"THE IVY LEAF,"

A full house greated W. H. Power's company at the Howard last night, and s o well was the stirring Irish drama, "The Ivy Leaf," played, that for once in a lifetime the gallery gods were satisfied to ap pland something of a different character than what they are wont to cheer. The gallery got is a queer character. Anyan attempt at a joke will unusually catch him, but as a rule be has nothing to de with a play executated to deture the vicis itudes and for times of everyday life. In selecting his company, Mr. P over seems to have made it a point to get the very best. There is not a stick in it. - Boston Herald. Will appear at Ferguson's the atre this evening.

"BLACK CROOK," The estate of the late Charles Barras has waxed fat from the immense revenues derived from that famous romantic spectacle, the "Black Crook." Mr. Barras wrote it thirty years ago, It is claimed that over a million dollars has been made by its many revivals, and at present is a rich harvest for its owners. Manager Ferguson has booked it for Saturday evening.

Says It Is Safe.

Frank Ball, the agent for the Robbins' property in Shenandouli, feels that an injustice was done to Mr. Hobbins in an item in a recent Shenandowh letter, which said that tenants were deserting the Bobbins' building; that it had been rumored that the building was unsafe, and that if it was safe the fact should be made public. Mr. Ball stated that the building had recently been inspected by a competent builder, who pronounced it perfectly safe. He said that two tenants had left, but they had moved because they had found quarters in a location that was better suited for their business. - Miners' Journal.

SEARCY AGAIN ACCUSED.

Implicated in an Arkansas Crime for Which Five Men Were Hanged.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Dec. 27.-B. F. Harris, of Knabel, Ark., reached here yes terday with a warrant for the arrest of Charles J. Searcy, the Aquia Creek train robber, for a crime committed in Arkan-sos. It is claimed that on the 20th of last August Searcy held up, in broad daylight, at the point of the pistol Mr. F. B. Harris, and robbed him of $38. Sam Martin, a pal of Searcy's, lived next to Harris, and found out that Harris had the money. It was Martin who placed Searcy in possession of that fact. Searcy escaped after the robbery, but from the 1st until the 5th of September was concealed in Martin's house. On that date Searcy, Martin and Morganifeld, or Morgan, who is now held in Cincinnati for the Aquia Creek hold up. all left for the cast, where the Aquia roo bery was accomplished. The warrant to Scurey's arrest has been properly inderest by a Virginia magistrate, but as Searcy is already indicted in this state he will no be surrendered by the authorities. Searcy and Martin are said to be two of seven man concerned in the train robbery at Oliphant, Ark., a few years ago, which resulted in the killing of McNally, for which five of the seven were hung, but Searcy and Martin escaped.
