"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The Markoe Company produced "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at Ferguson's theatre yesterdar afternoon and has evening before large houses. The matiner was one of the most successful ever given here. The production of the play by this company is wery good Miss Datsle Markoe is an excellent "Topsy" and made quite a hit-Her emutional role in the fourth act was received with much appreciation by the audience. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has been produced so often in all parts of the country that it requires some courage to produce it in these days and there are few productions that meet the approval of an audience, but in this respect the Markon Company is successful. The company will rest here until Friday, when It will appear at Frackville. Killy Wood, who played "Eliza Harris," and Baby Tot, her daughter, who played "Eva" in the production last night, leave the company to day and go to New York city. They will be succeeded by Miss Nina Mosher, ate of Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and little Lottie Moss, the former playing "Eliza" and the latter as "Eva." Little Miss Moss, although but five years old, arrived in town yesterday from Chicaga, having made the journey alone, She complet a seat in the audience last hight. The company was only able to make use of on of its bloddhounds last night. The other is at the hotel suffering from strains and brulses sustained by falling from a train last Saturday. The dog had been chained in a milk car and fell out when the door of the car accidentally opened. The dog hung by its harness from the car while the train sped for two miles between Water Gap and Stroudsburg. Finally the harness slipped off and the dog dropped uncoserved to the track. When the company arrived at Strondsburg Manager J. M. Wall instituted a search or the unimal and after considerable mble found it under a farmer's barn nt two miles out of Water Gap. The red dog is named "Don." He is a ughbred, coming from "Tiger," imand "Jess" registered 5730, "Jess" n "Thyrus, 2d," 4866, and "Helen" Thyrus, 2d" was from "Thyrus" 4863. co," both imported. noke Brennan's famous cigars. TRAIN ROBBERS FOOLED.

the Express Beltinde CAMBEN, Ark., Jan. S. -Six masked nonmade an offers to rejethe much bound the ton Belt train at a tank but miles much of Camden. Their object was to sense the express money. The train stages has usual to make water, and the negro parter got off the train to go around to the tank to let the water on. He was stopped how-ever, by a Winchester in his face and ordered to uncomple the cars. This order was obeyed, and the engineer, who was under guard, was made to run the car up from the train a distance of half a mile The bandirs discovered too late that shey had made a water bad, taking the baggage car instead of the express car. They had to take their medicine and go to the woods. The leader told the engineer that he had the laugh on them, but would see him again. The work was so quickly done that the passengers did not know what was going on until the would be cobbers had found a refuge in the dense forest. The scene of the robbery is more than a mile from any residence. There is than a mile from any residence. no better place than this for bandlits to

The senator then said, as to a deal, it is plain that one could not be effected unless through the co-operation of a majority of conmittee seting in conjunction with all the counsel. The statement of this proposition is the best refutation of the

CONDEMNED PRISONERS ESCAPE Two of the Men Were Awaiting Execution of a Death Sentence,

St. JOSEPH. Mo., Jan. 2.-Five desper ate prisoners sawed their way out of the Buchanan county jail here during the night. The fact was not known until merning. By that time the men who were around made good their escape. The escaped prisoners are: Patrick Crowe, Ira Cuctuer, Jos Dusty, William Fulmer and James Owens.

Crowe is one of the men who headed the train robbers who operated so boldly and successfully in this city last winter. He is a desperate man, wanted in half a dezen states for serious crimes. Dusty was un der sentence of death for rape, a stay of execution having been granted to allow the supreme court to pass upon the case. Owens was an Alchison county prisoner sentenced to hang, and his case was also before the supreme court. The other men were in jall for tarceny.

The prisoners escaped by sawing the iron bars of the corridor window and lowering themselves to the ground with ropes. Four saws were found in the jail. Thomas Hickman, a "trusty," was found lying bound and gagged in the corridor, but the authorities assort he furnished the tools, and that he released the prisoner from the cells into the corridor.

P. O. S. OF A. IN SESSION.

Representatives Assemble in County Convention at Pottsville.

Representatives of the Patriotic Order sons of America of Schuylkill county assembled in Pottaville yesterday in an nual session, for the consideration of subjects of much interest to the membership. The meeting was a most successful and enthusiastic one, about thirty-five camps being represented by over one hundred delegates.

A temporary organization was effected, after which the convention selected the following permanent officers: Past President, W. Ramsey Potts, of Pottsville; President, S. L. Brown (State Vice Pres ident), of town; Vice Presidents, A. W. Ward, W. S. Britton, E. L. Hines, Wm. Lowe and A. L. Eckert; Chaplain, A. C. Morgan, of town; Secretaries, C. H. Moyer, of Port Carbon, and F. C. Reese, of town; Master of Forms, Theo. Harris, of Mahanoy City; Conductor, C. T. Straughn, of town; Inspector, S. H. Zim merman, of Pottsville: Guard, S. W. Brown, of Girardville; Treasurer, B. J. Yost, of town.

The following committees were then selected: Credential Committee-S. M. Enterline, Albert Seeling and B. J. Yost; Committee on Resolutions, W. Ramsey Potts, F. S. Herb, W. W. Heffner, John Reese and C. R. Hock,

The morning session was occupied in the organization of the body, and during the afternoon the convention transacted business with closed doors. At the latter ession the state officials put in an appearance and were enthusiastically received.

An interesting address was made by State President Clarence Huth, who was accompanied by State Secretary William Weand, State Treasurer Smith, and ex-State President Frank Spiese.

The next meeting will be held at Pottsville on Washington's Birthday, February 22d, 1896.

A public meeting was held in the Trinity church, under the auspices of the camps of Pottaville, and addresses were made to a large assembly by the state officers.
