HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION AN AWFUL PRODIGEMENT

Urged Upon the President by a Congressional Revolution.

ENGLAND WILL NOT INTERFERE.

The Hawaiian Consul General in London Declares That Her Majesty's Government Will Not Lift a Finger in Lilliookalani's Interest—The Uprising Suppressed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The Hawaiian situation is likely to absorb the attention of the house committee on foreign affairs at its next meeting, for three resolutions proposing different action on the question were introduced yesterday and referred to that committee. Representative Brockbridge, of Kentucky, introduced one for annexation, as follows: "Resolved, That it is the sense of this house that the president shall at once enter into negotiations with the republic of Hawaii, looking to the annexation of the Hawaiian islands upon terms alike honorable and mutually satisfactory to the United States of America and the republic of Hawaii."

Representative Storer, of Ohio, one asking information concerning alleged British connivance in the rebellion, and Representative Beckner, of Kentucky, one in which it is set forth that this country views with satisfaction the successful passage of the two republics of France and Hawaii, through crisis which, but for the firm formulations of their governments, might have ended in resolution and disaster.

ENGLAND WILL NOT INTERFERE. The Hawaiian Royalists Must Fight Their Battles Unaided.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—Mr. Hoffnung, the Hawaiian consul general in London, has received a dispatch from S. M. Damon, the Hawaiian minister of finance, stating that the revolution in Hawaii has been entirely suppressed, and that communication between the different islands has been resumed. Regarding the reports in circulation as to the British support given to the revolutionists, Mr. Hoffnung says there was no question of Great Britain interfering in the affairs of Hawaii.

The consul general says that the British government will not lift a finger in regard to the internal politics of Hawaii, and expresses the opinion that the failure of Great Britain to recognize the envoys sent by ex-Queen Lilliookalani to this country was probably the reason of the present outbreak. The royalists, he said, have been counting upon the support of Great Britain, and they now know that they have to rely upon their own effort. In conclusion Mr. Hoffnung said: "I am not surprised at the news of the revolt, and I am afraid it is but the commencement of serious times, as the native party outnumber the republicans."

Not a Soul Was Lost. LOUISVILLE, Jan. 22.—There is the strangest news from down the river. Not a single soul was lost in the wrecking of the steamer State of Missouri, according to the captain and others of the crew. When Captain Joseph Conlon completed a list of those saved it contained the name of every one on board the boat. However, until this list was completed, Captain Conlon, Engineer Willard Alexander and other officials of the boat were of the opinion that at least ten lives had been lost.

Another Bank Victimized by Quigley. NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 22.—Vice President E. S. Campbell, of the National Newark Banking company, said that Edward O. Quigley, the New York defaulter, had victimized that institution to the extent of $30,000 with forged Harrisburg, Pa., city bonds. The bank made a loan on a margin of 20 per cent. The bonds were pronounced good by experts. The loan was called on Jan. 13, when the forgery was detected. The bank expects to realize all of the $30,000.

His Brains Battered Out. SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 22.—While Richard Gilham was oiling machinery at the Cameron mine his clothing was caught in the belt and he was whirled against the side of the engine room with such force that his brains were battered out. At about the same hour the workmen were battling with a fire inside, caused by lighting mine gas, and a few hours later the hoisting rope parted and a wagon dashed to the bottom, compelling the mine to shut down.

A Boy's Life Saved by a Dog. READING, Pa., Jan. 22.—A small boy broke through the ice on the Schuylkill canal, near the Penn street bridge, and would have drowned had it not been for a large dog that accompanied him. The dog was noticed by the skaters swimming around in the hole in the ice and grabbing something with his mouth. Upon investigation the object was found to be a boy about 11 years old, who was quickly rescued from his perilous position.

Arrest of a British Official by Turks. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 22.—Mr. Cobb, the British postmaster here, whose arrest by the Turkish authorities has been announced in these dispatches, was arrested for protesting against the seizure of an Armenian postbag destined for Smyrna and a brutal outrage committed on a British service. Mr. Cobb was also insulted, and was only liberated on the interference of the British embassy.

General Clay's Child Wife Faithful. RICHMOND, Ky., Jan. 22.—The story that the young bride of General Cassin M. Clay has deserted him is untrue. Whitehall was visited yesterday and a thorough investigation was made by the representative of the Associated Press. There is no jar whatever in the mansion of the general, and the false reports are attributed to those who so bitterly opposed the match.

A Warlike Attitude. CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 22.—The warship General Saragossa has been ordered to a Guatemalan port to take on board the Mexican charge d'affaires, Senor Jose Godey. BALTIMORE, Jan. 22.—Requisition papers were issued by Governor Hastings, of Pennsylvania, for Aaron Rosenthal, now under arrest in Baltimore, for forging the name of Samuel Wertheimer, of Pittsburgh. The prisoner, it is alleged, under the name of Simon Lehman operated his game of swindling in Baltimore by buying goods and offering bogus checks in payment. Marshal Frey today said: "I think Rosenthal won't go out of this town until we get through with him. He will get a term here, and then Pittsburgh will be welcome to him, but it will be some years before he will be in Pittsburgh."

Tennessee's Gubernatorial Snarl. NASHVILLE, Jan. 22.—Debate upon the contest election bill consumed all of yesterday in the senate. She Don't Know How She Got Into It. But She Does Know Just How She Got Out. And That is the Most Curious and Interesting Part of It.

She never could tell how she got into the terrible predicament. No one can ever tell exactly how trouble comes about. But with Shakespeare we realize: "One we do not read upon another's heel, So fast they follow." And Mrs. Eva Dyer, of 46 South Orange Ave., Newark, N. J., who tells the following interesting story, indeed, felt the truth of this. "About five years ago," she began, "I was taken suddenly sick, and I continued to grow worse until I was unable to do any work at all. My nerves got so bad that I would have spasms nearly every day, and I would feel so I was dying, in every one I had.

"My stomach was in such a weak condition that it wouldn't contain the lightest food, and altogether I was so weak and run down that I was obliged to remain in bed the greater part of the time. "I tried doctor after doctor, but their medicines did me no good, and I was ready to give up hopes of ever getting better, when a friend advised me to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

"So I resolved to try it, and have found it a success. The first bottle I took I thought I felt some better, and so I continued taking it. I have now taken seven bottles, and I feel that I am cured.

"I don't have any more spasms and my stomach is so I can eat anything without its hurting me. I am no longer weak or nervous, and I am able to do my own work and feel like a new woman. "I advise every one who is sick or ailing, to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and be convinced of its wonderful power to cure, as I have been."

Thousands of people are to-day in a predicament more or less like that of Mrs. Dyer. They may not be so seriously sick as she was, but they may come even to a worse condition, if they allow their present ailments and weaknesses to run on. Nine times out of ten the great prostrations of health, the breaking down of mind and body, the utter wreck and shattering of these delicate fibres which send weakness and despair throbbing and shivering through unstrung nerves, are traceable directly to the neglect of the first slight and apparently trivial symptoms.

If you would save yourselves from the black night of sickness, the hopelessness of despair, do not allow the first symptoms, the dizzy, aching head, the nervousness, the restlessness, the sleeplessness, the utter weakness of weary days and hours, to continue for one moment when you know that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will surely cure you—will surely make you strong and well.

Physicians recommend it everywhere. Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, its discoverer, is our most successful physician in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and he tells you to use it, that it will make you well. You can consult him free, personally or by letter.

Municipal Warfare in Atlanta. ATLANTA, Jan. 22.—The investigation into local affairs has developed a red hot fight between the city council and board of police commissioners. The special committee of the council recommended the suspension of Chief Detective Wright and Detectives Loney and Cason. They also recommended a general investigation of the police force. The police commission presented this interference with their rights. Last evening the city council met, and this morning the matter is before the board, which is expected to ignore the council and go ahead with the investigation on its own account.

WIND STORMS.

Loss of Life and Much Damage to Property in Chicago.

TWO KILLED, MANY BADLY HURT.

One Man Nearly Cut in Two by a Large Falling Section of Plate Glass and Another Blown from a Load of Lumber and Instantly Killed.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Two persons were killed and several badly injured yesterday by accidents resulting from the high winds. A portion of the scaffolding of the new Fort Dearborn building, at Clark and Monroe streets, was blown away, and falling fourteen stories buried two men, one of whom, J. D. Burke, a ticket broker, was thought to be fatally injured. The others more seriously injured were: A. J. Donaldson, clerk, shoulder crushed; W. Ludus, printer, scalp wounds; Frank Woodward, teamster, arm crushed; P. S. Fisher, restaurant employe, badly bruised; H. C. Irwin, clerk, dangerous internal injuries; George Boy, stenographer, head badly cut.

During the afternoon the gale seemed to increase in violence, and falling signs and chimneys were numerous. Joseph Hunsal, a teamster, while standing on a load of lumber, was caught by a gust of wind and dashed to the ground. His neck was broken and he died instantly. Leary T. Stewart was passing the Hartford building when a window in the tenth story was blown in. A large part of the falling glass struck Stewart in the leg, severing an artery.

The thirty foot flagstaff on Kinsley's restaurant was torn from its base and hurled to the street, dangerously injuring Edward Harper, an expressman sitting on his wagon. It is thought that his skull is fractured. A little later a heavy plate glass window in the Hartford building at Dearborn and Madison streets was blown in. James Henson was struck by a large falling section of the glass and killed, being cut almost in two. Several pedestrians were badly cut.

The top of the heavy chimney on the Methodist church block was blown off last evening and fell upon a crowded street car which was passing. The roof of the car was bent in, but nobody was injured.

Storm Panic in Missouri. MARSHALL, Mo., Jan. 22.—A terrific electrical storm, accompanied by thunder and followed by heavy wind and a deluge of rain, passed over this city shortly after midnight. People were panic stricken and sought places of safety. At Nelson considerable damage was done, roofs being blown off, stove fronts washed in and other damage accomplished. The thermometer has fallen 45 degs., and is still on the descend.

Fatal Cyclone in Arkansas. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 22.—A cyclone struck near Piggett, Ark., fatally injuring two persons and seriously wounding nine others. Much property was destroyed. At McCaines Mill, two miles south of Piggett, several dwellings were totally demolished and eleven people wounded, two of whom will die. No details of the disaster have been received here.

The Union Pacific Foreclosure. OMAHA, Jan. 22.—The Union Pacific attorneys who went to St. Louis to assist in foreclosing the first mortgage here returned speaking of the suit, Judge Thurston said: "The situation of the property has reached a point where foreclosure was inevitable. The first mortgage interest is in default, and the system in the hands of receivers. The first installment of the principal will be due Jan. 1, 1896, and there is no possibility of this amount being paid by foreclosure. This foreclosure does not prejudice the government interest in any possible way. The government can come into this case and foreclose it independently, but always subject to the first mortgage."

Y., Jan. 22.—The Merchants' bank of this city has been closed by order of a state bank examiner, who has been going over the affairs of the bank for several days past, discovering a deficit of $45,000. Erastus Ross was president, and his son, F. Ross, cashier. Its capital stock is $100,000. Following the closing of the doors came the assignment of Ross & Sons, private bank, real estate, etc.

Swindler Midgely Indicted. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The grand jury found an indictment against William E. Midgely, formerly president of the American Casualty and Surety company, of Baltimore, for grand larceny in the first degree. The charge is that Midgely retained a $27,000 check given to him, while with the company, by Beach, Schandl & Co. Midgely is now under $7,500 bond.

Judge Clark Again Confirmed. WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—There was no delay by the senate in re-confirming the nomination of Hon. C. D. Clark to be judge of the Eastern and Middle Tennessee districts, after the judiciary committee reported the matter. Mr. Hill stated that the sub-committee had made a thorough investigation of the charges and had found them unfounded.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 22.—At 7 o'clock last night Lucien Baker, state senator from Leavenworth county, received fifty-four votes in the Republican caucus for United States senator. This is the number necessary to nominate. Senator Thatcher withdrew after the twentieth ballot.
