DR MIGLYNNIS RESTORATION.

He Was Not Competed to Renounce His Views on Political Economy.

Kron man S. V. Des gr.—The Rev. Dr. Burnell, of this city and reday that he felt called upon to more wetgrement in regard to size restoration of Roy. Dr. Mc Given and his present standing in the priesthest. In according with this sen-timent he firedshes the following to the Associated Press for publication: Dr. Matthynn, from the day he was relieved of excommunication by Mgr. Sa telli was a priest in good standing in the diocese of New York and simply by his own wish no proposition was made to have him appoint of to any particular locality, Mgr. Safelli gave him a letter recommend-ing film to all the hishops of the country, and supported that he be allowed to exer-orse his rights as a minister in any discess he might be in for the time being.

It was always understood, however, that Dr. McGlynn had no thought of severing his connection with the discess of New York, to which he belowed.

Mgr. Satolit et that time doctared posi-tively that De Medigana's teachings out the land question were not in any sense contrary to the destrines of the church and that he was free to maintain them, as any would be to assail them, because they were merely a question of political coon may. It was entirely by Dr. Metilynn own volition that any application for ocal position was postponed to the prese

Among the people who left the Lehigh Valley depot for New York this morning were Miss Mary Malinich and Fetherer Dinchick, a Hungarian couple, They were bound for Ungour, Austria-Hun gary, and upon their acrival there will be made man and wife. The young woman has been in the hou-chold service of Mike Pribula, of the First ward, and her companion worked in the mines. The long journey to hymen's altar was looked upon by them with pleasure. They wanted to be married on their native soil and according to the cu-toms of their native country. They have saved considerable money and can conduct the wedding festivities there with more pomp than they could here.

The photograph was taken by Fred S. Marshall, a bent photographer. The existence of the impression of the murderer on the eye was first discovered by means of a powerful microscope. Unfortunately the features of the man could not be seen, as the view obtained shows only the back and a very little of the side. An apparently big man is represented, with bushy whiskers, and wearing a long evercost. The coroner has taken out both the eyes of the murdered woman, and another photograph will be taken.
