EAGLE-EYED LEWIS.

The Court Docket Clerk Understands His Business.

Witnesses who work the docket clerk under aliases have been discovered, says to-day's Miners' Journal. For years these professional fee gatherers have successfully fished the treasury, but a stop has been put to the practice. Yesterday a witness calling himself Thomas Gryzinski, a Poland, living at Shenandoah, appeared at the docket clerk's desk and demanded an order on the treasury for witness fees. The clerk found the name on his books and figured up that Gryzinski had earned $5.03 as a witness. Just at this moment Clerk Lewis asked the witness if he had not been a prosecutor in a case tried in court some time ago. He admitted he had, whereupon the clerk asked him if he did not represent himself as Thomas Gressang, on that occasion, and as Thomas Crushane on another. He denied the soft impeachment but the clerk who has a good memory, besides an eye as sharp as the eagle's, was sure that the man owed the county costs amounting to $22.75. The record of the case was in front of the clerk and he turned to the page containing the name of Thomas Gressang, prosecutor. The clerk turned to another page and found an entry in which Thomas Crushane lost the case and never settled up the costs. At this point the witness tried to explain, but the eagle-eyed clerk gave him a lecture and got rid of him by giving him credit for $5.03, the amount of his fee. This man is at court at almost every quarter session and the clerk sized him up without making a mistake. Thomas Crushane, alias Thomas Gressang, alias Thomas Gryzinski, still owes the county $17.73 according to the docket clerk's books. He may be able to liquidate the debt by rendering service as a witness, but it will take some time.

"THE OUTCAST."
The romantic drama, "The Outcast," presented at the opera house last night, was a complete success. Its story is told with simplicity and directness, its scenes are carried on amid such picturesque surroundings as never fail to gratefully surround the eye, and bits of comedy of a kind that invariably appeal to a popular assemblage, alternate with pathos that stirs with unflinching swiftness the emotions of the throng. Harold Holmes wins the sympathy of his spectators at once, and in the third act rouses them to unwonted excitement by his meeting with his enemy and his simple bravery and determination. —Atlanta Constitution. Will be produced at Ferguson's theatre, Tuesday, Jan. 15th.

CARTER'S NEW PLAY.
The claim is made for Lincoln J. Carter's new scenic play, "The Tornado," that its realism is of such an imposing nature that even the pictorial matter used in advertising the play do not do the piece justice, that the scenes depicted by the posters are actually so much more impressive when seen, as Mr. Carter presents them in his play, that one must acknowledge that for once the printer's ink has not overdone things. This, of course, is a novelty in theatrical advertising. But he promised that there should be nothing but novelties in "The Tornado," and Mr. Carter has shown in the past that he knows how to build astonishing things for the stage, so we will wait and see his new play at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening next, before we comment further.

The Crippled Telephones.
The Shenandoah service of the Pennsylvania Telephone Company remained crippled until this afternoon, when Manager Moore succeeded in getting the system in operation again. During the storm on Thursday a telephone wire at the corner of Main and Poplar streets broke down under the storm and load of sleet and ice and fell upon the Schuykill Traction Company's trolley wire. The current from the trolley burned out in the telephone boxes in the offices of the Pennsylvania railroad depot, Hodson & Co., and Wasley's (Exchange), rendering the Shenandoah service useless. The box at the Wm. Penn colliery was also damaged by the current.

Governor Matthews Denounces Roby.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 12.—In his annual message Governor Matthews makes a vigorous onslaught on the Roby Fair association, which he describes as simply an immense gambling concern, with a racing attachment to give it the appearance of respectability. VALUED ENDORSEMENT.

SCHAGHTICOKE, N. Y.—It is ignorance rather than anything else that makes life miserable, but ignorance of the value of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy does not exist in Schaghticoke to-day, as a blood medicine and nerve tonic it stands supreme. One of the principal reasons for its popularity comes from the great benefit our fellow townsman, Andrew Sipperley, derived from its use. Mr. Sipperley has suffered for years past, with a chronic kidney trouble, frequent bilious attacks, and, at last, frequent violent neuralgia in the head and face. Up to last fall he rarely knew a well day. At that time his wife, who had learned of the good Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy had accomplished, determined to have him use it. In writing about his sickness, Mr. Sipperley said: "For several years I was subject to attacks of kidney trouble and gravel, which was attended with most excruciating pain, but since I began the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy I have had no serious trouble, and my general health is greatly improved. I know of a great many people about here who have used Favorite Remedy, and in every instance benefit has followed. One of the officers of the Albany, N. Y., hospital, recently said, in speaking of Favorite Remedy: "I know of its great medical value, and to my knowledge it cures the diseases for which it is prepared."

The great value of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy lies in the fact that it dissolves the excess of uric acid in the blood. Such ailments as rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, dyspepsia, kidney, liver and urinary troubles, and the sickness peculiar to women all come from this one cause. Favorite Remedy dissolves this acid and expels it from the system, thus curing the disease. In cases of scrofula, diabetes and Bright's disease, it has cured where other treatments have failed.
