

His New Methods in Great Favor.

Interesting Facts About the New Discoveries—What the Learned Professor Has Done for Well-Known People.

Mr. Lehman, 234 7th ave., New York City, says: "I had rheumatism in my arm so badly that it was as useless as a wooden leg. The shooting pains in the arm and shoulder were so terrible that I was almost frantic. I consulted Professor Munyon and used his Rheumatism Cure. In 48 hours my pain was all gone and in less than a week I was cured."

A LITTLE'S Rheumatic Cure is guaranteed to cure muscular rheumatism in five days. It never fails. There is a loud shooting pain in the back or breast, or sore against the ribs that body in from one should be six times as stiff and swollen as it is in the hips, etc., in situation, and speedily relieved.

The London Chronicle says: "Mr. Cleveland could have rendered the public a timely service if he had refrained from sending a special message to Congress urging it again to potter with the currency question. All that the people ask of Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic party so far as this subject is concerned is to keep hands off. The people have morally revoked the authority of the majority in the present Congress and in a few weeks another Congress will succeed it, which will not only be fresh from the people, but competent to legislate intelligently on the currency problem."

The impending collapse of the sugar industry of Louisiana is one of the most singular results of the incompetency of Democratic tariff makers. A year ago the planters were ordering new machinery, and that this will occur within the next thirty days, and that the sale of bonds, avowedly for the redemption of the currency, but in reality to pay money to pay current expenses, will increase.

Mr. Hatch (Dem., Mo.): "There is nothing novel or startling in this proposition, except that it goes farther than many of us ever expected to see a Democratic president do. It proposes to pay in gold alone obligations now payable in coin. That is substantially the same measure that the House declined to refer the previous question on, but more objectionable to the silver men than the currency bill was."

Mr. Newlands (Rep., Nev.): "It is intended to place the government on a gold basis alone. The silver man will fight it." Mr. Sperry (Dem., Conn.): "Mr. Cleveland has risen to the emergency. It will draw a distinct line between men who are for the gold and those who are for the silver standard, and force the fight on lines that will make it impossible longer to compromise the issue."

Mr. Bland (Dem., Mo.), the silver leader: "A gold bond means a gold standard, and this is the first presidential proposition ever made that brings congress to the direct issue between the gold standard and bimetalism. The Chicago platform said silver should be treated as a standard money, equally with gold. The message and the bill utterly repudiate that principle. If the secretary of the treasury would say at his discretion to the people who are riding the treasury the gold reserve would be protected without the sale of a single bond. Right now the battle must be fought out."

Mr. Rayner (Dem., Md.): "There is nothing about silver and nothing about state banks in it and I strongly favor it. It is a shame and an outrage that nothing has been done before this to relieve the situation." Mr. Bryan (Dem., Neb.): "That message and that bill make the most abject surrender to the gold conspiracy ever proposed. It is the Wall Street idea in parliamentary language."

Mr. Warner (Dem., N. Y.): "Retire the greenbacks and treasury notes; make future bonds payable in gold only; recognize what is the fact, that we are on a gold basis, and that silver is to be considered as subsidiary coinage only; confirm this by making customs duties payable in gold. If we do these things, or if we do the first of them, we shall have dug the grave of financial troubles."

Mr. Tracy (Dem., N. Y.): "I think the president's message and the bill presented a sensible solution of the problem. If the Republicans will lay aside partisanship and support it from patriotic motives it will pass."

Mr. Bailey (Dem., Tex.): "It is the clearest cut proposition to place the country on a gold basis ever made, and I am utterly and absolutely opposed to it."

The Message Pleases the Bankers. New York, Jan. 29.—Bankers and financial men in this city, apparently without exception, speak in terms of approval of the president's message. President J. Edward Simmons, of the Fourth National bank, said: "The president now places the responsibility of maintaining the public credit upon congress. It rests with congress to say whether it will ever dissolve or afford needed relief by wise and judicious legislation." Other bankers in this city expressed similar views.

Many stubborn and aggravating cases of rheumatism that were believed to be incurable and accepted as life long, have yielded to Chamberlain's Pain Balm, much to the surprise and gratification of the sufferers. One application will relieve the pain and suffering and the continued use insure an effectual cure. The sale by Gruber Bros.

P. O. S. of A. Reunion. In a few days invitations will be issued by Washington Camp No. 125, P. O. S. of A., of Girardville, to the various camps of the order in this section, to attend a reunion in that town on February 23.

Extensive preparations are being made for the reception of the visitors, and the committee now at work are putting forth every effort to make the affair a memorable one. The committee consists of Thomas L. Evans, W. S. Britton, J. H. Babt, E. D. Gregory and Jerry Green.

They are preparing a program of great interest, and expect fully one hundred and fifty representatives from the camps of the district. In the afternoon a public meeting will be held in the opera house, which will be addressed by prominent members of the order. The visitors will subsequently be invited to a supper, after which the reunion will take place, the admission being confined to members of the order. Subjects of interest to the fraternity will be discussed at the latter meeting.

A Trip to Mt. Carmel. A number of young people enjoyed a sleighing trip from town to Mt. Carmel and return last evening and had a very enjoyable time. They partook of a chicken and waffle supper at one of Mt. Carmel's leading hotels. The party included Misses Maize Kreiger, Bessie Hoover, Mattie Powell, Emma Seltzer, Mary Kincaid, Gertrude Muir, Robena Clifford, Mary Johnston and Messrs. John Kaudler, John Kincaid, Lou Grimm, George Hoover and Thomas Johnston.

Kentucky Lynchers Still Entertained. RICHMOND, Ky., Jan. 29.—A mob swung Garrett Taylor, colored, to a limb because he purchased money from an old man. He was swung up several times, the last time being left until life was ebbing away. A passerby cut him down and advised that he confess or the mob would kill him. He showed where the money was hid and was let off.

THE CURE GOES DEEP.

Paine's Celery Compound Better Than All Else—Makes People Well.

"The most miserable man," says the eminent Dr. Weir Mitchell, "is the one who is all the time anxious about his health and fearful of a relapse to some old disorder." "The cure of kidney disease must go deep. It is no superficial disorder. Pure blood, loaded with the rich supply of reconstructive matter through the innermost organs."

My opportunity to achieve national prominence and greatness, our progress should not be checked by a false financial policy and a heedless disregard of the elementary laws of the country you obtain Paine's celery compound. It is used by thousands of people in every state and county and city in the land tells something of what it is accomplishing. Every year it adds a ring of increase, taking in larger and larger territory, like the annual growth of a big solid oak. It over-shadows to-day the weak imitations, the ordinary sarsaparillas, tonics and nervines as the tall forest tree does the thin scrub bushes. Paine's celery compound is not like them. It is the great discovery of a great scientist and philanthropist, Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth college.

"I have been troubled with my kidneys since I was nine years old, and have never been strong and healthy until this past few years. Early this summer my trouble came back again, and my blood was out of fix. The doctor said that I had black jaundice and ordered sarsaparilla; I tried it, but did not see any improvement. I had heard a great deal about Paine's celery compound and got a bottle, and now that it is nearly all gone I feel better and look better, and weigh to-day 176 pounds, while at my lowest I weighed 158. AMUSEMENTS.

"The White Squadron," the spectacular naval drama by Jas. W. Harkins, Jr., will be presented at Ferguson's theatre this evening. The scenes of the play are laid in Brazil and the melodramatic instances lead to a triumph for the American Naval Officers. The company is a strong one throughout and includes W. A. Whitcomb, Robert Neil, Fred Julien, Will F. Phillips, J. Edwin Leonard, J. W. Smalley, Laura Booth, Laura Almosino, Edith Julien and others. During the action of the third act "Congress of Navies," over 150 trained supernumeraries are used. To insure the proper presentation of this big spectacle the company carry four special baggage cars of scenery, properties and electric effects.

"A BARREL OF MONEY." "A Barrel of Money" was one of the first and most successful efforts to mingle melodrama with mirth provoking farce. It mixes machinery with the matter of the play and in one scene the lively young heroine is discovered fastened to a huge belt, with the villain just about to start the engine, which would carry her to a dreadful death amid whirling wheels. Of course she is rescued in the nick of time, and thereafter the existence of the villain, who is in wrongful possession of her property, is simply not worth living! The first act opens with a country dance at Slackville Tavern, introducing a number of odd and amusing characters. The principal character, Roxey, is overflowing with fun, and her escapades are productions of almost incessant laughter. The serious interest never flags, the comedy is bright and lively and with special scenery, thrilling mechanical effects (including a monster steam engine), sparkling music and specialties, "A Barrel of Money" has proven a popular and potent attraction. The managers, Stair & Nicolai, are striving to eclipse the past excellences of their excellent attraction and promise a company of superior merit in their popular play. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, February 1st. Popular prices, 25, 50 and 50 cents.
