Evening Herald.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1895.

It was easy for the French to get a new President, but to get a new Cabinet is another matter. Statesmen who value their reputations are cautious about risking them over there now.

Things in this country are not what they might be, but let us remember with gratitude that this month ten states have passed from the control of the Democrats and Pops to the Republicans.

The 24,000,000 bogus silver dollars circulated in Spain are each intrinsically more valuable than the genuine, but the fact will not save the counterfeiters if caught.
It is the stamp which makes the money.

SENATOR GEORGE says the Hawaiian government is not a Republic, but an oligarchy. All the same the encouragement which the administration did not get for its course in that matter was great.

The merchants who find times dull and sales few and far apart can find relief in printers' ink. These are the times when people watch the newspaper announcements for bargains. A bona fide announcement in the EVENING HERALD is bound to pay. Try it. Don't wait till customers chance to stumble over some good opportunity you may have to offer them. Draw them to your store, and when you get them there stand by your announcements.

The financial policy of the present administration finds its highest expression in an effort to restore prosperity by discouraging thrift through the imposition of an income tax and in an attempt to uphold the credit of the government by increasing its interest-bearing debt by means of needless bond issues. If that sort of both-work is really statesmanship, it is clearly of a brand that is badly run down at the heel.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND and his mysterious Secretary of State have once more confessed defeat. After vainly trying to induce Congress to authorize the withdrawal of the United States from the Samoaan Tripartite agreement they endeavored to attain their end by neglecting to ask for the small appropriation, $5,000, necessary to the carrying out during the coming fiscal year of this country's obligations under the treaty with Germany and England. A storm of protests went up from the American people, who objected to having their good faith impugned by such "diplomacy," and now Mr. Gresham comes tardily and sulkily forth and officially lays the matter before Congress. Even in the circumscribed circle of the present one-man Administration, history constantly repeats itself.

THE Indiana Legislature has under consideration a bill for the prevention of prize fighting, the provisions of which are so rough that, if enacted into a law, "the manly art of self-defence," as sports term it, will find little encouragement in that state. It forbids, under heavy penalty, sparring contests for a prize or reward, with or without gloves, and witnessed by thirty persons or more. If anything of value is given the principals the contest shall be considered a prize fight. The penalty for a person engaging as a principal in any prize fight shall, on conviction, be imprisonment for not more than two or less than one year, and all persons who engage in arranging the preliminaries of a prize fight, and all seconds and attendants upon them, will be liable to the same punishment as that provided for the principals. This looks like business, and when the fact is considered that prize fighting under the specious name of sparring or boxing matches has become an every-day occurrence; that a number of those of recent happening have been as brutal and as determined as those fights that have taken place between such noted bruisers as Sullivan, Mitchell, Corbett, Fitzsimmons and others, it is certainly an auspicious indication of a determination to put an end to the savage practice.
Every state in the Union should follow Indiana's laudable example, and free the country from all such ruffian exhibitions.

OTHER PEOPLE'S MISERIES.

The Man of Letters Feeds Them More Than Does the Orthodox Religionist.

It is quite extraordinary how callous even the most religious persons in the past have often been to the miseries of their fellow creatures, both in this world and the next. They have indeed expressed their gratitude for being safe and sound themselves, but not without a feeling of complacency that others are not so fortunate.
It is this callousness, writes James Payn, in the Cornhill Magazine, which has rendered the man of letters—impulsive and sensitive, soft-hearted, yet easily moved to indignation and charitable even toward the sins he is not inclined to—unorthodox and something more. There may be in him a want of submissiveness to the divine will and certainly of that unquestioning faith which is the comfort of so many souls, but there is no lack of human love and sympathy, and the man who loves his fellows, we are told, is very near to loving his Creator.

At all events, the feeling I have described seems to me to have more or less pervaded the minds of almost all men of letters with whom I have conversed upon spiritual things. Because literary men are not, as a rule, churchgoers they are often considered irreligious or as complete Gal-lions in the matter, but this is not at all my experience of them, and I have lived in their midst for nearly half a century.

A very distinguished member of the clergy used to say, with those half-shut eyes that always shined when his vein of humor was touched and which caused it to be said of him that he "never saw a happy moment," "What strikes me as a queer is that belief in their particular doctrine is made the essential point of all sermons, all of which, save one—and perhaps even that—must be wrong."

Who shames every creed but his own Must look for a limited heaven And is like a man laying long odds When the long odds to him should be given.

It never seems to strike a theologian that his calculation is contrary to the doctrine of chances.

An Applied Epigram.

The diplomat was talking to a young woman in Washington, and, contrary to the usual order of procedure in such cases, the young woman was not giving her most reverent and soulful attention to the remarks of the gentleman whom all Washington women delight to honor. It is true she was hearing what he was saying, but a very remarkable specimen of the Washington dude was engaging a great deal of her attention. He was posing on the other side of the room, and there was about him such an air of blasé hauteur and such an astonishing revelation of clothes that to save her she could not help looking at him as the diplomat talked.

"Talleyrand once remarked," the diplomat was saying, to illustrate a profound point in diplomacy he was seeking to bring out, "that everything which is exaggerated is insignificant."

"My!" she exclaimed, with a start. "I didn't know things like that over there lived in Talleyrand's time?"—Detroit Free

From Prominent People.

A great many persons to our knowledge have voluntarily pronounced Dr. Ken-edy's Favorite Remedy successful in curing them of disease. Here are a number of statements that again demonstrate the value of this medicine.

Commander James S. Dean, of Gen.
Grant Post, G. A. R., Rondout, N. Y., contracted an aggravated stomach trouble, which resulted in chronic dyspepsia. He suffered miserably until he used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. "After using it a week," says Commander Dean, "I felt better, and in a short while was entirely cured, that terrible distress and food breaking up sour in my throat had all gone."

Rev. I. W. Hill, pastor Methodist church, Accord, N. Y.: "I can speak highly of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy as a blood medicine. Ten years ago I had a cancer removed from my lip. I then began the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and to this day no sign of the ugly thing has reappeared."

The Sisters of Charity, St. Mary's Female Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., say:
"The satisfaction we realize from the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy surpasses all expectation."

The worst cases of eczema, salt rheum, and scrofula yield to its curative power, nervousness, sleeplessness, liver and kidney complaints and all urinary troubles are cured by its use.

ALMOST A MIRACLE!

A Well-known Railroad Man's Experience.
Life Saved in a way which is Wonderful, and Ought to be Told Everywhere Far and Wide.

MR. CHARLES ANNABLE.

There is no better known railroad man than Mr. Charles Annable, who resides at 29 Jordan Ave., Brunswick, Me. He has occupied track positions for thirty years on the Maine Central R. R.

"Yes," said Mr. Annable to the writer, "I can tell some remarkable stories from my long thirty years' railroad experience, but something has happened recently which is of the greatest importance to the people. Before I speak of myself, however, let me relate her wonderful experience."

"I have been troubled," began Mrs.
Annable "so bad with neuralgia that I could not turn my head in bed. It seemed as though my head was paralyzed. I was so troubled with heart disease and palpitation that a good many nights I thought I might pass away during the night.
"I suffered severely, and expected every day would be my last. My head seemed sometimes as though it would be paralyzed, and the least exertion would upset me and render me terribly weak and nervous." took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and it completely cured me—made me well and strong again."

"It seems as though my cure was almost a miracle, for I am now cured.
My neighbors, well knowing my condition, are astonished at my recovery, and I cannot but highly enough express my gratitude for this wonderful medicine.

SIX EXPLOSION VICTIMS.

Killed by the Bursting of a Brewery Boiler at Mendota, Ills.

MENDOTA, Ills., Jan. 26.—Yesterday afternoon the main building of Henning's brewery, in this city, was wrecked by a boiler explosion, the concussion being so great that every building in the city was heavily shaken. The building destroyed was five stories in height and filled with machinery. The force of the explosion completely demolished it, killing seven men and badly injuring six others.

The killed are: C. Siefert, fireman; David Wells, fireman; David Gheer, engi-ner; Lemuel de Shazo, fireman; Henry Port, laborer; John Kennedy, a well borer, of DeKalb, and Adam Bresshead.

The injured are: James Love, Chicago, arm broken and head badly cut; A. Mc-Leod, Chicago, head and face cut; George Parker, Chicago, head cut; F. McCarpenter, badly hurt; William Long, badly hurt; Henry Varnore, badly hurt.

The Chicago men and Kennedy, of DeKalb, had but lately come here, and were engaged in sinking a well near the building.

Up to a late hour no more bodies had been found in the debris, and a blinding snow storm almost stops work, but it is thought more men are buried under the ruins of brick and beams. The loss of property amounts to over $100,000, and a large number of men are thrown out of employment.

The explosion had an upward tendency, lifting the building, and then everything fell into a huge heap in the center of the structure. A large number of people received injuries in removing beams and lumber. The work of removing the ruins is progressing slowly, and it will be a day or more before the list of dead will be complete.

Will Accept the Reception.

MONONGAHELA CITY, Pa., Jan. 25.—A meeting of the fourth pool miners was held at Roscoe yesterday afternoon. Every pit in the fourth pool was represented and each delegate reported his mine as idle against the reduction. After a two hours' session it was agreed to accept the reduction, $1.75, and notify the lower pools that they were ready to strike at any time for the price that the men below would agree to. It was further decided to ask all operators to pay cash wages only, semi-monthly, and allow their men the privilege of dealing where they pleased.

Japanese Await Reinforcements.

TIENTSIN, Jan. 28.—The Chinese met the advance of the Japanese army near Chang Bay on Thursday and repulsed them.
Some of the Japanese were killed. It is believed the Japanese will bring a larger force before making the attack on Wei-Hai-Wei. A Peking dispatch states Wang Wen Shiao, ex-viceroy of Yunnan, has been appointed to assist Li Hung Chang in the superintendence of trade, thus far curtailing the latter's functions.

THE CANAL BILL PASSED

Our Government Will Aid the Niagara Enterprise.

THE SENATE'S VOTE DECISIVE

The Work Will be Pushed Under the Supervision of a Board of Fifteen Directors, Ten of Whom Are to be Appointed by the President.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The bill pledging the faith of the United States to the construction of the Niagara canal passed the senate last night by the decisive vote of 81 yeas to 21 nays. The final vote was not secured until 6:30 o'clock.
The Niagara minister and many other diplomats interested in the project had seats in the diplomatic galleries throughout the voting.

The bill, in brief, directs the issue of $70,000,000 Niagara canal bonds. Each of these is to bear the following guarantee: "The United States of America guarantees to the lawful holder of this bond the payment by the Maritime Canal company, of Niagara, of the principal of said bonds and the interest accruing thereon, and as it accrues."

An additional $30,000,000 of bonds is to be issued without the United States guarantee. The total $100,000,000 thus loaned is to be used in constructing the interoceanic canal. The secretary of the treasury is to have general supervision of the project. A board of fifteen directors is to have immediate charge of the work. Of this board the president is to designate ten members, no more than two from any one state. The United States is to receive $70,- 000,000 of canal company stock in return for guaranteeing the bonds, and is to hold a mortgage lien on all the property of the canal company.

Aside from the final debate and vote on the Niagara bill the main interest of the day attached to a very caustic speech by Mr. Mills (Tex.) upholding the administration policy in Hawaii, and incidentally scoring the sugar trust.

The sundry civil bill passed the house yesterday in the shortest time, so far as known, on record. It was under consideration but three days. As passed, the bill carries $59,125,721. Two propositions, offered respectively by Mr. Sayers and Mr.
Coombs, the former to clothe the secretary of the treasury with power to issue United States bonds of such denominations as he should see fit, instead of as now, to raise them of the same denomination, and the latter to retire and cancel the gold certificates and make them nonreceivable for customs dues after July 1 next, furnished the principal theme of discussion. Mr. Sayers' proposition was defeated by a vote of 74 to 57, while that of Mr. Coombs was carried without division.

Binghamton's Bank Defalcation.

ALBANY, Jan. 26.—The closing of the Chenango Valley Savings bank in Binghamton, pending an examination into its affairs, occasioned by the discovery by State Bank Examiner Backus of the defalcation on the part of Treasurer Morgan, of the bank, is to be made the occasion, undoubtedly, for future legislation to provide for the separation of savings banks from banks of discount. Superintendent Preston is informed that Morgan confesses to a defalcation of from $15,000 to $30,000.
Examiner Backus is uncertain as to the true amount, but thinks it must be more.

Killed by a Powder Explosion.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 26.—A terrible explosion occurred in the Westmoreland freibrick mines at Hunter's Station, which will result in the death of a young man named Albright and perhaps another named Elmer Kaufman, and the serious injury of Frank Kaufman, an elder brother. The men were seated around a can containing five pounds of rock powder, when it was ignited and an explosion ensued, burning all of the men in a horrible manner.

Gold Shipments to Europe.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The shipments of gold by today's steamers aggregate $6,700,- 000, of which the Bourgogne took $3,050,000 and the Luconia $3,650,000. This makes the total exports for the week $7,300,000, which is the largest amount shipped in any one week since April, 1893. For the four weeks ending today the gold shipments foot up nearly $30,000,000, which is greater than any month's exports since last June.

We Still Lead in Gold Production.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The Engineering and Mining Journal says: We have collected the statistics of the output for the year in sufficient detail to be able to say that the United States still holds the first rank among the gold producers, with an output of nearly $41,000,000, as compared with $35,900,000 in 1893. The chief gain has been in Colorado. Africa produced $33,- 717,000, and western Australia $3,365,000.

Severe Snow Storm in the Northwest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Chicago is nearer being snow bound than at any time during the last eight years. The storm began at about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An hour after the snow was coming down in sheets, which were hurled through the streets by a gale which was blowing sixty-five miles an hour. Reports from all over the northwest showed the storm to be widespread and severe.

Child Killed by a Cyclone.

ARBEVILLE, Ala., Jan. 26.—A cyclone struck the western portion of this parish yesterday, doing considerable damage.
The house of Mr. Splan was blown to pieces, one of his little children killed, and another seriously injured. The cyclone came from the southwest, and was accompanied by a heavy mist, making it appear as a solid sheet of water.

Long Sentence for Arson.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Sarah Silvermeis-ter, convicted on Tuesday of arson in the first degree for setting fire to the store of Levi Weinberg, was sentenced to twenty-five years in state prison by Recorder Goff.
Louis Rothman, her accomplice, who pleaded guilty to arson in the second degree, was sentenced to fifteen years.

The Duchess of Marlborough to Wed.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—It is now positively announced that Lord William Bessford is to be married to the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Mrs. Louis Hammers-ley, of New York, during the coming spring.

Evidence of Infanticide.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 26.—A dead white baby was found in a flour bag in a back yard in Downingtown. There is evidence of murder.
