

JUDGE RICKS EXONERATED.

Charges Against Him Dismissed by the House Judiciary Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The attempt to impeach Judge Augustus J. Ricks, of Cleveland, failed in the house judiciary committee by an adverse vote of 9 to 7, and instead of the resolution for impeachment which Mr. Baily, of Texas, had prepared to report to the house...

JUDGE RICKS.

That while the committee is not satisfied that Judge Ricks has been guilty of any wrong committed while judge that will justify it in reporting a resolution of impeachment, yet the committee cannot but strongly condemn the practice under which Judge Ricks made up his accounts.

Judge Ricks gave a personal explanation to the committee of the accounts in the Birdsell case, which he had handled as clerk of the court, and which furnished ground for the investigation, and testimony against him was given by Martin W. Sanders, who had been his deputy clerk and succeeded to the clerkship when Judge Ricks was promoted to the bench.

The review of the case, which was often bitter and acrimonious, changed the opinion of no member of the committee, and the charges were ignored, as it had been expected they would be, when all the members could be brought together for a vote. The case was made largely a party question, although Judge Ricks had four Democratic votes, and as the next congress is strongly Republican, there is no probability that it will be revived.

ADDS VIGOR TO OLD AGE.

The Weakness, the Chilliness of Years Met by Paine's Celery Compound.

Men and women past their grand climacteric at sixty or sixty-five, often experience a chilliness and a feebleness that causes them needless alarm.

Needless, if they perceive the meaning of these infirmities and take pains at once to correct the beginnings of weakness and debility, as it is so easy to do if begun at once.

A strengthening, invigorating nerve food is all that they need to arouse the vital organs from their sluggish, unhealthy condition. Paine's celery compound, the great nerve-food and blood purifier first prepared by Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D. of the Dartmouth medical school, is to day within the reach of every home in the land. It is the usual prescription of countless physicians in cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, sleeplessness and the many other results of starved nerves and depleted blood.

Says Mr. H. T. Gleason, of West Damascus, Penn., whose portrait is given above: "The past year I used five bottles of Paine's celery compound for rheumatism. It cured that trouble and helped me to sleep and rest better at night. I am nearly eighty years of age."

"Last month I again tried it, taking two bottles, and as a result felt better than I have any time this winter."

Paine's celery compound makes a happy, vigorous old age possible to every one.
