The Police Inspector Before the Lexow Committee,

AN UNSATISFACTORY WITNESS.

The Famous "Rnight of the Club" Appears Wholly Unconcerned as He Replies to Inquisitor Goff's Queries, and Aromes the Wrath of That Noted Lawyer.

New York, Dec. 27.—Next to Superintendent Byrnes, Inspector Alexander Williams is looked upon by the residents of this city as the man who knows every fetall in connection with the police department of New York.

It was made known that he would be called as a witness before the Lexaw committee and there were numerous applicants for admission to the court room. Lawyers, doctors, bankers, brokers and men about town scrambled for sents to hear the famous "Knight of the Club" and Inquisitor Goff cross folls in a wordy and Inquisitor isoff cross folls in a wordy funcing match.

During the early part of the proceedings former Wardman Shalvey, who was Policeman Hassey's partner in the Twelrin precinct, was examined, and he told about his collections of bribe money from salcon keepers, proprietors of him et of 1H farms and policy shows. He accused Captains Webb trettred. Deburty, faching and Schaltz of receiving the bribes. During Schaltz a regime he said that the price on policy shops was raised to per cent, and that in nine months he paid over to Schaltz about $4,500.

Detective Serguants Phil Riley and Jake Von Gerichten were called after recess, and they said they attended the races at Saratoga during their vacations, and that they received money from the owners of the track for keeping "crooked pursuas".

the track for keeping "crooked persons" away from it, but they dealed ever having divided the money they got with any of the police officials in New York. Inspector Williams was then called, and recrome was on the tiptoe of expectation. He was drossed in full uniform, and seemed to be as unconcerned as if he were goling to testify against an ordinary "drank and disorderly."

In reply to Mr. Goff he said that he carned the trade of ship carpenter, and previous to ISSE, when he joined the force, he had charge of ship yards in China and Japan. When he left there he was worth from $15,000 to $20,000, and had property in Japan. He accounted for his transactions in real estate, and swore positively that he was never directly or indirectly con-nected with the sale of Hollywood whisky The inspector had frequently been accused of having an interest in the company which handled this beand of liquor, and it was small that by displaying the company's signing prominent place the proprietors of saloons were protected from arrest or annogame for violation of the veise laws. Williams denounced Schmittberger as a that, and said he was prompted to the by a promise of incommity given by the Lexow committee. He mot Mr. God's attacks tubbornly, and frequently aroused merriment by his answers to several questions Mr. God's everal times displayed its anger, and food several times displayed its anger, volle the inspector was at all simes ap-acousty margiful, his sharp answers tick

STOLE THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

Edward H. Cartor, Transfer Clerk of the National Bank of Commerce, Had Been in the Employ of the Institution for Twenty-nine Years.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.-Edward R. Car. NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Edward R. Carter, transfer and coupon clerk of the National Bank of Commerce, at 29 Nassan street, was arrested yesterday afternoon as a defaulter. Carter is chargod with appropriating $15.00 of the bank's mency, and, it is said, confessed his guilt. He is 44 years of age, and fived with his wife and two children, a dangater 22 years of age and a son 22 years old, in Brooklyn. For twenty-nine years clatter had been in the employ of the bank. According to the story be told to the police he began his peculial one twenty years ago, at first only peculations.twonry years ago, at first only taking small sames. He would say very little about himself to the police, and maintained silence as to what manced him to take the mon 7 and as to what he did with it. With the hank officials he was not so reticent, as a statement amide by W. W. Sheeman, president of the lank, shows. This statement is as follows: "The National Bank of Commerce has sustained a defallment by its transfer and compare deed, filtward 15. Carter, amount-ing to $51,000. Carter was twenty nine years in the bank, and began as a messenyears in the leath, and began as a messen-ger bay being presented from time to time till be reached his present position. Among his other duties he was rapidred to receive and pay comous on maturing or called hands. On simporing a balance restorant the officers discovered a discrepancy of some Excess, which he accounted for by claiming to have paid in error that amount of bomis before thele maturity. When asked to preduce the bands he was unable-ted on as and atmitted his guilt.

to do so, and admitted his guilt.

"It is not bearned that he speculated or industral in any vices. He claimed to have used the money in his living expenses. The lose, of course, is not a serious one for the bank, which has a capital of $5,000,000 and surplus and undivided profit of $5,000,000, but the defaination is now the less distressing, as Carter had the confi-dence of all who came in contact with
