GOVERNOR HASTINGS

Inauguration of Pannsylvania's New Chief Magistrate.

BRILLIANT INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

He Talks Eloquently of the Relations Between Capital and Labor and the Necessity of Wise Legislation on the Subject. Favors a Higher Education.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 16.—Daniel Hartman Hastings, the humble school teacher of twenty years ago, was yesterday formally installed in the highest office in the second greatest state of the union. The inauguration was, in many respects, the most at tractive ever seen at the state capitol. The city is crowded with political clubs, no tional guardsmen and civic societies, who commenced coming in at the break of day The crowded thoroughfares, handsomely decorated public buildings and great gath-ering of distinguished men attest the poprelating of distinguished men attest the popularity of the new governor, whose plurality exceeded the combined pluralities of all the executives chosen in Pennsylvania since the formation of the Republican party. The people of this city vied with those of other parts of the state in making the inautometric as recognition. the inauguration a memorable one At 11:30 sharp the chief marshal and staff, Brigadier General J. P. S. Gobio and staff; Hon John E. Reyburn, marshal Second division, and staff; Major I B. Brown, marshal Third division, and staff; Charles F. Deiker, marshal Fourth division, and shaff; State College carlets guard of henor, Lieutenant E. W. Caskey, U. S. A., commanding, and the Governor's Troop, escorted from the executive mansion the governor, governor-elect, licuten ant governor, lieutenant governor-elect justices of the supreme court, joint com-mittee of the senate and house, represent-atives, heads of departments, and other invited guests.

Governor Hastings was greeted with much enthusiasm when he entered the partico of the capitol with his party. After a selection by the Third Regiment band, of Pottsville, Chief Clerk Smiley, of the senate, read the certificate of election. The oath of either was then administered by Chief Lucies Science Theorem Chief Justice Sterrett. Then followed prayer by Rev. Dr. W.A. Houck, of Hazle-ton, after which Governor Hastings began the delivery of his inaugural address, in the course of which he said in part: "The people of the state and of the country are now happily emerging from a period of financial and industrial embarrassment which has wrought great injury and distress among all branches of indus-try and employment. Two political revo-lutions have taken place within two years that severely tested the stability of the form of government under which we live From both, the country has come forth stronger and grander, and the people, with more confidence in the future of our polit-ical institutions. A great body of legislation which, during a constructive growth of thirty years, has become almost a part of our organic system, was apparently overturned in the results of a single clastion. Two years later a far more emphatic and decisive revolution of public judgment restored the principle of American

"I venture the opinion and hope that, with returning confidence as to the future, we are gradually entering upon a period of encouraging and healthy business res-COPRLICON.

"The wage earning population of the state has, beyond doubt, suffered more by reason of the industrial conditions just ientioned than any other portion of our sople. Tmy nave been haited not only reduced wages, but in many instance by absence of opportunity to earn any wages. It cannot be denied that the hand of toll, applied to her native stores of wealth, has done more to make our com-monwealth the keystone of the federal arch than even her commanding geographical position. Pennsylvania is the distinctive industrial commonwealth. Her wage carners should receive fostering care in every legislative enactment affecting is not only injurious to both, but hurtful to every related interest. The great ener gles and industries of the state are as essary to labor as labor is to them. Both should be protected in their rights. Both should be given equal legislative op-portunity. A dollar is a conscientions thing. Of itself it earns no interest and declares no dividends, and is incapable of much good or harm. Its aggregated power, with intellectual force behind it, is incalculable for good or for evil.

"The state that permits large aggrega-tions of capital to be employed should surround the artificial person thus created with the same restrictions, privileges and protection which it gives the individual citizen. The laws affecting such should be just and equitable. Neither should be a target for the demagogue or the tool of the svaricious. Every man has the rightto sell his labor at his own price, and is entitled to protection in its performance. Labor has the right to organize for mutual protection and advantage, the same as cap ital; but neither labor nor capital has the right to combine to prevent men from working at any price they please, no more than capital has the right to control or pervert the natural channels of industry so as to depress the price of labor or raise

"The apparent legal obstacles confronting what is generally termed compulsory arbitration, and the disinchination to volcomparatively ineffective in this country. some sure legal method of ascertaining be facts and laying them bare to the pulic before disputes result in violation of w. destruction of property, or injury to poblic rights, whether denominated con-cillation or arbitration, would bring the merits of both odes of the contest before the public for its Judgment, where the right is oure to prevail." In discussing the question of education the governor said "I hope the time is not distant when our great state from the abundance of her wealth will provide through her school system the opportunity to every boy and girl within her borders to obtain a thorough preparation for any calling or profession, as free from cost in the higher-branches as the radiments of an education may now be obtained in our pownship schools. The governor urged state ald in the line provements of roots the elamination of the officers of building and toan associations by state officers, and said of the farmig winterests: The farming industry in Pennsylvania to by far the largest single interest, and in every adjustment of legislation should rethe provention and remember on of the ones of farm and had, the sale of farm tzers, the biginty improvement subject of the the preservation of our forests, and the matter of good public roads, were to be asestabled in one department it would not only elevate and beautiff the agricultural interests of the state, and assist the value-ble efforts of the state board of agriculture, but also place the entire interest upon a broader and more comprehensive and of-fective basis, and at probably little more expense to the state than the present es-tablishment."

The inauguration ceremonies concluded with the Rev. Dr. Honek announcing the benedletion.

The inaugural parade moved from Third and Market streets at the close of the cere monles at the capitol. The clubs and or ganizations began assembling at 10 o'clock in the streets assigned for their respective formations. A warning gun was fired on Capitol Hill at 1 o'clock, and a starting gun fifteen minutes later, when the parade moved in columns of eight. Several thousand nion were in line including members of the National Guard, political clubs from all parts of the state and volunteer fire ompanles. The ceremonies were continued at 8 o'clock last evening with a brilliant dis-play of fireworks in Market square and the reception at the executive mansion The doors were thrown open to the public at 8 o'clock and from that hour until 11 the new governor and his wife-were "at home" to everybody. Prior to the recep tion Governor and Mrs Hastings dired Lieutonant Governor and Mrs Walter Lyon General and Mrs Frank Roeder, General and Mrs Henry Clay McCormick. Colonel and Mrs James H Lambert and Mrs and Mrs Legis M. Balting who as Mr and Mrs. Lowis M Beitler, who as sisted them to receive Private Secretary Beitler stood at the right of the receiving line and introduced the guests to Governor Hastings

The members of Governor Hastings cabinet were sworn in by Deputy Secre-tary of the Commonwealth Tilden, in the governor's office, after their nominations had been confirmed by the senate. To day they assumed their places. James M. Auter, of Harrisburg will act as messen-ger in the executive department; Eliza-beth Straton of Harrisburg, as sten-ographer, is succeeded by Miss Jennie Fauble, of Bellefoute, and Wilbur F. Harris, of the same place, supplants P. D. Caffery, of Luzerne, as executive clerk. Assistant Executive Clerk Rober, of Belle-fonts, will be retained until the close of the legislative session.

The governor will send to the senate the names of Major Isaac B. Brown, of Corry to be secretary of internal affairs, and Col onel B. F. Gilkeson, to be superintenden and Addicks, Dover, Jan. 10.—The fight for a succ sor to Senator Anthony Higgins, which soded with a deadlock in the Republican paners, was transferred to the legislature yesterday, when both houses balloted for senator. The net result of the vote was:

Higgins, 10; Addicks, 6; Massoy, 3; Walcott (Dem.), 10; Tunnel (Dem.), 1.

There is no election in this, and it is not believed that there will be any change from the above figures for this week at

The Republicans are now in for a bitter fight, and it is considered impossible for blicm to agree upon either. Higgins or Adicks. The general opinion is that a dark orse will be chosen, or that there will be no choice at this session. The chances for Massey in a protracted struggle are con idered excellent. Democratic politicians here claim to have assurances from the Addicks men that they will vote for a Democrat in pref rence to Higgins, but he must be a pro nounced Saulsbury Democrat, which would leave the Democratic caucus nominee, Chancellor Walcott, out in the cold The house and senate both adjourned after ballotting for senator to attend the manguration of Governor Marvil. On reassembling both branches adjourned with out further action.

bert yesterday made public his decision in the case of Naval Cadet Stanley P. Bennets, of Maine, a member of the first class at Annapolis, charged with copying from Cadet Brumby at an examination and with denying the copying. The result of the secretary's decision in this case, which he says is of extraordinary interest and gravity, is to reverse the findings of the academic board, to dismiss the case against Bennett and to order his release from ar rest. The report of an expert bears out the secretary's conclusion that there is a easonable doubt as to whether Cadet Bennett is not lunocent.

A PRESIDENT RESIGNS.

Republic, Tired of Office.

M. BRISSON MAY SUCCEED HIM

The Retiring Statesman Refused to Listen to the Appeal of His Ministers to Induce Him to Resunsider His Action, Cause of His Retirement.

PARIS, Jan 16.—It was announced has night that M. Casimir-Perier, president of the French republic, had resigned office. During the evening M. Casimir-Perier outerred with the president of the senat-M. Challemel Lacour, and announced hi intention to resign. M. Challemel Lacou employed his utmost eloquence in a vair employed his utmost eloquence in a vair endeavor to persuade the president to re-consider his decision. All the members of the cabinet, from Prime Minister Dupuy lownward, followed M. Chatlemel-Laco and exhausted every argument to indu-M Casimir Perior not to resign. Their efforts were without success. Then the president's mother, 80 years old, was sent to appeal to her son, but she too was un strepussiful. At 9 o'clock M. Casimir Porier sent a short letter to M. Dupuy, informing him that his decision was irrovocable, and beg-ging him to announce the fact. M. Dupuy accepted the task thus imposed upon him.

M. BRIESON

and, as on the occasion of the death of M. Carnot, finds himself again confronted with the transmission of powers involving difficulties of every description, aris ing from the unexpected position of af-fairs.

A second official note was issued at mid at full Speed. The Mighty night officially amnouncing the restone from Sea Scane, with Water Bunning Mountain High. Chirage his farewell address to the chamilton of denuties. The note says that, in the er-of the president, Monday's sitting of th chamber, and the vote which overthrow the enbluck, were only secondary. Incidents of the struggle which is preceding again the purliamentary regime and public its ortics. M Casimir-Perfer had hoped tha he president of the republic, who is degived of means of action, would have been exempted from party attacks, am that the political confidence of the Repub leans would have accorded him power and authority. He had also loosed that those who, despite bimself, had placed him in a sosition where he was unable to defend imself would have undertaken the decase of the first magistrate.

Continuing, the note says that the pres-dent has requested the ministers to tem perarily withdraw their codgustions in order to facilitate the necessary changes. The greatest perplexity reigns in all po-litical centers. When the facts became known conservation, amounting almost known emiscipation, amounting almost to stupe, solved every one. There had been outliers lights in the press that M. Cashair P ster was growing tired of his position, yet nothed paid attention to them. The high character, experience, firmness and integrity of the president insulated the confidence of even the advanced Republicans.

On Nov. 4-last M. Gerault-Richard was sentenced to service term of one year sim-prisonment and to pay a fine of 4,000 framestream than to by a fine of 4,000 frames for putalishing an article in Le Chomard streamly reflecting upon President Casi-mir-Perior. On Dec. 2, when aby-election was held to fill a vacancy in the first con-se, thency of the Third district, M. Gerault-Richard was put forward as a candidate, and after a roballot was elected.

Shortly afterwards, on Jan. 10, there was a discussion of a heated nature in the chamber of deputies on the question of re-leasing M. Gerault Richard from prison leasing M. Corsuit Richard from prison, in view of his having been elected a member of the chamber of deputies, and Premior Dupuy declared that his ministry would resign if his release was voted by the chamber. The premier's threat to resign had the desired effect, and the proposal was rejected. But the debate on the motion is said to have affected President Casimir-Perior very strongly, and he fretted under the criticisms.

There was another matter which served. There was another matter which served to irritate President Casimir-Perier con-siderably, and that was the election on Dec. 18 of M. Henri Brisson to the presi-dency of the chamber of deputies. In suc-cession to the late M. Burdean. M. Brisson, it will be remembered, polled the highest number of votes, after M. Casimir-Perier, in the election of a chief magis trate of France, and he was known to be strongly opposed to rotaining M. Gerault-Richard in prison and in favor of amnesty for all political crimes. Consequently, his re-election, on Jan. 8, to the presidency of the chamber of deputies, was looked upon in many quarters as being a decided rebuil to President Casimir-Perier, and it was intimated that the fall of the cabinet would follow, and there were persons who even hipred that the resignation of Presi sent Casimir Perior and the election, pos-sibly, of M. Brissen to the presidency might be the eventual outcome of the government's fight to keep M. Gerault-Richard in prison.

In his inaugural speech in the chamber of deputies on Dec. 20 M. Brisson made an excellent speech, and one which was well received by the occupants of the Republican benches. After thanking the chamber for the honor conferred upon him and eulogizing his predecessor M. Brisson dwelt at length upon the fact that the progress made by the republic was due, in a great measure, if not entirely. great measure, if not entirely, to liberty of discussion. This was the key note to his policy, and, it will be seen, it was dicetly in opposition not only to the view of the government but to the policy of President Casimir-Perier himself.

The chief candidate for the presidency is M. Brisson. Congress may desire to re elect M. Caslmir-Perier, but as he is sick of the presidency he will in all probability refuse to allow the use of his name.

REV. K. T. JAQUAY, the pastor of M. E. Church at FERDINAND, Eric Co., Pa., certifies to his CURE of Dyspepsia by DANA'S Sarsaparilla. That it was indeed a CURE, and not temporary relief, his words below will show.

"I was troubled with Dyspepsia, and in vain sought aid from physicians. Took any amount of all kinds of medicine, without benefit z only temporary at most. I could not take even the lightest food without suffering. I was influenced to try your Sarsaparilla (DANA'S). I began to feel better with its use; and now, after six months, I feel I am CURED. I refrained from writing lest it should return again; now I am confident. I am happy to lend my name and influence to help others to be CURED as I was,"
