The Evidence of Jul Washtler. the Stone, applier, Admitted. BLIXT DENOUNCED AS A LIAR.

CHE LEVOLUD FROMMORY

The Evidence of the Witness, Which Was Positive in Its Nature, Remains Unshaken by Cross Examination-Harry Hayward in Good Humor.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 10,-"How does it look now, old man?" asked Harry Hay-ward after court adjourned last evening, as he slapped a friend on the back and laughed heartily. He was in a good humore. After four long weeks of trial the defense had at least make a mark with the testimony of Maggie Wachtler, the stenographer, the state having withdrawn its objections to her testifying. Miss Wachtler was voluble, positive and could not be shaken by cross examination. She called Blixt a liar, Odell a schemer to make money out of the county, tion. and Assistant County Attorney Hall, a buildozer and intimidator of women. When she had written Blixt's confession, she said, it was substantially the same as already published, with the exception that Adry Hayward, not Harry, was his employer.

Mrs. W. W. Hayward, the mother of both boys, came into court to hear her elder son again accused of the crime from the lips of the woman who was to impeach the testimony of Blixt. She took it calmly, although there was a look of satisfaction upon her face as she heard the witness testify and heard how Mr. Nye failed to shake her. Harry was jubilant, but controlled himself, yet often he would burst out into uncontrollable laughter as Miss Wachtler would make an unusually savage thrust at Mr. Odell or Mr. Hall. After court adjourned Mr. Hall stated that there was not a word of truth in what she had stated about him. In her evidence she said that Hall had called on her, and attacked her character in a most abusive and scandalous manner.

"Why, our meeting was most pleasant," said Mr. Hall. "Do they think I am a fool, to talk the way she says to a woman! For the sake of impeachment Mr. Hall asked the witness if she had not told John A. Olsen that if he would go to the defense and tell them he knew something about Pilsner Beers and tell them he knew something about the murder case he would make plenty of money. She denied it flatly. She was asked if she did not threaten Mr. Odell to make it hot for him, and if she did not say she had been offered money for Direct not tell Olsen that she knew something about the case, for Odell said something just as they were going out of Blixt's cell She denied all this flatly. The other wit-nesses of the day were unimportant.

A Woman Drives Off a Burglar.

ALTON, Ills., Feb. 19.-Mrs. George Mc-Millen is the heroine of the city. While she was in her house with only a 6-yearold child for company Sunday night a burglar entered her room and demanded her money. She agreed to get what she had, and went to a bureau drawer, ostensibly to procure it. When she opened the Irawer she selzed a revolver, and turning in the burgiar commanded him to leave the house. She made him back to the front door, open it and retreat into the ard. Then she returned to her little boy in the room upstairs.

THE MURDERED ACTRESS. THE HALL FLID DIA LAND Still No Trace of Her Slayer, Whom She

Had Juied for Anothers.

PHILADELIPHIA, Feb 19 - The real motive for the murder of the actress known as Madge Yorke in this city on Sund night was revealed tast evening by Ed-ward Magos, the leading juvenile man of the "Baggage Check" company. Thestory told by him maintains the theory that lames B. Gentry fired the fatal shots in a jealous rage. Ever since Gentry and the girl parted in New York five weeks ago, after a bitter quarrel, Gentry sent her telegrams daily. She paid no attention to however.

Mr. Magee was reluctant to tell why she acted thus, when the general understand-ing was that she and Gentry were be-trothed, but after some pressing it was carned that her neglect of her former lover was a consequence of the advent of a new one in the person of Mr. Magoo him self. Gentry's persistant pleadings event ually became wearisome to the girl, and on Sunday morning she resolved to dis-miss him. For this purpose also went to New York, but not finding him she sent a telegram, telling him that all was over be tween them, and that she had taken her father's advice to sever their relations. She left New York on the 12:40 train.

Nothing has been heard of Gentry, but the authorities are maintaining such a rigorous guard that unless he has already made his escape it will be next to impos-sible for him to do so. Some of the de-tectives are inclined to believe that he caught the 10 o'clock train on the Pennaylvania railroad for New York Sunday night. The revolver with which the murder was committed was found in a snow bank at Eighth and Logast stroots-half a block from the scene of the crime. Three chambers were empty. The parents of the dead girl arrived here yesterday. The father, Robert S. Drys-dale, secured a permit for the removal of the body and it was forwarded to New York in the afternoon, Mr. Drysdale emphatically denied that any engagement had existed between Gentry and his daughter, saying that he would not have permitted such an alliance. He had been an acquaintance of the family for a year and was allowed to visit their home, but they had no idea he was in love with her. Gentry was to have appeared in Poughkeepsic last night with his company, which is playing "A Back Number." Willie Collicr, the manager of the company, anticipates hearing of his suicide.

In Honor of Philanthropist Peabody. PEABODY, Mass., Feb. 19.-The celebra tion of the centennial anniversary of the birthday of George Peabody, the cela-brated London banker, philanthropist, benefactor and memorable citizen, oc-curred in this, his native town, yesterday, with appropriate ceremonies. Cablegrams from Queen Victoria and the Duke of Devonshire, chairman of the Peabody donation fund, to which Mr. Peabody con-tributed $3,500,000 for the establishment of homes for the deserving poor of London, gave it a touch of international character. The business part of the town was appro priately decorated, and business was sus pended. Bells were rung for an hour, be ginning at sunrise. Later there was a public meeting, with elaborate exercises, and a banquet in the evening.

Admiral Ting's Body at Chefoo.

CHEFOO, Feb. 19 .- The steamer Kang hi, loaned by the Japanese for the pur pose, arrived here yesterday with the re-mains of Admiral Ting, the Chinese naval ommander who committed suicide after ils surrender to the Japanese at Wel-Hai Wei. The steamer also brought the bodies of Commander Liu and Captain Yang, of the Chinese flagship Chen Yuen, and General Chang, commander of military forces at Wei-Hai-Wei, all of whom killed them alves rather than suffer the punishment that would have been meted out to them by the failure of his forces to repel the Japanese. The Japanese paid the greatest respect to Admiral Ting's remains. Cap-tain Yang shot himself as the Japanese went over the side of his flagship.

T., Feb. 18.-The Texas express and a through cattle train on the Santa Fe road collided in Dead Man's cut, five miles south of here, Saturday night The freight was coming around a short curve, and the headlights could not be seen until within thirty feet of each other. The passenger engineer jumped and saved his life, as did the freight fireman. Freight Engineer Charles Uppleby jumped, but his head struck the rocky side of the cut, and he was killed. Passenger Fireman Patrick Coldron was caught in the cab and scalded so badly that he died yesterday morning Both engines, baggage and mail cars and half a dozen freight cars were demolished and seventy head of stock were killed.

A Counterfeiting Gang Captured. NEW YORK, Feb. 18 - A gaug of counter-feiters were surprised while at work in a flat on East Seventieth street. The prisoners were Salvatore Clements and bla wife, Salvatore Fraute and his son Benjamin, 14 years old, tenants of the house, and James Merendino, of No. 330 East One Hundred and Seventh street; Raf-acle Federico, of No. 2346 Broadway, and Ginsoppi Abbio, of No. 327 West Fortieth street. The Colored Citizen Gained His Point.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Feb. 18.-Another case similar to that of Rev. Mr. Anderson, the Evansville colored preacher, transpired Saturday on the Owensboro and Nashville railway, a branch of the Louisville and Nashville. The negro evidently relied on Judge Barr's recent decision against the separate coach law for protection, and entered a white coach. Conductor Tapscott reminded him that he was in the wrong car, but he objected to leave. Quietly the white passengers gave up the car to him and he rode alone to Livia, only seventeen miles.

Three Children Burned to Death,

GHAYLING, Mich., Feb. 18.-Three chilfrom, aged 9, 6 and 4 years respectively, out their lives in a fire at Lewistown last night. The children had been put to bed while their father, Ell Seymour, and wife attended a Maccabees dance. When they returned the house was in flames. When the fire had been sufficiently extinguished to enter the house the children were found dead side by side in bed. They had evidently been sufficiated without having been awakened. The cause of the fire is maknown.
