Relief for Rheumatism. "This information," said a well known physician to a correspondent of the Telegram, "may save many lives; at any rate it will prove an invaluable boon to people suffering from rheumatism in any form."

"Rheumatism is caused by acidity of the blood. It should never be neglected. This remedy, as I know by long practice, is very efficacious and it is as simple as it is powerful."

"Here it is," he added. "When a rheumatic twinge is experienced, the patient should buy a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and take one teaspoonful in milk or water to suit the action of the bowels, three times a day, and continue daily until the last vestige of the malady has disappeared. That's all, but if taken as I have prescribed, it will save many doctors' bills, to say nothing of pain, aches and swellings. I've never known it to fail."—Albany, N. Y., Telegram.

MASKED BURGLARS CAPTURED.

They Secured $10,000 from an Aged Couple by Torturing Them.

ERIE, Pa., Dec. 21.—The ringleaders in the gang of masked burglars who a week ago beat and bound, and at the point of torture secured the $10,000 which David and Sarah Sleomin had laid up for a rainy day, have been captured. They are Frank Anderson, a farmer living within two miles from the scene of the robbery, Ralph Vannaser and Jeremiah Casey. Anderson and Vannaser were captured together at the house of the former. They resisted arrest, but were overcome. Casey was captured in the eastern part of the state.

The conspiracy seems to have been put up by Anderson and Casey in the Mendonville jail. Anderson was there on a sentence for larceny and Casey, who was in for some minor offense. Anderson knew about Sleomin's wealth, also that he had called in his money. In less than two weeks after the pair were out of jail they, with four others, just at the Anderson rendezvous and carried out one of the most daring and successful burglaries in the history of crime in this section. Casey's fondness for his cups loosened his tongue, disclosed his secretiveness and gave the clue which resulted in the capture of the gang.

Found Murdered at His Door. CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 21.—George Whittington, colored, was found dead yesterday at the door of his home, near Collingswood. There was a bullet in his groin, and he had bled to death. The other five occupants of the house, William and Frank Jacobs, Mary and Roxanna Adams and Marcella Dabbs, have been arrested on suspicion of having murdered him. Whittington owned the house and had notified the others to vacate. It is said, because of jealousy over the attentions paid one of the women by the other men. The prisoners declare that they know nothing of the man's death, except that they heard a shout from behind their door afterwards.

The President's Return to Washington. WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—President Cleveland and his party of duck hunters returned to the city yesterday. The party, which consisted of the president, Captain R. B. Ryan, Dr. O'Reilly and Charles Johnson, was met at the station by Secretary Taft and driven to the White House. The president spent the day quietly at home, and in the afternoon went driving with Mrs. Cleveland. He is feeling much better than when he left, his rheumatism having been much lessened by the trip. Also, the party killed about 30 ducks, the president being responsible for rather more than half of them.

Any one who has children will rejoice with L. B. Mulford, of Plainfield, N. J. His little boy, five years of age, was sick with croup. For two days and nights he tried various remedies recommended by friends and neighbors. He says: "I thought sure I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and thought I would try it as a last hope and am happy to say that after two doses he slept until morning. I gave it to him next day and a cure was effected. I keep this remedy in the house now and as soon as any of my children show signs of croup I give it to them and that is the last of it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Gruhler Bros.

AMUSEMENTS.

CHILDREN ON THE STAGE. Children on the stage are always attractive and interesting. It requires natural talent for a child to make a success of acting, and when bright little children like little Winnie get a chance to display their talent, the result is astonishing and delightful. Mr. John E. Brennan, in his comedy-drama "Tim, the Tinker," appears at Ferguson's theatre, Christmas afternoon and evening, December 25th.

"THE IVY LEAF." A full house greeted W. H. Power's company at the Howard last night, and so well was the stirring Irish drama "The Ivy Leaf" played, that for once in a lifetime the gallery gods were satisfied to applaud something of a different character than what they are wont to cheer. The gallery god is a queer character. Anything with the word "whiskers" in it, or an attempt at a joke will unusually catch him, but as a rule he has nothing to do with a play calculated to picture the vicissitudes and fortunes of everyday life. In selecting his company, Mr. Power seems to have made it a point to get the very best. There is not a stick in it. — Boston Herald. Will appear at Ferguson's theatre, Thursday evening, December 25th.

PEOPLES BALLETS. Americans have been patronizing ballet dancing for nearly three quarters of a century, and to-day it has a stronger hold on the public than ever. It is estimated by conservative people who are in a position to know, that fully three thousand ballet girls are now employed in this country, and nine out of ten are Europeans. Forty-two of them are with that superb legendary spectacle, "The Black Crook," which appears at Ferguson's theatre, Saturday evening, December 29th.
