

PENCIL POINTS.

Local News Gleanings Condensed for Hasty Perusal. Soon we'll be writing '95. Advertising always pays. Holiday shoppers are out. Christmas turkeys are fattening. Winter begins next Friday, the 21st. The moonlight is now on the decrease. Holiday decorations are beginning to appear. The thermometer never loses its attractiveness. The Sunday schools are now having their best attendance. Soon it will be getting your New Year resolution in order. Will there be sleighing for Christmas? Is a question often asked. Up to the present time the indications have been for a mild winter. The woman who fires up the quickest does not always make the best match. People are longing to see snow as bad as three months hence they'll long to have it go.

An Interesting Letter.

Dr. David Kennedy, Dear Sir: I am 60 years old and generally played out, or so I thought up to two weeks ago when I commenced to use Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

For years I have suffered with inflammation of the bladder and kidneys, and have gradually grown worse and expected at any time that passing urine by nature's effort would cease. Besides constant pain in the kidneys and bladder, I have had rheumatic pain in every muscle and joint, and often remarked that there was not a man living that had suffered as much as I had, but I must say I have not for a single day in five years felt as well in every way as I do now. Have improved daily since I began the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. About a week ago I gave a man afflicted with bladder trouble, part of a bottle of Favorite Remedy and he said to me today, "that is a great medicine; I am better already," and he drove eight miles to a druggist to get a bottle. Respectfully yours, S. H. Young, Hiram, Ohio.

After David's Millions.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 18.—A new phase in the settlement of the estate of the late Andrew J. Davis of Montpelier, developed yesterday when at the hearing in the Suffolk county probate court a petition was presented in behalf of Mrs. Huldah Small, who claims to be the widow. The claim that there is a widow is denied by the special administrators. The petition objects to the appointment of the administrators, asked for by other petitioners on the ground that Mrs. Small and her daughters are the legal heirs of the deceased. The estate involves over $7,000,000, of which $1,000,000 is in Massachusetts. On account of proceedings in Montana affecting the case the hearing was continued until Feb. 1.

Awaiting the Japs at New Chwang.

LEUNG, Dec. 18.—A dispatch from Peking says that General Sung has an army of 20,000 men at New Chwang, including 6,000 cavalry, and is waiting for the Japanese. General Sung's army is said to be in a position to attack the Japanese at any time. The Japanese are said to be waiting for the Chinese to attack them. The Chinese are said to be waiting for the Japanese to attack them. The Japanese are said to be waiting for the Chinese to attack them. The Chinese are said to be waiting for the Japanese to attack them.

Mr. B. Westmore, a prominent real estate agent of San Angelo, Texas, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for several years with successful results. He says: "I find it a perfect cure for our baby when troubled with colic or dysentery. I now feel that my mouth is not complete without a bottle of this Remedy at home or on a trip away from home. For sale by Grubler Bros."

The latest assortment in town at lowest prices. Fresh candy made every hour at 10 cents per pound. Give it a trial and you will come again. S. Roosen, 34 West Centre street.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mott's, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For six days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought when I would lose him I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I bought a bottle and thought I would try it as a last resort and I am happy to say that after two days it left my little boy well and I have not seen him since. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

STEVENSON'S LAST MOMENTS.

Further Details of the Distinguished Novelist's Death. BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Further details have been received from Apia, Samoa, giving details of the death of the distinguished novelist, Robert Louis Stevenson. Mr. Stevenson died on the evening of Dec. 3. He was talking with his wife, seemingly as well as usual, when he suddenly said to her, "I have a strange pain in my head." Immediately afterward he fell back in his chair. Everything possible was done to restore him to consciousness with-out success, and within two hours of the seizure he died. The cause of death was sudden paralysis of the brain, accompanied by collapse of the lungs. Mrs. Stevenson and all her relatives were present at the closing scene.

The funeral took place on the 14th. The grave was dug on the summit of Palm hill, which stands on Mr. Stevenson's estate. The coffin was carried up the mountain with great difficulty by the faithful Samoan servants who so dearly loved their white employer. The altar of the passage of the coffin and its bearers it was necessary to cut a track through the dense forest which covers the whole slope of the hill. An obelisk will be erected over the grave and this will form a prominent landmark from the sea.

It is stated that Mr. Stevenson had suffered from brain exhaustion. He was haunted by a fear that his popularity as a writer was waning. He left three unfinished works.

"Valkyrie Will Not Be Built."

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Lord Dunsraven was shown the cable dispatch from ex-Commander James D. Smith, chairman of the America's cup committee, to Mr. Richard Grant, secretary of the Royal Yacht Squadron, relating on the 10th months' notice. Lord Dunsraven read the dispatch carefully. He appeared to be vexed with its contents and said: "I will not sail in November. It may be possible to get the members of the squadron together before Jan. 15, but the committee's decision is absurd. In my opinion it is intended to be absurd. Valkyrie will not be built." The requirement of ten months' notice is considered by yachtmen here to be ridiculous, arguing a desire on the part of the New Yorkers not to race. Lord Dunsraven is not willing to order the building of the Valkyrie without the challenge being accepted.

Decided in Favor of the Colleges.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Judge Traux, in the supreme court, handed down his decision in the Payerweather trial, in which he finds for the plaintiffs. This knocks out the deed of gift of $5,000,000, which was distributed by the executors, and distributes the estate, according to Mr. Payerweather's desire, to the smaller colleges. Dartmouth, Amherst, Williams and Hamilton colleges, and the University of Rochester, who brought the action, will get big shares of the estate. So will the fifteen other colleges and institutions which had similar requests in the will, but did not contest. Among them are Yale and Princeton.

Confidence in the French Government.

PARIS, Dec. 18.—During the discussion of the budget in the chamber of deputies today M. Gustave Rouvier, a Socialist who represents a Paris constituency, censured the government for not enforcing the names of convicted persons to remain on the rolls of the Legion of Honor. His motion to enforce the regulations was rejected by a vote of 239 to 234. A motion declaring that the government would cause the rules of the legion to be respected, which action the ministry stated would be accepted as a vote of confidence, was carried by a decisive majority, 257 members voting in favor of it and 119 against it.

Police Justice Diver on Trial.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Police Justice Patrick Diver, ex-Tammany leader of the Second Assembly district, appeared in the court of common pleas to answer the indictment proceedings instituted against him by Lawyer William H. Hale of Brooklyn. A burlesque for Morris Tekulsky testified to having witnessed a dispute between Tekulsky in the former's saloon. He saw no blood struck, but saw blood. Testimony of clerks of the court was taken to show the number of days Diver had sat in those courts. The court adjourned until tomorrow.

Escaped from an Asylum.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—R. James Monaghan, the one time prominent Democratic campaign orator, whose mind recently gave way, has again eluded the vigilance of his relatives by escaping from the Friends' Asylum for the Insane at Frankford, where he had been confined since the early part of last month. During the recent campaign he was an enthusiastic speaker in William N. Wilson's district in West Virginia.

Struck by an Unknown Assailant.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Oliver Dudgey was stricken late at night by an unknown person and cut terribly on the face and body. The assailant escaped. Dudgey was removed by the ruffian of "giving away" speak easies here, being in league with the Law and Order society. He figured prominently in a case last week. His wounds are dangerous.

Little Interest in a Cycling Race.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—But little interest is being taken in the six day cycling contest which started yesterday morning, and the attendance was very poor. The score at 1 o'clock this morning was: Ashinger, 500 miles; Foster, 285; Gannon, 284. Meikel quit at 8 o'clock last night with 296 miles to his credit, others having dropped out during the day.

A Woman "Held Up" by Robbers.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 18.—Mrs. Marie Walwright, wife of the station master at Mt. Wilson, on the Western Maryland railroad, was "held up" Sunday night by two unknown masked men, and at the point of a pistol was made to surrender all the money there was in the station. The robbers secured only about $75.

Miss Brewer Charged with Murder.

LYNN, Mass., Dec. 18.—Miss Amy Maud Brewer, who fatally shot her lover, Gideon Latimer, on last Thursday, was re-arrested in this city charged with murdering Latimer. She pleaded not guilty, and was remanded to Salem jail without bail. The hearing was deferred until next Saturday.

Insubordinate Officers Sentenced.

BREILIN, Dec. 18.—A Madisonian paper states that 150 of the most insubordinate officers of the gunnery school, who were tried by a court martial on charges of insubordination, have been found guilty and sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from eight days to nine months.

Peter Maher's Athletics.

Peter Maher and his high-class athletic and specialty company will be the attraction at Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, December 19th. The organization is an excellent one throughout. The opening act of the Keigans is new, and includes some prett dancing. Lewis Mettler, initiator of birds and animals; Conley and Madden, a clever pair of Irish comedians; the two American Belles, in songs and dances; Campbell and Beard, with their novel mechanical musical instruments, and Annie Darling, the serio-comic, will be other features of the entertainment. In addition the celebrated Dare Brothers will give their wonderful horizontal bar act. The performance will close with a one-act comedy, in which Peter Maher and William Hennessy, of Boston, will appear in an athletic display.

The "Herald" Case.

J. H. Pomeroy, Esq., yesterday made a motion for a new trial in the case of the HERALD Publishing Company against the Borough of Shenandoah. This suit arose out of the publishing of the proclamations for the first water works special election by the HERALD. The amount claimed was $435.70. The borough's offer to compromise for $300, to cover all costs, interest, etc., was rejected and the case went to trial, the HERALD recovering judgment for the full amount claimed with all costs and interests. M. M. Burke, Esq., appeared for the HERALD yesterday and opposed the motion for a new trial. Mr. Pomeroy maintained that the verdict was against the law and evidence and that the court erred in allowing the files of the HERALD to be sent into the jury room. Judge Weldman allowed Mr. Pomeroy time to specify his grounds for the application in writing.

The Columbia Desk Calendar.

For ten years the desk calendar issued by the Pope Manufacturing Company has held a unique place among business helpers. Each daily leaf during that time has taught its quiet lesson of the value of better roads and outdoor exercise, and especially the benefits of bicycling. The calendar for 1895, which is just issued, is even brighter than its predecessors in appearance, as clever artists have added dainty illustrations and sketches to the usual wise and witty contributions that have heretofore given it its popular calendar its charm. It can be had for five cents stamps from the Pope Manufacturing Company, Hartford, Conn., or from any Columbia bicycle agency.

Dr. Parkhurst and Women.

Dr. Parkhurst has entered into a contract with The Ladies' Home Journal by which he will practically become a regular editorial contributor to that magazine for some time. The great New York preacher says that he has for a long time past been desirous of saying some very necessary things to women, and he now announces that he will say them through these articles. He will take up all the social, moral and equality questions which are so uppermost in the minds of women to-day. Dr. Parkhurst will begin this work at once, his first article appearing in the next issue of the Journal.

Correction. MR. EDITOR:—In your issue of yesterday you said, respecting the re-opening of the P. M. church, "The walls and ceilings have been much beautified by the skillful brush of Thomas H. Snyder."

The fact is Mr. Mellet was awarded the contract for papering the church and Mr. T. W. Conville had charge of the work. Mr. Thomas H. Snyder did very fine work with his brush, but his contract was the painting and gilding of the church. Please correct and oblige.
