Local News Gleanings Condensed for Busy Readers.

Busy days.
The new year is near.
Candy sales are increasing.
Shoppers are out daily now.
Holiday greens are plentiful.
The perfumes of baking cakes fill the air.
Only about 9 hours of daylight just now.
This is the week to get your Christmas turkey.

This is the season when shoplifters are numerous.
Potatoes in the cellar, covered over with paper, will not freeze.

Preparations are being made in all the churches for Christmas.
Typhoid fever seems very general all over the state this year.

Don't neglect sending us local events from your neighborhood.

The children are impatient to hear the sleigh bells merry jingle.
It's about time for the blizzard season, but they delay their coming.

Our streets are made quite lively with holiday shoppers on clear days.
There now remains but 12 days in 1894. Get ready to turn over a new leaf.

Jewelry fairs have been working Shamokin and are traveling eastward.
There is time enough yet for a long and cold winter, though appearances do not indicate it.

Don't forget the Milkmaids' Inter State Convention at Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening.

Cleanable Collars and Cuffs.

"Celluloid" collars and cuffs are one of the greatest blessings that was ever brought to mankind by the gift of invention, especially the man whose occupation demands that he wear his Sunday clothes every day, as Bill Nye puts it. A daily change of linen runs into a considerable laundry bill in the course of a year. "Celluloid" makes it possible to add this item to the year's savings. Many men when buying waterproof collars and cuffs make the mistake of believing that it's all the same so long as they are called "celluloid." This is a grievous error. The genuine "Celluloid" collars and cuffs are peculiarly made, being in reality a linen collar or cuff encased on both sides with pure waterproof "Celluloid." This prevents cracking, and increases the durability of the article. When soiled, it can be wiped off with a damp cloth and made to look equally as well as the most skillfully laundered linen. All dissatisfaction with "celluloid" collars and cuffs can be avoided by looking for the trade mark, "Celluloid" stamped on the inside of every piece.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CASE.

The Long Pending Suit Decided Against the Company.

BOSTON, Dec. 19.—The long contested patent suit of the United States vs. the American Bell Telephone company was ended yesterday when Judge Carpenter, of the United States circuit court, rendered a decision against the telephone company. This suit was a bill in equity praying for the repeal of letters patent issued to Emile Berliner, assignor of the American Bell Telephone company, for a combined telephone and telegraph system. The patents known as the Berliner patents were issued to the telephone company, but never put into use by them on account, they claimed, of the expense of making changes in the telephone system, while other companies were prevented from using the system. The first ground of the bill brought by the complainant in this suit is that the patent is void, as being beyond the power of the commissioners to issue.

Lawyer Frederick P. Fish, counsel for the Bell Telephone company, speaking of Judge Carpenter's decision, said:
"The case will now go to the United States court of appeals, and a decision will possibly be rendered next spring after the case has been argued anew, as though the circuit court had not made this decision. If the case is decided against us there it will be taken to the United States supreme court."

The value of the patent involved is said to be $5,000,000.
The government's case against the Bell telephone contained two counts, and the judge sustained the government in them both. The first count was in effect that the issuance of the patent to Berliner was unnecessarily delayed, and the second count was in substance that a former patent issued to Berliner covered substantially the same claims as made in the patent issued in 1891.

The costs in the case are enormous, the record alone taking two large printed volumes, and cost over $3,000,000. By the court's decree the costs are to fall on the telephone company.

Young Griffo Belligerent.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 19.—The bad blood which has existed of late between Young Griffo and George Dixon came to a head yesterday. Dixon is filling an engagement at the Lyceum theater, in this city. At the matinee yesterday Griffo was in a box. As soon as Dixon came on the stage Griffo leaned over the footlights, excitedly pulled a $5 bill from his pocket, and throwing it at Dixon's feet, challenged him to cover it. Dixon laughed at him, and under the persuasion of friends, Griffo subsided. But the bill was only temporary. After the show Griffo and Tom O'Rourke, Dixon's manager, collided in a neighboring saloon, and hot words were exchanged. Griffo told O'Rourke that he was "only fit to manage niggers, anyhow," whereupon the Australian was staggered by a vigorous blow in the face. Serious trouble was only averted by mutual friends of the men, who parted them and got them away.

The Chase Estate to be Sold.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Mrs. Katherine Chase, eldest daughter of the late Salmon P. Chase, the great war secretary of the treasury, and finally chief justice of the supreme court, and divorced wife of ex-Governor Sprague, of Rhode Island, has become involved in debt and difficulties to such an extent as to make it necessary for the trustee to sell the fine old estate of Ellipsewood, near this city, the country home of the late Chief Justice Chase, and which he bequeathed to his daughter Katherine. It is understood a real estate syndicate will secure it for investment.

Another Cashier Goes Wrong.
ROME, N. Y., Dec. 19.—An examination of the books of the Central National bank of Rome by National Bank Examiner Van Vranken disclosed the fact that the cashier of the bank, John E. Bielby, is a defaulter to the amount of $27,000, of which sum he has $8,000 to his credit in New York which he will return to the bank, leaving a net shortage of $19,000. It is the old story of doubling in stocks and getting in deeper to make up losses. The bank will not suffer, since it is protected by the cashier's bond to the amount of $20,000.

Miscreants Cause a Railroad Wreck.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 19.—A Lehigh Valley express train was partly thrown from the track at Port Bowdley, two miles from here, by collision with a lot of coal jimmies. The engine was overturned and the baggage car badly smashed. The damage will amount to $50,000. Some of the trainmen were slightly injured, but the passengers escaped. Some miscreants had turned a switch, and the railroad officials say they will spend thousands to unearth the villains.

North Carolina's Lynchings.
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 19.—Reports made to the legislature regarding crimes and punishments in North Carolina during last year and this year show that there were during that period 16,588 criminal offenses disposed of. The increase over the previous two years was 1,294. There was an increase in all crimes save those against women. There were three legal executions and eight lynchings, or six more lynchings than during the previous two years.

The "Aster Tramp" May Yet Escape.
NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Justice Patterson, of the supreme court, granted a preliminary stay of execution of the sentence of one year's imprisonment imposed upon John Garvey, better known as the "Aster tramp." The justice also granted an order to show cause why the stay should not be continued pending an appeal of Garvey's case to the general term of the supreme court.

Prisoners Escape from Jail.
WESTMINSTER, Md., Dec. 19.—Charles Wells, who was arrested on the 18th inst., charged with breaking into the store of J. E. Evans & Bro., at Carrollton, and Jacob Cost, of Fessenden district, charged with stealing a $50 gold piece, both awaiting trial, made their escape from jail during the night. They cut a hole through the roof and forced a rope of blankets.

Remarkable, If True.
COLUMBIA, Pa., Dec. 19.—J. McLaughlin, a local wheelman, yesterday afternoon rode an unspoked wheel over the Ironville place in 1 1/2 min. 20 sec. data, thus making the record and supposed records held heretofore by Johnson, 1:35 2/3, and Bancroft, 1:52 2/3. His first attempt was made in 1:30, six watches were held up him.

To Honor Sir John's Birthday.
PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 19.—It has been reported that Sir Charles Tupper, the Canadian high commissioner, will spend the remains of the late Sir John Thompson to Canada, on the Bloismore, which leaves Southampton on Saturday.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

The Debate on the Carlsbad Bill Lacks Spirit and Interest.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The discussion on the Carlsbad currency bill began in the house yesterday, but the opening of the debate was a disappointment. It lacked both spirit and interest and was devoid of sensational features. Mr. Springer, the chairman of the banking and currency committee, who made the first speech in support of the measure, gave a plain statement in support of its objects. Its details, and gave a review of the arguments in its favor on the lines of those contained in the report. Mr. Walker, the leader of the minority of the committee, devoted most of his time to an elaboration of his own bill. As usual he was incisive, emphatic and aggressive, and the house gave him close attention. Mr. Hall, a Democratic member of the committee from Missouri, closed the debate for the day. An effort to agree upon the limitations of the debate failed, and it will probably be allowed to run on for the remainder of the week without a vote. After the holidays the committee on rules will, unless the measure loses caste in the meantime, bring in a rule to close debate and force a vote.

Another resolution providing for union with Canada made its appearance in the senate, having been introduced by Mr. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, who stated that he would do anything in his power at any time to further the consummation of such union. Senator Turpentine made his speech in denunciation of the Non-Intercourse bill, declaring that it appeared to him as having every indication of a gorgeous bubble. An urgency deficiency bill reporting $500,000 for public printing and binding was passed.

More Trouble for Recorder Taylor.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Additional charges against C. H. J. Taylor, the colored recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia, alleging that he offered to enter an agreement to make clerical appointments in his office and pay money to W. Calvin Chase, editor of a local negro journal, to cause the publication of attacks on him, have been filed with the civil service commission. Further charges of official misconduct are threatened by Mr. Chase, and former charges against Taylor for violating the civil service laws were forwarded several months ago by the commission to the president, and are now awaiting his action.

Legislators Refused to Insult the President.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 19.—In the legislature last night Mr. Duncan introduced a resolution criticizing President Cleveland for having prostituted his high office and used his opportunities to betray the Democratic party and repudiate its principles, and stating that "we record ourselves as opposed to the resolution passed by this house doing honor to the greatest party wrecker in the history of American politics." The resolution was signed by two members, and they asked that it be put on record. The house refused to put it in the journal.

Murdered for His Money.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 19.—Michael Yosech, a Hungarian, employed as a foreman by McDonald & Sagers, railroad contractors, was found murdered on the Lehigh Valley railroad, near Palmyra, yesterday. The man visited a tavern at Selah, on the 11th inst., and started to return to his boarding shanty at 9 o'clock, in a lonely spot in the road he was waylaid, and, after being killed, was robbed of his money, $24, which he carried in a belt. The body was then placed on the railroad track.

Note of Thanks.
