THEY WERE CAMDENIZED.

Miss Minnie Guldin, of Town, is Now Mrs. Dodd.

THE WEDDING A SURPRISE.

Bride and Groom Went Away to Visit Relatives of the Former, but Journeyed on to Jersey.

Local society circles are once more stirred up. Not by a scandal, but by an unexpected wedding. The principals in the sensation are Miss Minnie Guldin, daughter of the Commercial hotel proprietor, and Mr. Fred. Dodd, a young man of Lewes, Delaware.

The marriage was a secret to all but the principals until last night. Even the bride's parents had no intimation of it until that time. Miss Guldin and Mr. Dodd first met last October in the place where the groom's home is located. His father is a merchant there. About two weeks ago Mr. Dodd came here and remained a guest at the hotel. Last Thursday he and Miss Guldin left by train for Pottsville, ostensibly to visit some of Miss Guldin's relatives. Nothing unusual was suspected. Even when Miss Guldin failed to write and say she had reached her destination no suspicions were aroused, as the blizzard had set in. Everything seemed to help along the secrecy of the affair.

Last night the young lady returned to the hotel. Not as Miss Guldin, however, but as Mrs. Fred. Dodd. Mr. and Mrs. Guldin took the situation philosophically. After the shock of the surprise passed off the usual forgiveness, blessings, etc., followed and everybody seemed happy. The bride and groom are domiciled at the hotel. They say they were married in Camden, N. J.

The announcement of this wedding will occasion surprise in other parts of the county, especially in Pottsville, where the bride recently resided with her parents. She is a good looking young woman of nineteen years and is very prominent in amateur theatrical circles. She attained some success as the "Drummer Boy" in the benefit productions of "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" in Pottsville and this town a few years ago and last December appeared in a Topsy character in comedy at Robbins' opera house in this town for the benefit of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Spilled in the Snow.

The Seymour Stratton Comedy Company's band hired a large sleigh yesterday to drive about and announce the company's arrival by musical blasts. They had just struck up a tune and were turning the corner of Main and Centre streets when the sleigh upset, spilling the musicians and instruments promiscuously. One of the men, Joe Shumfelt, had his side bruised and his hat smashed. The others escaped injury and were the cause of considerable merriment. Shepard Balch's head was firmly wedged in the bell of his tuba horn, and one end of a horn got into another player's mouth in such a manner as to almost choke him. The bass drum player went flying over the instrument like a skyrocket. He is a long-legged fellow and looked very funny sailing through the air.

Died.

LEBE.—On the 11th inst., at Shenandoah, Pa., Charles Lebe, aged 60 years. Funeral will take place on Thursday, 14th inst., at 2 p. m., from the family residence, corner of Cherry and Gilbert streets. Services in the German Lutheran church. Interment in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. 2-12-95

Advertising Pays.

Yesterday Mrs. Fulmer, of North Main street, advertised in the HERALD for the owner of a cow that strayed to her premises. The owner saw the "ad" and claimed the animal last night. The cow was lost three weeks ago.

Carpets sold on easy terms at Fricke's carpet store. 2-12-95

Stricken by Paralysis.

Mrs. I. M. Titman, of East Coal street, is suffering from a paralytic stroke received last Sunday, and is in a precarious condition. Mrs. Titman is the mother of Messrs. C. E., J. A. and H. W. Titman.

Theatre Improvements.

A theatre curtain manufacturer was in town yesterday afternoon and spent several hours in Ferguson's theatre with Mr. Ferguson, who will begin making extensive improvements in the place when the present season closes.

A Fine Sleigh.

R. T. Knight, of the South Jardin street grocer, has placed an excellent truck sleigh on the road. It is both substantial and attractive and takes second place to none seen on the streets.

Charter Granted.

The court at Pottsville yesterday granted a charter to a new society of this town known as The St. Peter and St. Paul Greek Catholic Beneficial Society.

PERSONAL.

Miss Jennie Sneddon visited friends at Centralia to-day.

Robert Bowman, of Mahanoy City, was a town visitor to-day.

R. Clem Butler, of Mauch Chunk, transacted business in town to-day.

Miss Inspector Stein transacted business at the county seat this morning.

E. C. Mallick, one of the clerks at Indiana Ridge colliery, is on the sick list.

D. M. Boyer, of Reading, was yesterday the guest of his brother, H. C. Boyer, of this paper, and was this morning summoned home on account of the serious illness of his wife.

D. M. Francis, accompanied by his wife, daughter and sister, Miss Catherine, of Shamokin, are the guests of relatives in town. Mr. Francis is one of Shamokin's leading brickmakers.

New carpets, oil cloths and window shades are arriving daily at C. D. Fricke's carpet store. 2-12-95

Criminal Neglect.

A Poland named William Rice was terribly injured at the Oak Hill colliery, near Pottsville, yesterday morning. While he was digging in a ditch in the mine his pick struck a piece of dualin and the explosion that followed blew out his left eye and lacerated his face in a terrible manner. The victim was sent to this town on the 12:35 p. m. Pennsylvania train yesterday, enroute for the Miners' Hospital at Fountain Springs, and a worse case of criminal neglect can hardly be imagined. The unfortunate man had apparently received no attendance. His left eye hung upon his cheek, none of his wounds were bandaged and the coverings upon him were so light that he suffered intensely from the cold. The Lehigh depot officials summoned Dr. Hamilton and he did what he could to help the sufferer.

The Theatre.

The Seymour Stratton Comedy Company opened a week's engagement at Ferguson's theatre last night before a crowded house and gave a very satisfactory production of "The Gold King." Mr. Thomas Stratton's impersonation of the "Gold King" was a very creditable piece of work and Miss Lizzie Seymour and Ned Curtis afforded considerable amusement in comedy roles. The company carries with it an orchestra that makes the intermissions between the acts pass very pleasantly, and on the whole the entertainment is the best given by any company at popular prices for many years. To-night a laughable comedy entitled "Golden Ridge" will be produced.

Roach Won.

The foot race between Roach, of Girardville, and Griffith, of Ashland, took place yesterday afternoon at the old Columbia park race track. The attendance was quite large. The race was one of 75 yards for $100 a side and Roach, who was the favorite, won by about four feet. Considerable money changed hands on the result. George Turner, of Philadelphia, was the pistol firer and James Smith, of town, the referee.

Obituary.

Mrs. Christian Herman, a former resident of this town, and relict of Conrad Herman, died at Pottsville on Sunday. The remains will be brought here for burial to-morrow, arriving on the 12:30 p. m. Pennsylvania railroad train. Services will be held in the German Lutheran church on West Cherry street, and interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Pastorate Anniversary.

Sunday last marked the first anniversary of Rev. T. M. Morrison's installation as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of town, and the Christian Endeavor Society placed upon his pulpit a large collection of carnations, tea roses and other beautiful flowers. Rev. Morrison was taken by surprise and spoke feelingly while expressing his appreciation of the remembrance.

One Road Re-Opened.

One of the roads between this town and the Catawissa Valley that the blizzard closed has been re-opened. It is the one that leads to Krebs' station. Men employed by Union township worked all day Saturday and yesterday and cleared the road of snow as far as the Mahanoy township line on the top of the mountain. The other road is still closed.

A nice present—a box of Brennan's Havana cigars, $1.25 per box.

The Election Ballots.

The County Commissioners are having the ballots for the spring election printed. Work on them was begun yesterday. The ballot to be used in Shenandoah will be the smallest, containing only three columns, while that to be used in Porter township will be the largest, having seven columns.

Of Interest to Ladies.

Mrs. E. Garner, of 13 South Jardin street, is prepared to do all kinds of family dressmaking, sewing and fancy and plain knitting neatly and promptly, and on very reasonable terms.

Pulled Through the Chute.

A Pole working in the breaker at Maple Hill colliery fell into a chute yesterday and was drawn down with the coal to the cars, but escaped injury. He received a drenching from the hose that is used in washing the coal.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Pithy Paragraphs From the Pens and Pencils.

LOOK OUT FOR PNEUMONIA

An Insidious Disease That Comes Without Warning and Apparently Without Any Specific Cause.

Since the severe weather set in pneumonia has been making havoc, and the severity of the spell of the last few days will enable it to make even greater. Unless the utmost precautions are taken it is one of the commonest forms of inflammation, and yet not always recognized even by physicians. It passes before it develops, during which the patient consoles himself with the belief that he has only an ordinary cold which will cure itself shortly. The precautions should be especially with reference to children. An hour's exposure may cost them life. Beware of the languor, the feverishness, the shortness of breath, and do not dismiss them as symptoms of a cold which children are supposed to have as a matter of course. Now, if ever, keep the feet dry and warm, avoid as much as possible the sharp change from the heat of the dwelling room or office to the outer air. Keep the system well nourished against attacks, so that it can throw off promptly what will if suffered to remain in it invite the destroyer. Alarm spreads at the mention of an epidemic disease, but the epidemic is rare which carries off so many persons in the course of a year as does the neglected cold. Usually it is only when too late that people learn how little neglect may be fatal. Herein is a pitiful misfortune of the poor, that they are not only without proper clothing for such weather as this, without proper food to fortify the system, but without the means to properly care for their sick when the cold has done its worst. Look out for the pneumonia now, remembering its insidiousness, and that it may develop when least expected, from causes which may not be traced.

Many people contend that the late blizzard was not to be compared with that of 1888. Others say it was worse. Careful thought leads most of those who had a taste of both to say that the late unpleasantness was the worst of the two. In the first place, that 1888 was accompanied by rain, which made the snow heavy, while the flakes of Thursday evening were light. True it is that the railroads were blocked for several days in 1888, but then the companies were not prepared for such an experience. It taught them a lesson, and to day it will take a mighty severe blizzard to keep the roads tied up for so long a period as was the case in 1888. The winter of '73 has been also quoted as being a record-breaker, but the weight of argument is against it, and we must concede the palm to '95. Rev. John Grubler, who has a very good memory, says that in the many years he has lived here this one was the most severe. His experience in 1873, when he officiated at the funeral of Mr. Aker, reminded him of the fact that the winter of that year was no comparison to this.

The present winter has been a remarkable one so far as sleighing goes, but it does not equal the record of the winter of 1873-4, when we had good sleighing for ninety days. The first sleighing this winter was on Dec. 28th and it has continued since that time, a total up to date of forty-eight days.

Several bills have been reported from committee in the state legislature to relieve the several counties of needless expense. One in particular which gives aldermen and justices of peace the power to settle cases of assault and battery should be passed. It would be a great benefit to this county if it was for there are entirely too many petty cases sent down to court that should be settled in the squire's office, thereby entailing the taxpayers of the county with a large item of expense that could be saved.

Dabb has removed his gallery to Hoffman's old stand, West Centre street.

Like an Oasis.

The Delano shops are now a scene of briskness and activity and every branch of work is on the demand. The repairing department is by far the busiest as many passenger, freight and coal engines are in for repairs, a large number having been damaged since the blizzard wave set in. The construction department where new work is done is laboring nine hours per day and the repair department ten. Passenger engines are so scarce that freight engines are substituted in a few instances.

Mr. Kendrick to Return.

EDITOR HERALD.—It is now seven months since I wrote my last letter to you concerning my health and my asthmatic trouble. I have been in Colorado ten months and am most happy to say that I am so well that I sometimes think I was never troubled with asthma. I will stay here until spring—May or June—then I will return to my home in Shenandoah. My physician says I will be perfectly safe in doing so. Furthermore, I have been very fortunate here in Denver. I bought a very nice two-story brick house with three lots, on a corner. It is what they call Highlands, two miles from here. A syndicate was here two weeks ago looking for a site for a consumptives' hospital and they selected my place. I sold it to them to-day and doubled on my investment.
