a tale of trouble and woe to a listeners. Friday evening last, as he raised money enough for passage to New York, he left for that city. He tried to file a hill for divorce, but was advised that he had no legal grounds.
