REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

Committee Men Falter on the Adoption of a Name.

TIME GROWING SCARCE !

Candidates and Prospective Candidates Asked to Meet the Standing Committee Next Friday Evening.

A meeting of the Republican Standing Committee was held in the rooms of the Shenandoah Republican League last evening to consider matters pertaining to the coming spring election.

Mr. William T. Trezise, representing the Shenandoah Republican League, preseuted a report made to that organization by a committee appointed to make a canvass and ascer a n the sentiment as to a rstention of the title "Citizeus Party," or the adoption of "Republican Party." The report strongly favored the retention of the old name and set forth reasons at s me length. After discussion it became a parent that there was quite a difference Result of the Meeting Held at Pottsville of opinion among members of the Stand ing Committee as to the name and it was finally decided to leave the matter open until a full attendance of committeemen can be secured.

It is more than probable that the old name will be retained, but it is desired that all the committee men shall have an opportunity to consult with their constituents on the question. Inquiry thus far made shows the majority sentiment in favor of the old name.

Whether or not the name is changed the Crawford county system of conducting the primaries will be given a trial this year to see if it will not at least re duce the imposition that is practiced by the Democratic voters. The blanks have been secured. By recording the names of the voters the Republicans, or Citizens, as the case may be, will be in a better position to call repeaters to account and show who vote at both primaries. The Standing Committee will meet again next Friday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, sharp. The meeting will be held at the same place, in the Shenandoah Republi can League rooms, Refowich building. It is expected that all candidates and pro spective candidates for office on the Republican or Citizens ticket will be in attendance. The committee desires their attendance to consult on some very important preliminaries that must be arranged. If the primaries are to be held as those of the Citizens party it will be necessary to secure signatures to a num ber of nomination papers, and as at least two members of the committee have de-clared that they cannot do this work it is essential that there shall be an understanding between the committee and the candidates as to who will do it. There is no spare time on hand and something definite must be done at the next meeting of the committee. The

THE STATE LEAGUE.

Yesterday. The State League of base ball clubs met at Pottsville yesterday and will meat again at Allentown on March 5th. John J. Hanfon presided at the meeting and the attendants noted were William Sharsig, representing Hasleton ; John Milligan, Allentown; William Abbot Witman, Reading ; William S. Brennan Shenandoah; Martin Swift, Carbondale John F. Smith and Edward A. Moyer, Pottsville: James Smith, Ashland. Harrisburg was represented by the proxy of John Hanlon, William Parks, of Easton, arrived late. Lancaster was not represented. The pennant question was not conddered. It was deferred until the next neeting. The circuit has been reduced to light clubs, Easton and Ashland not ncluded. Each club must deposit $500 with the Pottsville Trust Company as a guarantee to play out the season.

LA GRIPPE THREATENING !

TOPICS OF

Physicians Say an Attack May be Exp cted-Brilliant Career of a Former Resident of This Place.

There seems to be an agreement among medical men that la grippe, which made its ravages in this region some winters ago, will visit this vicinity again in the near future. It is hoped the agreement will be void,

The proposed Quay county will take a large slice of Luzerne and a small corner of Schuylkill, including Rush township. The Schuylkill end will be bounded by and include Delano. That portion of Schuyikill county is credited in Hazleton with having 1,000 inhabitants, but 1,500 would be nearer the mark.

All attempts to trace the miscreant who naused the wreck on the Lehigh Valley railroad, near Packer No. 4 coiliery, on Saturday last, have failed, but there seems to be a universal prayer that he will soon be caught and punished as he richly deserves. The company will no doubt fulfill the duty it owes the public by exhausting every source that may tend to lead to the capture of the culprit. Train wreckers are of a class second to none in the criminal world and this case savors of pure maliciousness.

In a historical sketch of St. Paul's church, an old Philadelphia fortress of Methodism, the Press of that city makes favorable mention of the present pastor of the church, Rev. Charles Roads, who s an ex-resident and ex-school teacher of this borough. As our readers take a deep interest in the affairs of Schuylkill 21 of Each, county people (especially those of Shenandoah) who attain high positions on the ladder of fame elsewhere, a brief blographical sketch of Rev. Roads will be appreciated here, especially by old residents who remember Rev. Roads as a young man. Rev. Charles Roads was born near Reading, Pa., in 1855, and after attending the public schools graduated with honor from the Lebanon Valley College. At an early age he connected himself with the Methodist church and began work in the Sunday school. After serving in several responsible business positions he taught school for four years serving two terms as principal of the grammar school at Shenandoah, Pa. Entering the ministry in 1876, his first charge was at Millersville, Lancaster county, Pa., afterward becoming pastor of the Methodist churches at Lower Merion, Bryn Mawr, Lancaster city and Mt. Joy: he participated in the noted revivals at the two last places. He served ve years at the Nineteenth street church

Carter's New Play.

The claim is made for Lincoln J2 larter's new scenic play, "The Tornado," that its realisms are of such an imposing nature that even the pictorial matter used Pennsylvania State Union of Christian in advertising the play do not do the piece justice, that the scenes depicted by the posters are actually so much more came widely known as the leader of this impressive when seen, as Mr. Carter presents them in his play, that one must acknowledge that for once the printer's ink has not overdone things. This, of course, is a novelty in theatrical advertising. But he promised that there should the Social Purity Alliance, and is well be nothing but novelties in "The Tornado," and Mr. Carter has shown in the past that he knows how to build astonishing of several -rominent works in religious things for the stage, so we will wait and see his new play at Ferguson's theatra to-morrow evening, before we comment further.
