THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Sanitary and Other Matters Discussed Last Night.

ANNUAL REPORTS READY.

They Are Lengthy, But Very Interesting and Will be Published in Pamphlet Form for Distribution.

The Board of Health held a regular meeting last night and heard reports from its officers and committees. The Horricks case was again discussed, and the board concluded to drop the matter until such time as the people residing in the vicinity where the nuisance exists are prepared to give the board some assistance by helping to establish a public nuisance.

Secretary Scanlan reported that there are three cases of diphtheria and one of scarlet fever in the town and during the past two weeks there were eighteen deaths.

The member of the board from the Third ward has not been in attendance at the meetings since last May. Last night the board declared the seat vacant and directed the secretary to communicate with the Borough Council and suggest that the vacancy be filled.

President Spalding and Secretary Scanlan read their reports for the year ending January 1st, 1895. They were lengthy and exhaustive, but very interesting. The Secretary's report gives statistics of cases of disease with the number and causes of death and the number of each nationally affected. He devotes some space to the question of sewerage and recommends that the borough take it up.

The President's report is of particular interest. It is practically an essay on the sanitary condition of the town and the most feasible means for improving it. He strongly condemns the rookeries and urges the borough to give the purchase of a garbage crematory serious consideration. Some space was devoted to condemnation of the crowding of buildings on lots, and the President declared that some places inhabited by human beings are unfit for animals.

The reports are to be forwarded to the State Board of Health, but will first be printed for distribution among the people and will be read before the next meeting of the Borough Council.

Oyster Pot-Pie at McElhenry's.

There is no denying the fact that Mr. McElhenry is endeavoring to cater to the public wants. That he has struck a popular chord in the feelings of the people by his delicious free lunches is evidenced by the large crowds who partake of the same. To-night he invites you to enjoy a plate of oyster pot-pie, one of the most acceptable of lunches.

A BREWERY SOLD.

Max Schmidt, of Town, Interested in a Shamokin Purchase.

Martin Markle, of Shamokin, has sold his brewery to Henry Fuhrman, of Mahanoy City, and it is understood that the purchase price was $38,000. The transfer includes all of the land, buildings and other improvements located at Eagle Run, about two miles south of town. It is expected that the transfer will be effected by the middle of February. The brewery is a three-story frame structure on the banks of Eagle Run, in Coal township, about two miles from Shamokin. Thirty-five acres of land surrounding it are included in the transfer as are also two double and two single frame dwellings and a big reservoir that has a plentiful supply of the best water in the state. Its capacity is about 1,500 barrels of beer per month and it is worked by ten employees. Mr. Fuhrman is now connected with the C. D. Kaiser Company.

Max Schmidt, the dry goods dealer of this town, is Mr. Fuhrman's partner in the Shamokin brewery enterprise. Mr. Schmidt will dispose of his business and all his property here and move to Shamokin as soon as the sales can be consummated.

He Was on Fire.

While Robert Painter, of Gilberton, was walking down the mountain side from Turkey Run to town last evening he met a Polish man who was very much intoxicated and heavily laden with bundles. The man's overcoat was in a blaze and almost half burned away, but he did not seem to notice it. Mr. Painter went to the man's rescue and extinguished the fire. The Pole sobered up somewhat after realizing the situation and walked away in an ugly mood, muttering something about his pipe, which had evidently been placed in a pocket of the coat while lighted. Mr. Painter received several painful burns on his wrists and hands.

Sleigh Upset.

A woman residing in the Catawissa Valley, whose name could not be learned, was thrown from a sleigh at the Lloyd street crossing of the Lehigh Valley railroad this morning by a runner of the sleigh catching between a rail and a plank and causing the vehicle to upset. She escaped injury. A train stopped at the crossing just after the accident and this led to a report that the sleigh had been struck by the train.

Bank Stock Sold.

Laburg, late of this place and now of Philadelphia.

An Imposter.

EDITOR HERALD:—A party has called upon several people of town asking aid for Heselton, or Heselbine, of the First ward, saying that he is sick and unable to work. Christ Heselbine states that he is neither sick nor unable to work, and is working, and anyone asking for money for his benefit is a fraud and imposter. CHRIST HESSELBINE. Shenandoah, January 13th, 1895.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Some Townsmen Who Trifle With the Law.

FAIL TO APPEAR AT COURT

A Law Suit Over a Keg of Porter Runs a Bill of Costs to Over Two Hundred Dollars.

Joseph Sherzofsky, Andrew Skrobel, Joseph Mezalefsky and William Wiszewsky were summoned to the bar of the Pottsville criminal court yesterday to answer a charge on oath of Matt. Strozinski. All the parties reside in Shenandoah. He keeps a saloon on East Lloyd street. On the night of the 16th of July, last, a barrel of porter was stolen from the cellar of the place. On the morning of July 18th, Officer Walatis found an empty porter keg bearing Strozinski's private mark in the yard of Mezalefsky's property. From this clue the arrest of all the defendants named followed, it having been learned that all of them had been carousing on the night of July 16th and morning of the 17th. One of the party also furnished a clue by inadvertently remarking that it would have been cheaper to buy a keg of porter. The case was first returned to the September term of court and continued to the November and January terms owing to the fact that Wiszewsky jumped his bail and the other defendants, from time to time, failed to appear. It was finally forced to trial yesterday, M. M. Burke, Esq., appearing for the Commonwealth and P. M. Dunn, Esq., for the defendants. Judge Bechtel refused an application to take the case from the jury and the jury rendered a verdict finding Joseph Sherzofsky and Andrew Skrobel guilty of receiving stolen goods. Skrobel was called to the bar and sentenced to three months imprisonment, $25 fine and the costs. Sherzofsky could not be found and a capias was issued for him. Wiszewsky did not show up at the trial at all and his whereabouts are unknown. Mezalefsky was acquitted on the ground that when allowing the keg to be taken into his house he did not know it was stolen. The costs in the case amount to over $200.

More Suggestions.

DEAR HERALD:—As the columns of your valuable paper seem to be open for suggestions relative to available candidates to fill the vacancies that will occur in the different borough offices this spring, permit me to take advantage of the same and name two men for election to the Borough Council from the Second ward, men of acknowledged business integrity and honesty, who are eminently qualified to fill any position in the gift of the people of our town, and whose character as business men and citizens is above reproach; men who are owners of considerable real estate and have no relative, or friends, to reward. Allow me to place before the voters of the Second ward the names of Mr. F. E. Magargle, and Mr. Frank Schmidt, men who can be elected, who have a host of friends and who are legion.

Shenandoah, Jan. 12, 1895.

Dr. Biddle's Re-election.

The re-election of Dr. J. C. Biddle as superintendent and surgeon of the Mineral Hospital, at Fountain Springs, for a term of five years is but a just recognition of the invaluable services Dr. Biddle has rendered at the institution for so many years and the announcement has been received with gratification by the hundreds of people who have shared in the blessings of the institution. The re-election was made without a dissenting voice. The hospital stands second to none in the state and the skillful treatment patients have received there has met with recognition from the leading surgical institutions of the country. The action of the trustees in unanimously deciding to retain Dr. Biddle show that they study the interests of those for whom the hospital was created.

The "Y" Meeting To-night.

The meeting of the "Ys" this evening in Robbins' hall in the postoffice building will prove interesting with the following program: Scripture reading, Charles Bashore; singing, "Ys"; essay, Miss Mary Pomeroy; solo, Miss Brown; reading, Raymond Ehrhart; declamation, Miss Annie Lawson; instrumental music, John Hough; question box, John Danks; critic, Thomas Rogers. All young men are cordially invited to attend the Sunday afternoon prayer meetings at 3.30 o'clock.

Another Society.

A new local secret society to be known as "The Saint Peter and Paul's Greek Catholic Beneficial Society" has been organized and an application for a charter will be made by M. M. Burke, Esq., on the 4th of February, next. The character and object of the society are the maintenance of an organization for beneficial and protective purposes, by establishing a beneficial fund, and the cultivation of a spirit of charity and benevolence.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Elect business men to Council. Only first-class men should be elected to the School Board. There will be quite a scramble for the different ward offices. Let reform be the watchword at the coming spring election. Give the Crawford county system a fair trial. It is bound to win favor. Don't fail to elect to the Council and School Board men who can waive self interest. High Constable and Auditor are the only borough officers to be elected next month. George H. Krick has been frequently named as a suitable candidate for Borough Auditor. If you are a candidate for office make the announcement through the HERALD. Advertising rates reasonable.
