Shortness of Dreath, Swelling of Legs and Feet.

"For about four years I was troub-led with paiplitation of the heart, shortness of breath and swelling of the legs and feet. As times I would faint. I was treated by the best phy-sicians in Savannah, Ga., with no re-lief. I then tried various Springs without benefit. Fibully, I tried Dr. Miles' Heart Cure also his Nerve and Liver Pills. After beginning to take them I felt better! I continued taking them and I am now in better health than for many years. Since my recovery I have gained fifty pounds in weight. I hope this state-ment may be of value to some poor sufferer." sufferer.

He the ground . was retailened and severe injuries, John Newman was slightly Avere injuries start servinal was sharty hurt by his wagon being strick by a Sacket street car in the afternoon. As a company of the Twenty-third regi-ment was escorting a Hicks street car Thomas Kearney is said to have thrown a number of bricks at it and the soldiers if it is the Great Festorative of from the roof as it was passing No. 414 Hicks strict. Some of the soldlers were hit by the missiles, and one of their num-ber took deliberate aim and shot Kearney in the side. The man was so seriously in-jured that the chances of his recovery are but slight. Kearney was at work on the roof at the time and was attracted to the edge by the excitement of the crowd below in conse-quence of the passage of the first car as he was obeying the soldiers' command to "get back." Major Abrams yesterday morning or dered closed all the saloons near Ridge-wood. He stationed pickets at the door of each with orders not to allow any one to pass in or out. A large number of men were practically imprisoned in this way. He also closed the hall at Ridgewood in which the strikers gather. There were 300 men in the place at the time and they clamored to get out. Finally a messenger was dispatched to the office of Baldwin F Strauss, a lawyer on Fulton street, and an hour later he appeared before Justice Gaynor in the supreme court, asking for a writ of habeas corpus compelling Briga-dier General McLeer to produce the imprisoned strikers in court.

The writ was granted and made return able at 4 o'clock. When the case was called a statement was read on behalf of General McLeer, in which a denial was made of the allegation that he had locked up the 300 men or had ordered that they be locked up: further it was said that upon learning of the imprisonment of the men he had ordered their immediate release. Upon this explanation Judge Gaynor dismissed the proceedings. The men were locked up for everal hours.

Another attempt was made by the strikers to induce the trolley officials to agree to submit differences to arbitration. The proposition was flatly refused. The person selected by the strikers as arbitrator was William Richardson, secretary and treasurer of the American and Nev York Street Railway association. They undoubtedly had the idea that he would be agreeable to the trolley company on account of his position. The refusal indi-cates that the companies feel no abatement of confidence that they will win the fight.

The opening of the Myrtle avenue Hne resterday was attended with more disorler than occurred at any other point. The street was picketed for fifteen blocks by Company B, of the Seventh regiment. A rowd of men in front of a Bushwick ave nuo saloon, who leered the car, were dispersod by Company G. Seventh regiment. Every podestrian on Myrile avenue during he day was required to give an ac himself or get off the savet. Window along the street were ordered kept closed and upon a refusal to obey this order : bullet was put into the sash. A crowd of strikers assailed workmen who were clearing the Third avenue tracks at Fifty-second street. Troop A dispersed the crowd with their sheathed sabers, but upon the mob returning they were charged with drawn sabers and put to flight.

Weak Nerves, Tired, Exhausted Bodies.

Upon Thousands,

Health and Strength are With-

Dr. Greene's Nervura Makes

Brains and Nerves.

Oh, those nerves of ours, how they do bother us! Weak, tired and nervous is the complaint everywhere. We over work, dissipate, weaken our bodies, ruin through Hicks street. He denies that any our health, and finally break down missiles were thrown, but that he was shot Sieepleseness and indigestion are early symptoms, for the nerves are too ex hausted and irritable to permit rest, and the stomach too weak to digest food.

It is nerve and brain exhaustion which makes the brain tired, and the arm nerve less, the limbs trembing, the muscles weak and the whole body without strangth, energy or ambition. It is loss of nerve and vital power which is slowly but surely sapping the very life lisely and unless help is sought from the right source, the end will be shattered nerves, insanity, with softening of the braid nervous prostration, heart failure, par alysis or premature death.

Beware of such symptoms! A well-known druggist, Charles W. Eggleston, E-9, 329 Park Avenue, Worcester, Mass, suffered from nerv us prostration and all its terrible symptoms. He writes the folits terrible symptoms. He writes the fol-lowing letter telling what he knows is the best way to get well: "Some time ago I was taken with ner-vous prostration, I suffered terribly with my nerves and could get n i sleep at all. I became fearfully exhausted, my stomach was in a terrible condition from dyspep-in, and I could eat hardly any-thing.

dyspep-la, and I could eat hardly any thing. "Insed several medicines but without benefit. Being in the drug business my-self, and having had many customers speak in the highest terms of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I de-termined to try it. After taking only one half bottle I began to feel much heater.

one half bottle I began to feel much better. "I slept soundly at night, and my ap petite was splendid. After taking three bottles, I ate three square meals a day, and had not the slightest distress. My nerves were perfectly strong, and I feit like a new man, being completely cured of all my troubles. "Out of the respect I bear the manu-facturers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and my desire to have the sick and suffering made well and strong, I heartily recommend it to people who are sick. I most certainly recom-mend it to people who are the same as I was, nervous and inclined toward dyspep sla and indigestion, and suffering from sia and indigestion, and suffering from not being able to sleep well at night." As this latter is from a dealer in medi-cine, his word is authority on such matters.

Everybody knows that Dr. Greene's Ner-yura blood and nerve remedy is the great the Hayward trial yesterday, was not so large as on Tuesday, but a shivering mass of humanity waited outside the big doors before admission was secured. The plan of defense is gradually becom ing apparent. No one believes that an at-tempt will be made to prove Harry Hayward insane; but, instead, the opinion now prevails that the effort will be to prova Adry Hayward guilty of the very crime with which in his confession he has tharged his brother, The defense, it is believed, will attempt to show that Blixt is insane, and this while his confections are true statemen of fact as to the way in which the crin was committed, the man who engage him to do this work was Adry, and m Harry Hayward.

The attorneys in the case, after the day proceedings were over, held a long exam-nation of Adry Hayward. The defenmade a demand on the prosecution to b allowed to take Adry's statement in full and the demand was acceded to.

Adry seemed more nervous than over dur ing the ordeal, and apparently now realize with a greater force than ever before that on his word hangs the fate of the younger brother. The man's face was pale as he begin to speak of Harry's influence over him and the varients ways in which that influence had been exercised. He went on to enumerate certain threats that had been made against his own safety by Harry and declared that he had been forced into an apparent complicity in the crime of murder by actual fear of personal violence, as well as by an inducence of will that he could not define.

Becoming mass voluble as he proceeded, the informer told how Harry had ap-proached him on the subject of the kill-ing, and how he had tried to shake his brother's determination without avail. With the utmost detail Adry told how he labored with Harry to give up the idea of murder, using at first such arguments as would have been likely to influence a man with an atom of humanity, and lastly ap-pealing to his sense of fear. Adry pointed uit that escape from the results of such a erime would be almost impossible and that the perpetrators would certainly be hauged. All this was without effect on rother, who called Adry a cur and remarked that he had no sand at all. Then came the story of Adry's visit to Elder Stewart and his communication to that gentleman of the facts in the case. The elder's annusement whilst the story was told, and his own misery that he had no one to confide in, was told. All through the restatement of his connection with the aso Adry kept his eyes fixed on Mr. Nye the county attorney, and appeared to be anxious that not a single detail of the story might escape his memory. At times his face was flushed like that of a man in a high fever, again it was ashen colored to the very lips.

The statement was so strong in detail ad apparent truthfulness that the attoreys for the first time were staggered com-etcly. John Day Smith, of counsel for the defense, could not conceal his amaze ment and chagrin. He admitted that he was completely paralyzed by the brother's story. So crestfallen was his manner that Mr. Erwin was compelled to tell him to race up. "Good heavens, Smith," said his colague, "look up, if you can't see a star." At the close of the day two additions rors had been secured, making five in all ghty-three talesmen have been exam

There is a greater public confidence in the maintenance of public order today than on any day since the strike commenced. The city is about free from the vague terrorism of nameless deeds by mobs which kept the public mind high tension and served to increase the danger of serious collisions and outbreaks The mere rowdylsm which is looking for trouble and wants to destroy property from wantonness has been pretty well suppressed. It has been demonstrated to characters that the militia will shoot to kill, if necessary, to suppress lawless-

Alleged Violation of Agreement,

WILKESBARR, Pa., Jan. 24.-General Secretary Wilson, of Peoria, Ills., addressed a large meeting of locomotive fire-men in this city last night. The firemen claim that when the Lohigh Valley strike ended, sixteen menths ago, part of the agreement entered into with the company was that the old employes should be take hnell as fast as vacancies occurred. It is averred that the company has not kept its word. What will be the outcome of Mr. Wilson's visit cannot now he foretold.

GOTHAM'S WHISKING CABLES.

No Trust to Be Placed In Equilibriu. When a Curve Is Struck.

There is generally fun in whisking around the Fourteenth street curves on the Broadway cuble cars—that is to say, there is fun for the knowing, who have learned by experience to brace themselves well beforehand. There are generally some persons in a crowded car who are taken unawares and are made to do the most ridioulous things.

It is no uncommon thing to see a man steeding in the passage suddenly procipi tated into the arms of the lady sitting in front of him as the car whisks around the first curve, and then, when he rises to apologize, as suddenly plumped down in the lap of the lady behind him as the car makes the second curve. This is rubbing it in. The unfortunate man now has apologies to make on both sides of the car, and while he is recovering himself for this double duty, meantime rescuing his hat from the floor and blushing like a schoolgiri, the car makes o sharp tilt at Fifteenth street, and, like enough, sends him to his knees on the "Great Jupiter," exclaimed an elderly man recently after such an experience, "the American public is indeed long suf fering!

Sometimes, when a car is greatly crowded and the passage is full of standing men, the sudden curves create no end of excitement, and now and then somebody gets a little hurt.

There was an amusing incident the other day. Two gentlemen entered the car from opposite doars, and both reached the only vacant seat at the same time. The enr was just starting from Four-teenth streat northward. "Sit down." sold No. 1, bowing. "No; you sit down," replied No. 2, not to be outdone in politeness.

to be outdone in politiciess. "No; I beg of you take the seat. You got here first," soid No. 1. "No, no," hegan No. 2, but just then the car took the curve, and No. 1 was precipitated with great violence into the seat You have earned your sent," laughed No

"I have indeed," was the rucful rophy. The gripmen say they have to make all curves at full speed, as otherwise they are in danger of losing the cable.—New York Herald
