The Symbol "Thirteen" Cuts no Figure in License Court.

GRANTED! APPLICATIONS

The License Fight Made by the Calvary Baptist Church and Others Resulted in a Victory.

There are some people of town who, if they ever believed in it, will probably hereafter renounce the superstitious idea that the figures "13" are omens of misfortune. These people are the thirteen who secured decisions in their favor before the court at Pottsville. They should form a thirteen club and set forth in the constitution how they won their cause, while a com bination of twenty-three people before the same court lost and are, consequently, left without saloon liceuses. The lucky ones are the same as reported in yesterday's issue of the HERALD, namely ; Andrew Navickie, John Slattery, Adolph Tabor, Wincenty Banis, Patrick Burke, John Doolan, John J. Delaney, George Karlitsky, Bridget Finnegan, George Rettick, George Nanjunas, William Dagilus and Mrs. Ellen Welsh.

The unfortunate twenty-three appli cants are Frank Cymbal, Bernand Brad ley, John Dalton, Authory Alex, Edward Farley, Louis Komerowski, Kasimer Sznpi nas, Frank Garney, Joseph Raytklewicz, Gustav Wachus, Andrew Biskko, Joseph Ligan, Hyman Rubinsky, Philip Yarowsky, W. Thomas Lee, Henry Zus-koski, William Grimes, Joseph Lintus, Baltromaix Tilwikaitus, Joseph Murawski, Stephen Schwartz, John Mitchell and Harry Kurilla.

All the applications refused were made for new stands and seventeen of the twenty-three were by Polish and Lithuanian people. Three were Irish, two were Hebrews and one American. Of the thirteen lucky applicants seven were Polish, Lithuanians and Slovanians, and six were Irish. The petition of F. J. Brennau is held over. The number of licenses granted in this county so far this year is 955, and 104 were refused. Last year 897 were granted and 87 were refused.

The refusal to grant Frank Cymbal a license is a signal victory for the residents of the south end of Jardin street and the congregation of the Calvary Baptist church. This was one of the most bitterly fought cases before the present term of A most beautiful line just cut the license court and aroused consider able interest. Among those who took an license was Councilman A. B. The church made a determined fight and every witness who went upon the stand, including the applicant, was subjected to a rigid cross-examination. The refusal of this application leaves Jardin street free of a saloon south of Centre street.

John Slattery, one of the lucky applicants, is the boot and shoe dealer. He will open a place in his building at the corner of Centre and Emerick streets. Tabor is the East Centre street butcher, and will also open a place in the First ward.

George Nanjunas, another lucky First ward man, is a Lithuanian of considerable education. He was a student in one of being a political refugee. During his residence here he has been working in the

Mrs. Ellen Wel-h was formerly the proprietor of a place at the west end of Centre street, but lost her license about two or three years ago. The present license is granted for a place on East Lloyd street, a prop erty owned by James J. Francy.

Another big fight in the present license court was the one in which a Pole named stry from time to time to make rules Ge ree Smith was an applicant for a nearing upon the attendance. TOWN TOPICS.

Items of Interest Paragraphed by the Pencil Pushers.

Although the blizzard is somewhat of a chestnut, one can hardly go into a place where men congregate unless he hears less to say that in 'many instances the stories have a decided Munchausen flavor and would be a decided credit to the old Baron himself.

The New York newspapers say that one of the most distressing features of the protracted cold weather is the scarcity of coal. That is funny. One of the most distressing features in the coal regions is that the mine operators don't give the miners a chance to mine the coal. One part of the country suffers because there is no coal for use, and another part suffers because it is not allowed to mine it. There s a screw loose some place.

The latest compulsary educational bill presented to the Legislature of this state is one that has behind it Clarence F. Huth, of Shamokin, one of the state officers of the P. O. S. of A. The bill is modeled after the compulsary educational law of Ohio and provides that all children between the ages of eight and thirteen years shall be compelled to attend some public school or receive in structions in the common English branches from some private tutor at least sixteen weeks in each year.

A well-known gentleman of town was complimenting the tailor on some mending which he had done for him. In the course of the conversation he, however, incautiously observed: "When I want a good coat made I go to Philadelphia : hey make them there." Before leaving the shop he inquired "By the way, do you attend my church ?" "No," replied the tailor, "when I want to hear a good sermon I go to Philadelphia ; they preach them there."

The storm of the past few days played havor with the feathered tribe. Many sparrows were frozen to death, though they are looked upon as the hardiest birds in this section. A West Line street man came across a wild duck which had been carried out of its course and was almost frozen to death. The fowl was picked up and after being thawed out and fed revived and is now as lively as ever. Many other fowl suffered by the storm, and it is predicted by old hunters that quail will be scarce bereabouts for the next two sea-

Many a good item of news is lost to the newspapers by the modesty of people who hesitate to tell a reporter of matters conperning themselves. Not that they do not want it to appear in print, but they are afraid they would be pushing them selves forward. That is wrong. For the past three or four years the region surrounding Shenandoah has been the mecca and camping grounds of the innumerable fakirs and peddlers who have been unceremoniously bounced from the neighboring counties of Lehigh, Carbon, Luzerne and Northumberland, and to such an extent have they plied their calling, regardless of the law, that it is confidently asserted that no fewer than 200 of these fakirs start out from Shenandoah each day with full packs and wagon leads of miscellaneous merchaudise, which they dispose of to the unwary housekeepers of this region at usurious prices, to the detriment of the legitimate business people, who pay their legitimate the Bussian colleges and is credited with taxes, licenses, &c., and who conduct their business on strictly business principles. To such an extent is this nefarious susiness carried that it is asserted by hose who claim to know its volume, that not less than $40,000 in trade is thus diverced from its legitimate channels every month. An appalling condition,

A Good Rule.

The popularity of the public library has increased to such an extent that the committee in charge has found it necesnew rule goes into effect. It bars the attendance on Saturday evenings of all school children other than those of the High and second grade grammar schools. They must visit the library hereafter after school hours on Thursdays. This step has been found necessary in order to afford better accommodation for the adult patrons of the library. The children have made visits very unpleasant for them by crowding the headquarters.

SEVERAL BILLS REJECTED.

The Investigating Committee Wanted the Quinn & Kerns Matters Arbitrated. Council Objected.

The Borough Council held a special meeting last night to consider and dispose of bills contracted in the construct tion of the public water works and which have been laid over from time to time pending investigation. The session was quite a lively one and the members seemed evenly divided on all the points brought

An effort to bring about an arbitration of some of the claims was defeated after a wordy warfare. This point was raised in connection with some claims of Quinn & Kerns, the original contractors of the public water works. The Council now withholds $6,000 the firm claims and the money is withhere pending the settle of the dispute as to who ment shall bear the expense of repair ing the reservoir at Brandonville and pending a test of the pipes laid in town Quinn & Kerns also claim $300 for a fee paid George J. Wadlinger, the Pottsville lawyer, and $297 for taking up and piling pipes distributed in the town in the fall of 1893 and for re-distributing the pipe in the spring of 1894.

The water committee met and considered these claims on Tuesday night and as a result of that meeting Mr. Gallagher, chairman of the committee, last night presented a recommendation in writing that all the matters in dispute between the borough and Quinn & Kerns be submitted to a board of arbitrators consisting of three competent civil engineers, one to be chosen by the Council, one by the contractors and the third to be selected by the two thus chosen.

Mr. Gallagher urged the arbitration measure and argued that if the borough went into court, according to past experience, it would lose. He thought an arbitration should be tried, to see if the borough would stand any better show. After considerable discussion the recom mendation was defeated and the three claims specified were rejected.

A claim of P. J. Cleary for extra services in laying the pipe line from Brandon ville to Fowler's Run, amounting to $261 83 was also rejected. The Councilmen were about evenly divided as to whether or not the claim was a just one. Mr. Kane didn't vote and th Lamb, who was acting as chairman, de H. B. Lyon's, on West Mahanoy avenue, clared the motion to pay lost.

The following payments were made cates, $1,828.79; Shenandoah Feed & Lumber Company, on account of a claim of $2,690, $2,000; A. W. Schalck, Esq., on account of legal services, $100; J. H. Pomeroy, Esq., for extra legal services, $350; A. J. Womelsdorf, balance of 8 per cent. commission, $1,105,20; National Tube Works, $64.77.

A bill of $228 presented by the National Tube Works for extra services of the ompany's superintendent was rejected services amounting to $909 presented by Engineer A. J. Womelsdorf.

The engineer who is in charge of the numping station at Brandonville presented a bill for his services. The bill was made out at the rate of $5 per day and during the discussion it transpired that $2.50 gees to the engineer, 75 cents for his board, 75 cents for the use of a mule in traveling to and from his work and $1 goes to the Jeanesville Iron Works, who secured his services. The water committee reported against the bill, but the Council passed it.
