

AMUSEMENTS.

HEBE RIEL IN "THE OUTCAST." Bebe Riel, who made her first appearance before a Trenton audience last night, is certainly one of the best fancy dancers on the stage.

"THE TORNAO." Lincoln J. Carter, the successful young author and manager of "The Fast Mail," announces as his second bid for approval, "The Tornado," and recognizing that much of his great success with his first play was due to the fact that he always kept faith with the public, he has adopted as a trade mark this motto: "To hold as well as win success, keep all your play bill promises."

Tedious Suffering Finds Relief. Haverhill, N. H.—Many physicians have pronounced as incurable, diseases of the skin and blood. Mrs. Hodson of this place abandoned the old school method and used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and was cured.

In October, 1890, and for a year after, Mrs. Hodson suffered from a diseased ankle bone. She had always been troubled with Salt Rheum which aggravated the diseased limb.

Favorite Remedy cleanses the blood, and strengthens the nerves. In cases of scrofula and salt rheum, it cures where all else fails.

There is good reason for the popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Davis & Buzard, of West Montrose, Clarion Co., Pa., says: "It has cured people that our physicians could do nothing for. We persuaded them to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and they now recommend it with the rest of us."

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

An Appeal to Illinois for the Protection of Lincoln's Tomb. HARRISBURG, Jan. 13.—Both branches of the legislature reconvened last evening. In the house resolutions were passed and addresses made on the deaths of Representatives Cassa of Bedford, Hewitt of Blair and Taggart of Montgomery. A resolution was also adopted to the effect that as the tomb of Lincoln is in a neglected condition under the care of the Lincoln Monument association, the governor of Illinois be requested by the legislature of Pennsylvania to ask the legislature of Illinois to take the monument under the care and control of that state.

Among the bills introduced were the following: Prohibiting the killing of deer for three years; for a board of supervisors to keep highways in order; providing for assessment and collection of school taxes in townships, boroughs and cities of the third class; making it a misdemeanor to give a false fire alarm; abolishing days of grace; amending the act of 1891 regarding free inter-county bridges; taxing commercial agencies and providing penalty for improper rating; exempting from execution, attachment or seizure by any legal process all money received by any resident of the state as a pension from the United States government.

The bill to create a new banking department was unfavorably reported.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

Senators Hill and Gorman Engage in a War of Words.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Stirring interest was given to the senate proceedings yesterday by the speeches of Senator Gorman of Maryland, and Senator Hill of New York, on various phases of the tariff and financial situation. At times the debate between the two distinguished Democratic senators took on an added interest from the keen personal criticism and satire directed at each other. Mr. Gorman spoke for two hours. The speech was mainly remarkable in its array of facts to show that the tariff law which Mr. Gorman took so large a part in framing was wholly insufficient in raising the revenue absolutely requisite to carry on the government. In presenting this view Mr. Gorman dwelt on the personal features of the contest over the Wilson bill, and arraigned Mr. Hill for his attitude then and since on the tariff question.

The speech of Mr. Hill was equally vigorous and equally personal, and was received with the same close attention from his associates and intense interest in the galleries as had been shown to the Maryland senator. Mr. Hill directed his remarks mainly at Mr. Gorman, who sat only a few feet away.

Senator Allison, of Iowa, also contributed to the features of the day by a short but very effective presentation of the need of immediate legislation on the tariff to raise revenue, instead of further fruitless agitation of currency revision.

Fillbusting tactics again defeated the Grout oleomargarine bill, which was under consideration during the morning hour in the house. By a special order from the rules committee the remainder of the day was consumed with business reported from the judiciary committee.

W. W. TAYLOR'S BONDSMEN.

They Will Be Made Penitent by the Ex-Treasurer's Defalcation.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—A secret conference of the bondsmen of W. W. Taylor, the defaulting treasurer of South Dakota, was held here yesterday. After the meeting ex-Governor C. E. Mellotte declared that he never expects to see Taylor again unless he is captured. As to the defaulting treasurer's whereabouts the ex-governor said he had not the slightest idea, and he refused to hazard a guess. Taylor, he thought, took about $200,000 with him when he disappeared.

"There are two theories talked in Pierra," said Mr. Mellotte, "regarding Taylor's disappearance. One is that he placed the mortgages and got together all that money with the intention of making a settlement. The other is that he secured the money for the simple purpose of getting away with it. As to which theory is correct I am unable to say."

"How will the disappearance affect the bondsmen?" Mr. Mellotte was asked.

"Affect them," he answered curtly, "why it will simply affect them by practically taking every cent every one of the bondsmen has. The bondsmen must make their bonds good."

FRANK, S. D., Jan. 13.—The house and senate met in joint executive session, and Attorney General Crawford asked for authority and means to proceed against the bondsmen of W. W. Taylor resident in other states. He notified the session of the receipt of a telegram stating that the name of W. W. Taylor appeared on the passenger list of the steamer Persia, which left New York several days ago.

Tied and Whipped by Burglars.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Jan. 13.—Masked robbers entered the house of David McBride during the night, tied the farmer and his wife to chairs, and tried whipping and threat of torture to compel them to give up their money. After ransacking the house $15 in money and some valuables were secured. When the robbers left they took McBride and his wife into an unused room and locked them in. They were nearly frozen to death when discovered by neighbors and released.

Paris Anarchists Unsuppressed.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—A bomb explosion occurred at about midnight in front of 65 Rue Monnaie, and is believed to have been the work of anarchists. Nobody was killed, but considerable damage was done to property. The police believe that the explosion was directed against M. Athalin, the magistrate who conducted the inquiries into the outrages committed by Ravachol and other anarchists.

Three Boys Terribly Burned.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 13.—While standing around the northern dump, where a lot of refuse was being burned, Oscar Vance, aged 14 years, George Shorter, 14, and John Gross, 18, were badly burned and may die. An explosion from an old coal oil barrel covered them with the burning fluid and turned them into human torches.

Diphtheria Raging at Laurel, Md.

LAUREL, Md., Jan. 13.—Diphtheria is raging with much violence here, and there have been six deaths within the past few days, and a large number of others are stricken with it. It is claimed that the disease was allowed to spread by the authorities, who tried to keep the facts hidden.
