and exclusive designs for Out door to-door Toilettes, drawn from Worth is by Sandor and Chapuis, are an importance. These appear every week, accompanied by minute descriptions and details.
Our Paris Letter, by Katharine De Forest, is a weekly transcript of the latest styles and caprices to the mode. Under the head of New York Fashions, plain directions and full particulars are given as to shapes, fabrics, trimmings and accessories of the costumes of well-dressed women. Children's Cloth is received practical attention. A fortnightly "Pattern-heat Supplement" enables readers to cut and make their own gowns. The woman who takes HARPER'S BAZAR is prepared for every occasion in life: ceremonious or informal, where beautiful dress is requisite.
An American serial, Doctor Warrick's Daughters, by Rebecca Harding Davis, a long novel of American life, partly laid in Pennsylvania and partly in the far South, will occupy the last half of the year.
My Lady Nobody, an intensely exciting novel by Maartje Maartens, author of "Gongool," "The Greater Glory," etc., will begin the year.
Essays and Social Chats. To this department the spectator will contribute her charming papers on "What We are Doing" in New York city.

Harper's Magazine
IN 1895.

The Simpletons, a new novel by Thomas Hardy, will be begun in the December Number, 1894, and continued to November, 1895.
Whoever may be one's favorite among English novelists, it will be conceded by all critics that Thomas Hardy stands foremost as a master writer in fiction, and the Simpletons may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trilby—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the Personal Recollections of John of Arc, by the Sieur Louis De Conte, Her Page and Secretary, under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans. In the January Number will appear a profusely illustrated paper on Charleston and the Carolinas, the first of a series of Southern papers.
Northern Africa is attracting more attention than at any other time since it was the seat of empires. The next volume of HAR-PER'S MAGAZINE will contain four illustrated articles on this region, and three of them will depict the present life there. Julian Ishub will prepare for the MAGAZINE a series of eight stories, depicting typical phases of Chinese Life and Manners. Besides the long stories, there will begin in the January Number the first chapters of A Three-Part Novellette, by Richard Harding Davis—the most recent work yet attempted by this writer.
Complete short stories by popular writers will continue to be a feature of the MAGAZINE.

Send for Illustrated Prospectus.

The Volumes of the MAGAZINE begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is mentioned, subscriptions will begin with the Number current at giving all the rest of her money to them. In order to support her count in proper luxury, Florence Divome would gladly see her own mother beggared and is enraged because that mother will not beggar herself.

Mrs. Andeuriel lives in Washington, but has fled from her home to get rid of the persecutions of her noble son-in-law and her ungrateful daughter. They give her no peace. Her income has been reduced to $10,000 a year. She has offered to divide this equally with them if they will go abroad and not worry her any more. But they are fearful of the debts they left behind them in France and refused to go. Meantime this brave, gallant, noble blooded count has sued his mother-in-law to compel her to support him. Nothing like having a nobleman in the family!

Prince and Czar.
The Prince of Wales has never got credit for being either brilliant or statesmanlike, yet he has probably accomplished in a month more than Disraeli, Salisbury or Gladstone was able to do during generations of diplomacy. He has made Russia England's firm friend.
Wales has two qualities that go very far indeed toward the making of a genius as well as a statesman. He has a kindly heart and good common sense, inherited from both his mother and his father.

When the young czar was overcome with a cold scare at the thought of what was before him, it was the strength and wisdom of his uncle, the future king of England, that kept him from breaking down. It is nothing against the poor lad that his nerves gave way.
The death of his father, his own accession to the throne of Russia and his marriage to Alix, all coming at once, would have been a terrible shock to anybody. At least the mind that would not have been torn up by these events is not a mind to be envied. Any one of them would have been enough. But Uncle Wales never deserted his imperial nephew for one moment. He staid beside him, counseled him and infused some of his own nerve and self control into Nicholas II. No wonder the young czar is so grateful that his heart goes out to all England, and the promise is that henceforth the two nations that counted themselves hereditary enemies will be fast friends. The triple alliance of England, Russia and France could dictate the peace and war of all Europe.

The senate had at the beginning of this session 145 bills and resolutions that had been reported favorably by committees last session. These it must first dispose of. The Nicaragua canal question will be one of the first to be decided in both houses. It has been waiting since Senator Sherman tried to have his bill passed three years ago.
There is also waiting to be disposed of the uniform bankruptcy act. This is a bill which has already been considered favorably in the house. It is possible, too, that during the present session Arizona and New Mexico will be admitted as states. The very important question of striking out a new financial policy for the country along the lines of the Baltimore plan or President Cleveland's plan or some other will probably be talked over for weeks, maybe months, but nobody knows whether anything will be done. Another important matter that will be considered is a law allowing railway companies to pool their freight and passenger earnings under restrictions from the interstate commerce commission. These are the chief subjects, aside from appropriation bills, that will occupy the Fifty-third congress during its short session.

The Opposition to Senator Sherman.
TRENTON, Jan. 4.—Senator Sherman Assemblymen Wilbur, Ginder and Eaton, the four Republican representatives from Mercer county in the next legislature, have held a conference on the United States senatorship question, and have formally decided to support General Sewell. The opponents of General Sewell had been lately claiming that at least two of the Mercer members were doubtful, and that perhaps a third could be induced to vote for Franklin Murphy or some other person upon whom the anti's could agree.
It is asserted that the opposition is gaining strength.

Carnegie Predicts Prosperity.
CLEVELAND, Jan. 4.—The Iron Trade Review publishes a letter from Andrew Carnegie, in which he says: "It seems to me that 1895 is going to be a better year for the iron and steel trade than its predecessor. But the sword of Damocles hangs over every phase of business in the United States. That is the sword of silver. Until the country plants itself firmly and forever upon the platform of money of the highest standard value no forecast is worth much."

Opposition to Elkins.
WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 4.—N. E. Whitaker and John A. Hutchinson have announced themselves as candidates for the United States senate against Mr. Elkins.
There will undoubtedly be a strong effort made by these gentlemen to defeat the ex-secretary of war, though upon whom the combination will center its strength is not known.

Postoffice Robbers Arrested.
HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 4.—"Jim" Martin, "Jim" Morgan and "Al" Reid are under arrest on charges of robbing the postoffices at Bastrop, Durham and other places.
This is said to be the gang that has been going to and fro in the state, robbing postoffices, banks and express offices.

Toronto's Boogie Aldermen.
TORONTO, Jan. 4.—Judge McDougall, who presided at the investigation into the charges against certain city aldermen, finds that "illegal, improper and corrupt practices" have been resorted to by certain aldermen in obtaining franchises for contractors for civic franchises.

Congressman Burrows for Senator.
LANSING, Mich., Jan. 4.—The caucus of the Republican members of the legislature for the nomination of a United States senator to fill the unexpired term of Senator Stockbridge, deceased, nominated Congressman Burrows on the second ballot.

Policeman Killed by a Burglar.
CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Patrolman Edward Duddes, of the Larabee street station, was shot and instantly killed last night by a burglar whom he was attempting to place under arrest. The murderer and his pal escaped.

Another Fenian Prisoner Released.
DUBLIN, Jan. 4.—The Freeman's Journal announces that Lord Houghton, lord lieutenant of Ireland, in response to an appeal, has ordered the release of Thomas Cunningham from the Sligo jail.

Scientist in Mid-Ocean.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—The American line steamer Kensington, which reached this port yesterday from Liverpool, reported that on New Year's afternoon Mrs.
Catherine Rounitz, a steamer passenger, leaped overboard and was drowned. She was a Polish woman, aged 40 years, with six children, the eldest of whom is 12 years old and the youngest nine months. She boarded the ship at Liverpool to go to Cleveland, O., where her husband was awaiting her. It is thought that the woman was demented. The children are in care of United States Immigration Commissioner Rogers, pending an answer to a dispatch sent the father.

Resigned by Request.
NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Commander J. D.
Graham, of the steamer Financier, of the Columbian line, has resigned by request of the officials of that company. Commander Graham, as an officer of the navy, was some time ago suspended for seven years by the president, on half pay, for insubordination, and then accepted a position with the Columbian line. It is charged that while at Colon he remarked, "I am no common merchant ship captain. I am an officer of the United States navy." He denies the remark attributed to him. His successor will be Captain Michael J. Daly, late of the Brazil line.

The Bluefields Correspondence.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The president yesterday sent to the senate a full report of the Bluefields affair, comprising all the correspondence relating to the subject which has passed in the last two years, making a formidable document of over 600 pages. It shows that the administration has succeeded in practically settling one of the most annoying international questions that has perplexed this government for about fifty years.

Dissatisfied Railroaders.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 4.—The employees of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company are said to be forming a committee for the purpose of complaining to President Wilbur regarding recent reductions in wages and unpopular changes in the rules. Non-union men are with the Brotherhood men in the movement, and have agreed to serve on the committee and bear two-thirds of the necessary expenses.

Safe Crackers Surprised at Work.
BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 4.—Safe crackers were surprised at work during the night by Harry Clauser, in his father's country store, five miles south of here. Shots were exchanged and one of the thieves badly wounded, for he was traced by blood to near Philadelphia. Sticks of dynamite and a burglar's kit were left behind. The safe contained $1,000.

Found Guilty of Smuggling.
St. PETERSBURG, Jan. 4.—The trial of the thirty-two postoffice employees and merchants who formed a band of smugglers operating on the Russo-Prussian frontier has been concluded. Of the accused persons twenty-seven were found guilty, and were sentenced to imprisonment or transportation.

Defaulter Carter Pleads Guilty.
NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—Edward R. Carter, the defaulting clerk of the National Bank of Commerce, who is charged with embezzling $30,000 from that institution, pleaded guilty before United States Commissioner Shields, and was held for the action of the grand jury.

An Alabama Postoffice Robbed.
DECATUR, Ala., Jan. 4.—The postoffice in this city was robbed of postage stamps, registered letters and packages and money belonging to the government. The loss is about $1,000. Burglars blew open the safe and rifled it of its contents.

ing to Hull, Grimsby and Yarmouth were set during the recent gale.

and snapped it at the beast's head, but it missed fire.
Still retaining his presence of mind, he dead.

Callnet told me of this himself. He was very badly wounded and is still dreadfully lame.
Mr. Young of the civil service heard that a tiger had forced his way into a native hut and was holding it against its human owner. Mr. Young mounted the roof and effected an entrance.
The tiger charged. He fired both barrels and turned to get his second gun from his attendant, but the fellow had bolted.
The tiger was close up, and Mr. Young, in despair, lifted the gun with both hands in front of his head. The beast sprang, seized the barrel in his mouth and then dropped dead. I saw the gun dented with the tiger's teeth.

A Reportorial Tragedy.

The susceptible and diffident reporter bad called on the beautiful young actress to interview her on the elevation of the stage. He had sent up his card and was awaiting her in the reception room.

When she entered, he sat near a window, which, while it blinded her so that she could not see him, poured over her a flood of light and brought out in glorious radiance her entrancing beauty.

For an instant he sat as if spellbound, and then, rising awkwardly and stammering, he came toward her.

As he drew near, her eyes became fixed on him with a horrified stare, and with a fearful shriek she turned and fled from the room.

He had lost his head completely, and she had not yet become accustomed to that sort of thing.—Detroit Free Press.

A Narrow Escape.

McEll—The tenor of the Bostonians came very near being arrested on Washington street yesterday.

O'Kief—What for?

McEll—Barnabee told a policeman that he was Robin Hood the night before, but the cop refused to take him in unless Hood appeared to press the charge.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Solitude of Society.

Algy—And you will be mine alone?

Mabel—Yes, I'll be yours alone if you have a few hundred friends you can invite to keep the evenings from being too utterly tiresome!—New York Advertiser.

Well Heeled.

British Tourist—Do you have many re-peaters at these western elections?

Quick Drop Dan—Waal, no, not many has wincheesters, but we all have revolvers.
