Fight till/ween Ministers' Wives. PERRY, O. T., Jan. 34 .- A horsewhipping in church, participated in by ministers' wives, in the middle of the services, is the sensation at a country church just over the line in Oklahoma, near ingalis. Some months ago Bey. Dr. Johnson, of Kansas, succeeded Bey. Mr. Tulley, being called by a faction antagonistic to the latter. The Rev. Mr. Tulley continued with the church in the espacity of deacon. A few Sundays ago the new pastor severely critteised the deacon, and on Sunday last Mr. Tulley read a letter from Johnson's for-Tulley read a letter from Johnson's former home reflecting on Mrs. Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson secured a buggy whip, with which she lashed Tulley. Then Mrs. Tulley secured the whip and lashed Mrs. Johnson into unconsciousness. All the partici for the publication of the names of delingers. pants were arrested and fined.

Bad for the Settlers.

TOPERA, Kan., Jan. 24.—Subpoenss have been issued for over 1,000 settlers on lands trict court judges on April 1, 1895, and purchased from the Union Pacific railroad in Dickinson, Ellsworth and Saline countles. They are asked to answer a suit brought by the government to oust them from the lands, which were granted to th Union Pacific by an act of congress and afterwards sold to settlers. The government claims that the grant was invalid, and that the land should revert to the government and be opened to settlemen under the homostead law. If this clain the Union Pacific is in the hands of re-

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

The Proposition to Make Ripartan Rights | The Treasury Emergency the Main Theme the Property of the State.

TRENTON, Jan. 24.—The New Jersey sen te passed sepate bill No. 19, which re-pulres all deeds of real estate to be plotted n city atlases before being recorded in the gunty clerk's offices. Senator Vourbees announced a public hearing next Monday at 4 o'clock on Senator Daly's bill to have all riparian rights revert back to the state, and Senator Bradley announced a public hearing Tuesday noon on his bill providing that hereafter riparian rights shall only be leased. Among the bills introduced were the following: Providing for a new charter for Atlantic City, being a modification of last year's bill to meet local ob-jections; prohibiting the holding of elecflons in any place where liquor is sold; appropriating $200,000 to the state school

The house passed the following hills: Senate bill No. 23, relating to contagious quent tax payers in Newark and Jersey City; house bill No. 44 to amend the borough act. These bills were introduced: No. 127, terminates the office of all discessors by a joint meeting for five year terms; No. 130, annexing adjoining terri-tory to Trenton; joint resolution No. 8, proposing an amendment to the constitution making prosecutors of the pleas elective. The house then decided to give the direct legislation league a hearing next Tuesday

Both houses adjourned for the week.

The Bombardment of Tung Chow. WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Captain Folger, of the United States steamer Yorktown, cables the navy department from Chefoo as follows: "Tung Chow, China, was bombarded by ten Japanese vessels on Jan. 18 and 19. On the 21st, in answer to an appeal of missionaries, the Yorktown transported to Chefoo seventeen women, children and sick of the missionary families. On the 20th and 21st the Japanese, covered by twenty-three of their men-of war, landed a force at Shantung promon-tory to attack the Chinese fortifications of Wei-Hai-Wei. On the 22d a small force was landed at Chefoo from the Yorktown to protect neutral citizens and property. This landing was in common with that from German, British and French vessels

Dr. Parkharst's Criticism of Byrnes. Chicago, Jan. 24.—Dr. Parkhurst, of New York, lectured last night upon municipal government to an audience that filled Central Music hall. In recounting his experiences he said; "It is one of the remarkable features of Superintendent Byrnes' administration that while he is as innocent as a canary of what his officers are about, ignorant that they are buying captaincies, peddling female virtue, just as your policemen are, and playing the guardian angel to the bunco steerers, I never do anything but he is immediately 'on to' it. That is one of the ways he takes of showing what he calls his sympathy with my Popular Tennessee Officials.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 24.—Both branches met in the hall of representatives in joint convention, compared the vote for United tates senator and declared Senator Isham G. Harris elected. James A. Harris was re-elected state comptroller and F. B. Craig was re-elected state treasurer, both receiving every vote cast. Republicans, Populists and Democrats all voted for the re-election of these officials. This is the first time in thirty years where all the members have united in the election of these state officials.

An Oklahoma Sensation.

Penny, O. T., Jan. 24.—A sensation was created here yesterday when United States Commissioner Tobbe bound over William Reed, a citizen from Pawnee, for perjury for making out affidavits for contests in a large number of the finest claims in Paw-nec. Reed confessed that a company of him drunk and gave him money to sign the affidavits. A number of arrests will follow. Reed was put under $1,200 bond.

An Alleged Defeat for Japan.

CREFOO, Jan. 24.-Advices received here from Wel-Hal-Wel report that the Japan-ese have been repulsed with considerable loss. The Chinese took nine Japanes prisoners. Foreigners are leaving and a panic prevails. The telegraph station on Cheng Shan Island, between Chefoo and Wel-Hal-Wel, has been abandoned. Traffic between the two towns is interrupted.

Georgia Lynchers Escape Indictment.

SAVANNAH, Jan. 24.-Telegrams from Jasper county state that the special session of the superior court, called to investigate lynchings, has adjourned without returning any indictments. Seventy witnesse were summoned, but no evidence could b got from them as to those who had taken part in the lynchings.

Died from Grief.

HAGRESTOWN, Md., Jan. 24.—At the No. vember term of the circuit court Jonathan Smith, of Pleasant Valley, was convicted of killing his brother Solomon and sen-tenced to the penilentary. His wife, aged about 40 years, died yesterday from grief, brought on by the family's disgrace.

To Increase Mayor Strong's Powers. ALBANY, Jan. 24.—The Lawson power of removal bill has passed the assembly without amendment by a vote of 102 years to 18 nays. It now goes to the senate for concurrence. Under it the mayor has four months from Jan. 1 to remove the heads of New York city departments.

Assaulted and Thrown Into the River. BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Jan. 98.—Lean-der Shutt, of Dinmere, Ky., was knocked in the head on a bridge near here during the night, robbed of his money, overcont hat and shoes, and thrown into the river. He managed to swim out, but he will die.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

Before the Somate, Wassission, Jan. 24.—The trensury emergency was the main theme before the senate yesterday, and for the time being the Hawatlan question was laid aside. Mr. Jones (Ark.) and Mr. Smith (N. J.), each representing a most influential element in the majority of the senate, presented plans for meeting the currency complication. The propositions differed widely, Mr. Smith's providing for a temporary bond Issue pending an investigation by a "monetary commission" composed of senators, members of the house and civilians, while Mr. Jones' plan provides for a bond issue and a conditional restoration of silver. The two senators urged their respective monsures in speeches which received close strention from a well filled senate and crowded galleries. Mr. Turpic (Ind.) con-cluded his speech against the Nicaragua canal bill, becoming bitterly personal at the close against Mr. Morgan, the author of the bill, and against the measure as the consummation of Cheap John, Peter

Funk legislation.

Mr. Dingley (Me.) called the attention of the house to what he termed the utter failure of the Paris tribunal's regulations for the protection of the Alaskan seal herd, and to the probability of the com-plete extinction of the herd unless steps were immediately taken to secure the co operation of Great Britain for the protect tion of the seals. The remainder of the day was devoted to the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill. Rapid progress was made. Fifty-five pages of the 105 of the bill were disposed of without amendment before adjournment.

PROBABLY LOST ON THE LAKE Twenty-six Evidently Perished in the Wreck of the Steamer Chicora.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Jan. 34 .- The mystery regarding the fate of the steamer Chicora, which left Milwaukee on Monday morning last, is cleared up by the re celpt of a telegram from South Haven, Mich., stating that some of the vessel's upper works had been found in the ice off that port, and adding that there is no doubt the steamer has foundered. The complete list of those on board the Chiora when she left Milwaukee, all of whom have probably perished, is as follows:

Captain Edward Stines, St. Joseph C. D. Simons, first mate. Benton Harbor; Benjamin Stines, second mate, St. Joseph Joseph Marks, wheelman, Benton Harbor Thomas Robertson and John Hodges watchmen; Robert McClure, chief engl neer, Detroit; A. Wirtz, second engineer Detroit; Grant A. Downey, oller, Detroit Nate Lynch, cook, St. Joseph; James Ma-lone, pantryman, Chicago; W. M. Mor-gan, head waiter, Benton Harbor; James B. Clark, clerk, St. Joseph; Jesse Davis, porter, Benton Harbor; Joseph Pearl, pas senger, St. Joseph; eight deck hands, two fromen and one coal passer, names unknown.

James R. Clark, Captain Stines, Mate Simons, Enginner McClure and Nate Lynch, the cook, leave families.

Archbishop Ireland Sustained.

ROME, Jan. 24.—The trouble growing out of the attack made upon Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, by Bishop McQuaid of Rochester, N. Y., has been made the object of an inquiry by the Vatican. In a sermon Bishop McQuaid reprehended and condemned Archbishop Ireland for what he alleged was improper interference in behalf of the Republican party in the last state elections. The inquiry has now been finished, and it is given out that the church authorities deeply deplore the mistaken course of the bishop. The affair seems to have been viewed by the authorities as an extraordinary as well as an exceptional breach of church discipline Archbishop Ireland is sustained in all the positions he has taken in the matter.

Probably Fatal Accident at a Funeral. Pertshung, Jan. 24.—An accident oc surred at the funeral of Peter Saladin at Emsworth, near here, which may result in the death of two persons. A long line of carriages followed the body to the cemetery. On descending a steep hill the Mrs. Stroup and Mrs. Wonhorse, sisters of the deceased, with their husbands, be came frightened and veered to one side of the road, which was a solid sheet of ice, and rolled over a precipice. The men were uninjured, but both of the women were seriously, if not fatally hurt.

Victory for Race Track Men.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 24.—Counsel repre senting the commonwealth of Virginia and the Grange Camp association reached an agreement in regard to the injunction against racing at Alexander Island. In accordance with the terms of the agree ment the injunction is suspended and rac ing will proceed, except that winter rac ing will cease during February. The commonwealth of Virginia has the right upon reasonable notice to enforce the injunction whenever the law is violated

Decided Against Petitioner Moore,

Washington, Jan. 24.—The petition of John G. Moore for a mandamus against Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller to prevent the collection of the income tax was overruled by Judge Hagner in the eaulty court of the District of Columbia. The case will now be taken on appeal to the United States supreme court in order to test the constitutionality of the income

To Resume with Non-Unionists. Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 24.—A large force of non-union glass workers from Pittsburg and other points was taken to the hig Buckeye Glass works, and the plant will be started at once, after a strike of two years. The strikers have been watching for non-union men, but were outwitted by the management. A Fugitive Magistente Arrested. SEATTLE Wash., Jan. 28.-Joseph B. Planta, the fugitive magistrate from Nan nimo, who is charged with embezziement, was arrested in this city by Detective Hart. Plata says he will return home without extradition papers. The Canadian officials have been notified.
