

THIRD EDITION

The "Y's" Anniversary.

The "Y's" will celebrate the eighth anniversary of that organization this evening, in their hall in the postoffice building.

Oysters!

If you want good oysters go to H. Mohl's, 105 East Centre street, next door to Devers' barber shop.

Letter List.

The following is a list of the letters remaining in the local postoffice and advertised as uncalled for.

The Vice-President's Daughter Dead.

ASHESVILLE, N. C., Jan. 19.—Miss Mary Ewing Stevenson, daughter of the vice president, whose long continued illness has attracted wide attention, died yesterday afternoon, aged 22.

Sale of the Chase Estate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Edgewood, the former home of Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase, and until now the property of his daughter, Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, was sold at auction yesterday.

Senator Hawley's Pension Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Senator Hawley's amendment to the pension appropriation bill, making all pensions not less than 65 per cent, will increase the pension appropriations $1,200,000 each year.

Miss Wamamaker to Wed.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.—The engagement of Miss Wamamaker, daughter of ex-Postmaster General Wamamaker, to Mr. Barclay H. Warburton, publisher of The Evening Telegraph, of this city, is announced.

Eighteen Buried in Avalanches.

TURIN, Jan. 19.—Eighteen Alpine soldiers have been buried in avalanches near Treviso, a fort on the frontier. Troops have been sent to endeavor to extricate the bodies.

Crushed Into a Shapeless Mass.

DOVER, Pa., Jan. 19.—Edwin Beck, aged 29, who has been working in the Belgian block quarry near Quakertown, was instantly killed while at work, eight tons of rock having fallen on him.

STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchanges.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The upward movement on the stock exchange was continued today in the face of unexpectedly heavy accumulation of gold for shipment to Europe tomorrow.

General Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.—Flour weak; winter super, $2.10; 200 lb. extra, $2.25; 40 lb. No. 2 winter family, $2.30; 200 lb. Pennsylvania roller, straight, $2.00; 200 lb. western winter, clear, $2.30; 200 lb. western winter, straight, $2.50.

Live Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Steers firm; oxen, cows and bulls higher; native steers, poor to good, $4.25 to $5.00; 100 lb. live, $1.25 to $1.50.

Carlton Cornwell, foreman of the Gazette, Middletown, N. J., believes that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy should be in every home.

COMMONER BURNS ON AMERICA.

The English Labor Leader's Criticism on Our Administration of Justice.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Mr. John Burns, M. P., yesterday made an address on America to the voters of Battersea, for which parliamentary division he sits in the house of commons.

Mr. Burns argued that in both England and America foreigners must be prevented from degrading the standard of comfort recognized in those countries.

Referring to the administration of justice, Mr. Burns said that the English judicial bench was theoretically perfect compared with that of America, where the capitalist bribed the legislature, corrupted the senate, squandered the magistracy, effloresced the military and bulldozed every civic official.

Brooklyn's Street Car Strike Still Unsifted.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 19.—The strike situation is becoming more grave hour by hour. The failure of the state board of mediation and arbitration to secure a settlement has not helped to allay public apprehension of impending labor troubles of the first magnitude.

A Well Known Clergyman Dead.

BURGETON, N. J., Jan. 19.—Rev. J. Judson Phipps, aged 33 years, died yesterday after six months' illness of diabetes. The deceased was a widely known Baptist clergyman, and was pastor at Woodbury for twelve years.

Governor Hastings' Unpleasant Duty.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—Before retiring from office ex-Governor Pattison neglected to sign the death warrant of Daniel Werling, convicted of the murder of his wife at Pittsburgh, and this unpleasant duty will now devolve on Governor Hastings.

Bourgeois Offered the Premiership.

PARIS, Jan. 19.—President Faure received ex-Minister Bourgeois and requested him to undertake the formation of a cabinet. M. Bourgeois declined to give a definite answer to the request.

Investigating Savannah Corruption.

SAVANNAH, Jan. 19.—The city council yesterday began an investigation of charges against Mayor McDonough and Aldermen McMillan and O'Brien charged with violating city rules by selling supplies to the city and with securing prices greater than the city would have paid if public competition had been courted.

Bradford's Alleged Poisoning Case.

BRIARFORD, Pa., Jan. 19.—Ragennis Rowland, an Italian, who was found in a room suffering from poisoning a few evenings ago, died at the hospital Wednesday night. Many Italians accuse Mike Darboni of administering the poison.

Verdict Against a Railroad Company.

READING, Pa., Jan. 19.—Barbara Fleishman, a young girl, obtained a verdict for $1,800 against the Neversink Mountain Railway company for the loss of a foot in being run over on the defendant company's railway on South Ninth street. A motion for a new trial was entered by the company's attorney.

Killed in an Aberration.

OTL CITY, Pa., Jan. 19.—Henry Grimes, aged 26, was shot and killed in an altercation with Silas Williams, aged 50, yesterday afternoon. Williams has been arrested, charged with the murder.

Killed by Football Playing.

BURGETON, N. J., Jan. 19.—William L. Thatcher, aged 25 years, has died at his home in this city from injuries received while playing football.

Fire at Mason, Ga., last night destroyed property valued at $500,000.

A dispatch from Athens denies the report of a rebellion in Greece. Turkey's cabinet has written a letter to the pope denying alleged Armenian atrocities.

At Quay, Col., Joe Hereth, a leasee of the Mackay-Cook mine, was killed by a snowslide.

A bill introduced in the Indiana legislature prescribes severe punishment for prize fights or gladiatorial contests. The public prosecutor of Milan, Italy, was stabbed in his office by an anarchist and died instantly. The murderer was arrested.

Denver's police board issued an order against "living pictures," and Police Manager Neill had the "pictures" dressed in overalls and bloomers.

James Dugan, of Chelsea, Mass., 65 years old, was presented by his children, from an image of the late Miss Mary Dugan. The lady was a well known actress for a number of years.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Only a Retention of the Slight Improvements Hereafter Noted.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Bradstreet's review of trade says: With few exceptions, commercial, financial and industrial features indicate only a retention of improvements heretofore noted.

Leading manufacturing industries and larger wholesale houses at business centers report that extreme conservatism in purchases will mark business during the spring; that interior buyers are not inclined to anticipate wants more now than in the previous year; that prices generally continue at very near the lowest reported for many years, and that wages, with rare exceptions, are as low as they have been at any time during or since the panic of 1893.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s review says: There are some good signs, but they do not as yet extend to business generally, which hesitates much as it has done for months. Gold continues to go abroad, $3,500,000 having gone this week, and the deficit of revenue is already over $5,000,000 for the month.

Runaway Boys Frozen to Death.

UTICA, N. Y., Jan. 19.—William Pitt, Thomas Buck and Joseph Krimmer, each about 14 years of age, ran away from St. Vincent's industrial school here, a few days ago. Yesterday afternoon the bodies of Buck and Krimmer were found in the woods near Hesker. They had been frozen to death.

Train Caught in a Snowslide.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 19.—Reports from the western slope of the Rockies indicate that the snowfall during the past twenty-four hours has been one of the heaviest ever known. At Ouray, Silverton and Telluride there is three feet of snow on the level, and traffic is completely blocked.

Charged with Receiving Stolen Bonds.

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 19.—Solomon Wood, a prominent hotel keeper of this city, was arrested yesterday upon the charge of having attempted to negotiate the sale of $8,000 worth of city bonds which were stolen from the safe of City Treasurer Ferguson on the night of Oct. 30 last.

Jack Dempsey a "Back Number."

COVINGTON, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Over 4,000 people gathered at the Seneca Athletic club's building last night to witness the glove contest between Jack Dempsey, the "Knockout," and Tommy Ryan. Ryan could have knocked him out in the first round. In the third round, in response to the demands of Dempsey's friends, the fight was stopped and awarded to Ryan.

A Self-Confessed Forger.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Edwin O. Quigley, of the firm of Quigley & Tuttle, dealers in county and municipal bonds and other investments, admitted at 4 Wall street, was arrested on a complaint of President William P. St. John of the Mercantile National bank of this city. A number of forged bonds on the city of Cleveland have been unfoiled, and it is said that the Mercantile National bank will lose about $200,000 by the operation.

Proud of His "Distinguished" Ancestry.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19.—Michael Ollendorf, the anarchist, who claims to be a son of Simon Ollendorf, the man who threw the bomb that killed Alexander II. of Russia, was sentenced here yesterday to eighteen months in the workhouse for robbery. The prisoner pleaded that he be sent to the penitentiary instead. As there have been rumors that a plot was on foot looking for the escape of Bergman, the anarchist who attempted to kill H. C. Frick, the jail officials think Ollendorf's plea has some significance.
